THE ADDRESS OF
THE RIGHT REVEREND THE BISHOP OF LOS ANGELES
ROBERT C. RUSACK, S.T.D., D.D.
TO THE ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
NINETIETH CONVENTION
DECEMBER 6th, 1985

Today we stand at the doorway of a new decade of service as a Diocesan family. With the Centennial festivities of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan now concluded, we are reminded that this is our Ninetieth Diocesan Convention. Sister Mary, of the Order of the Good Shepherd, established a cottage hospital in Los Angeles in 1884, when California was one diocese. The fruits of her labors, and those of many others through 100 years, make us the proud sponsors of one of the most remarkable medical centers in the United States. We have brought a churchman from Pittsburgh to be the new president, Mr. John Westerman. I hope to have him speak to us at Convention next year.

Our next decade of life as an Episcopal Diocese can be for us all years of further exploration into the Christian Way, a growing familiarity with some of the great saints and thinkers and servants of the Christian community; a decade to wrestle with hard questions and desperate problems in our society; also years when we can sharpen our skills in evangelism, stewardship, service, communication and church growth. I would pray that before we reach the 100th anniversary of Diocesan life, we have become worthy stewards of all that God has given to us in southern California. To that end we are beginning this decade with the central theme of our Convention centering on stewardship. Bishop McAllister of Oklahoma will speak to this at dinner tonight. Bill Dowe has joined our staff to help us all come to grips with the talents we have been given in the realm of money, and how realistically we can share our resources for the building up of the church now, and after we are dead.

Each year, no matter how many previous ones we have experienced, there is a thrill about beginning again. On September 29th, all of a sudden in the middle of a great service in Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, it came to me that this was not just a new beginning for Alan Jones as Dean of that Gothic pile on Nob Hill, but at that very moment I was beginning my 22nd year as a bishop. I still get excited at the prospect of beginning the Church year again, as we just have with this Advent Season. I get excited at beginning again to learn the lore of Christ and seeking to penetrate further through the work of worship the meaning of what it is to be on Mission in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

With the advent of our Korean, Chinese, Filipino and Vietnamese congregations, I have learned that one of the great Asian traditions is that of the story teller. From the earliest days in China, people have told and listened to stories. I know it was so with the Native Americans as well. In fact, I can remember sitting with my grandfather Rusack and his good friend, last of the Nipmuck Indians, on the shore of Lake Chargoggagoggmanchauggagogggchaubunagungamaugg in Massachusetts and listening to the ancient brave's stories. Sometimes storytelling is for fun and entertainment in the Asian culture, but also it has been found to be one of the best ways to communicate truth and the meaning of life. Stories have a way of getting down into our hearts; they haunt us and keep us steadily living with the truth they bring. The stories of our Lord, repeated year in and year out with the reading of the Gospel in the Liturgy, bring the power of His life bursting in upon us in new and daring ways.

Hear this story from China. Chuang Tzu, one of the wisest old men of the Taoist tradition once told of the River God. The autumn floods came and poured a thousand wild torrents into the Yellow River. The river flooded its banks in a mighty tide, sweeping all before it. The River God laughed in satisfaction thinking of its mighty power, as it swung downstream to the ocean. Then, when it reached the sea, and saw the vast expanse and the far horizon, the endless waters -- it realized how very, very small it was. He said: "He or she who has a few ideas thinks he or she knows more than anyone else. Such a one am I. Only now do I know what is meant by EXPANSE." The Ocean God replied, "Can you talk about the sea to a frog in a well? Can you talk about ice to dragonflies? Can you talk about the way of Life to a doctor of philosophy?"

Today, at the start of our 10th decade of life as a diocesan family, we all stand as frogs in the wells. We are but beginners in the Christian life. We stand with our little cups before a Niagara Falls -- pouring forth the vast biblical, historical, spiritual treasures and traditions of all these Advents of the Christian Era. Chuang Tzu said: "Compared with the sky I am a little rock, a scrub oak on the mountain-side: Shall I act as if I were something big?"

At the recent General Convention Eucharist, in the great arena across the street, people had various reactions to the grand liturgy so nobly orchestrated by clergy and laity of our diocese. One laywoman told me: "I used to think we were a mighty Diocese in Los Angeles, but I realized all of a sudden that we were pretty small as over one hundred women from the United States, Latin America and Asia came forward for the United Thank Offering presentation."

But if we each bring our little cups, our little lives, our small diocesan life, to the vast resources of Christian understanding our cups may become full. As we face a further decade of service, the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews has given us a good word: "Seeing that we are surrounded by such a vast host of witnesses, let us cast off every weight, and the sins that beset us, and let us run with strength the race that is set before us." (Hebrews 12:1)

We have done well in developing Asian ministries, but in the coming years we must determine even more carefully the needs of minority groups -- blacks, Hispanics and others -- within the church. We must listen to their stories and learn from them. We must find new ways of reaching Anglicans, Christians and non-Christians, who do not seek us out when they move into our communities. We know there must be many Anglican Chinese in San Marino, Arcadia, Pacific Palisades, Palos Verdes, Santa Monica; Anglican blacks, Hispanics -- or potential ones in almost every community of the diocese -- but they are not beating down our doors attempting to become part of our family. We must do the same with people of every clime who are living in great numbers around us.

These past two years in my peregrinations around the diocese I have been heartened to see the numbers of young adults under thirty who are worshipping with us. We must more clearly understand their attitudes within the church and share the leadership of the church with them. We must do the same with the elderly.

Adult converts continue to come to us from other Christian bodies. They enrich our common life. But, I implore the clergy and lay teachers in our congregations to require of these persons sound courses in the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Anglican tradition. Adult converts, all converts, are required to be confirmed by a bishop, if they have not had the apostolic laying on of hands in some other Communion. Roman Catholic and Orthodox persons should be officially received by the bishop, after intensive courses in what it means to be a Christian, and yes, what it means to be an Episcopalian. If the laity are given solid instruction in the things of our holy religion, they will be better prepared to execute the offices of wardens, vestry members, lay readers, catechists, convention delegates, diocesan volunteers. I raise all of this for it saddens your bishop when he has to enter a vestry/rector conflict to find that vestry persons are completely ignorant of what it means to live a disciplined life as an Episcopalian. Very often the impasses in parishes have developed because some laity are not committed Anglicans. I do not denigrate for one moment the marvellous lay ministry that has emerged and is emerging in our church, but I am saddened when I see converts to the church assume positions of leadership in the churches of the diocese and then are threatened when the rector or vicar tries to get them to share that ministry with others. Persons uneducated in the faith in responsible positions create havoc, divide congregations, mistreat the clergy -- sometimes almost to the ruination of his or her career, then blithely feel that they can go immediately onwards by securing some other rector that they can put in their pockets. Again I say it, we cannot prevent some of the sad divisions that come into our midst, but our consciences can be clear if we know we have properly trained newcomers for our Episcopal household.

A source of embarrassment to us all is the fact that the Diocese of Los Angeles, even though one of the largest givers to the National Program and Budget of the Church, is one of the five dioceses that does not meet its asking, its quota if you will, for the missionary work of the Church at home and overseas. Granted, we have exciting programs in our diocese, and we are one of the most alive jurisdictions in the world-wide Anglican Church. Much has been given to us, and thus much is demanded of us. But the plain fact is, the diocese does not receive from parishes and missions a due proportion of what they spend on themselves to allow us to meet the demand of the National Church. Before we went on the voluntary pledge system during Bishop Bloy's day our receipts allowed us as a diocese to have a much larger program at home and we met a very large asking of the General Convention Program and Budget. As Suffragan and Diocesan Bishop I have sat on the Program and Budget Committee of our national church and many have been understanding of our position. But, it is scandalous when some parishes in some of the wealthiest communities of the diocese give way below what mission congregations do to the Mission Share Fund of the Diocese. There are grievous inequities in our giving for mission.

I pray that we can address these inequities and that we are willing to sacrifice and tithe that the mission of the Church may surge further ahead in the diocese. However, we cannot cripple what we are doing in southern California to meet the asking of the National Church.

* * * * *

It is time for a second story. This story comes from France in the Middle Ages. Barnaby was a very poor man, but a very happy man. He had great skill as a juggler. However, people were poor and very little money flowed his way from those who enjoyed his tricks.

One day Barnaby met a monk returning to his nearby monastery. The monk told him of the good life, the fellowship of this house of prayer. He urged Barnaby to come and join the monks in their work for God. Barnaby decided he would try it. Once in the monastery he had very mixed feelings. He admired the monks: some could sing; some wrote music; some were wood carvers; some were cooks; some were preachers and priests. All gave of their gifts to the service of God and to each other. Barnaby felt he was useless and had nothing to give or share. He grew pale and discouraged. But one night it came to him that he too had a gift. So, the next day, when the Chapel was empty, Barnaby went in before the altar and as an act of worship and gratitude began to juggle. He came out of the Chapel beaming and lighthearted. Some of the monks decided to find out what had transformed him. The Abbott and one of the monks followed him and discovered him before the altar juggling away with zest. The monk started to cry out that this was a Chapel and no place for doing tricks. But the wise old Abbott said: "Let him be; he is exercising his God-given gift. He is giving to God the best he has. How can any of us do more than that!"

We all come to life in this diocesan family with our varied gifts. We may all be different, but our gifts can make a difference. Not one of us is without God's Spirit and the gifts of the Spirit. As the Ephesian letter puts it: "Each of us has been given a gift, a due portion of Christ's bounty. . .and these were God's gifts: some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip God's people for work in His service, to the building up of the Body of Christ" (Ephesians 4:7, 11-12). Indeed, our calling is to exercise the gifts God has given us with a total and joyous abandon. This will turn us from feelings of inferiority and uselessness to being people filled with joy and thanksgiving.

There are so many areas where work needs to be done -- strengthening inner city congregations and small parishes already or threatened of being priced out of full-time priests. In our communities there are desperate needs for volunteers to fight neighborhood crime, to combat drug use and abuse, to visit in hospitals and homes for the aged, to aid programs for feeding the hungry and housing the homeless. I cannot tell you how proud I am of the congregations who have put their hearts and souls and bodies into providing food and shelter for the hurt and wounded in our society.

Another area of pride. Our diocese has given more to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief than any other jurisdiction. Through it, we are touching our brothers and sisters in Africa, Latin America, the islands of the Pacific, in Asia, and in our own country. The response of many of our people to the plight of our fellow church people who happen to be black or colored in South Africa is rewarding -- and I beg of you to continue to speak out against the evils of apartheid and repressive governments all over the globe.

There are many at this Convention who hope we will vote to divest our church's stock in any companies doing business in South Africa. All of us wish to make a statement that will offer support to our friend, Bishop Tutu, our brothers and sisters in South Africa. Several of us wish that the emotional and symbolic significance of divestiture were other than it is. I personally wish there were something more we could do than merely vote to divest our holdings in businesses that are involved in South Africa. We can vote for it, and go home feeling good about it. But it will not accomplish what we hope for. Others, with a different conscience, will snap up the stock and our voices about injustices in South Africa will no longer be heard by those companies, for we will have lost our right to participate in stockholder meetings or in voting proxies. Our basic values as Christians lead us to work for the dignity of each human being, to have revulsion at repression and violence, to have a commitment to building relationships among people that transcend race. Everyone in this room, I believe, stands with me in condemning apartheid. I cannot convey adequately how strongly I feel about this -- having had some direct experience in South Africa. For me personally, apartheid is a violation of every principle of decency and of right relationships among people. To pile on adjectives is superfluous and even demeaning.

It is not how we feel about apartheid, but what we do as individuals, as a diocesan family, and as congregations.

Many who serve on Diocesan Boards are much more skeptical than proponents of divestiture about the likely effects of such action on the policies of the companies themselves, let alone on apartheid in South Africa. Quite apart from the fact that our holdings are only a very small fraction of the stock of any of the companies in question, it is the experience of many on our boards that companies are much more responsive to reasoned argument than to dramatic actions of a once-and-for-all character that allow for no follow-through.

We live in a world of imperfection -- there are injustices of every description being perpetrated in many nations -- our own, as well. The quest for us to have "clean hands" as regards South Africa by a self-congratulatory action that does not address the full range of moral issues, is an impossible situation.

What about gifts we receive from individuals who hold stock in these companies? Can we, in good conscience, use IBM typewriters and computers? Please do not misunderstand me. I have great respect for those who are concerned about the moral issues presented here. Moral issues are fundamental, but they are far from simple. I desperately want us to comprehend the issues, and to find a more far-reaching way to have an affect on apartheid.

Yes, I can go home and you can go home -- feeling good about voting for divestment, but I challenge you to find a more powerful way of helping our brothers and sisters in South Africa.

Canon Hultgren is working on the archives so we can publish our history before our centennial. I urge each congregation to appoint an archivist and historiographer to gather photographs and materials for your own histories, for your story is our diocesan story, also. Interview oldsters of the congregation on tape -- they can give unique information for a very live history. Canon Behm of Sierra Madre can give all of you tips on how to put together a good parish history.

Penetrate the ecumenical realm in your communities. Develop deeper relationships with your Lutheran brothers and sisters, with Roman Catholics and Protestants and those of other faiths. Work with them in addressing the ills of our communities. I pray that the new Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles will be open to further dialogue and work and worship with all of us.

Ask Betty Connelly to tell you of the Nairobi Conference on Women. Work for equality of women in the marketplace, and rejoice in the high quality of women now sharing the priesthood in our diocese.

And now, as your chief pastor and speaking to you as persons who are responsible for the Church's pastoral ministry where you live and work, I must address a subject that we cannot sweep away and where we must minister. I am grateful to several of my brothers in the House of Bishops who have shared with me their thinking about this critical matter. Concerned lay persons come to me and say: "Bishop, you need to know that I am a homosexual person." In recent years more and more gays have told family and friends their sexual orientation. You all know the code phrase, "coming out of the closet." It is certainly better to come out of the closet than to commit suicide -- and I have known of several who have done so because of the abuse they have suffered due to their sexual orientation. How I despise the word faggot -- but it comes down to us because in earlier, unenlightened centuries, gay persons were burned to death with faggots.

Homosexuality is a minority position. About ten percent of the population is gay. Most families have a gay member. Gay people are all around us. One of the doctors who has helped me through the years is gay. Gays may be your business and professional associates, your clergy, perhaps one of your children, your friends. Sometimes even wives or husbands are homosexual, or bisexual. For the most part they have chosen to remain invisible. In silence they hear our slurs, our derogatory jokes, while trying to smile and keep their emotional equilibrium. I know that it has not been easy for any of them. Every one of you knows it is never easy to be different, to be misunderstood, to be feared. How my heart aches when a parish family rejects a man or woman because of his or her sexual orientation, something that they have no more control over than left-handedness, and tell me about it -- redheadedness.

Homosexuality is certainly not a new or modern phenomenon, but it continues to be a source of almost incalculable human suffering. The Church has always ministered to deep human pain, to people whose condition keeps them from participating in genuine community. Into this picture has now come AIDS, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome. This disease, which breaks down the body's immune system, is afflicting the gay population and the heterosexual community as well. The final result, so plain for us all to see with Rock Hudson, is a painful and inevitable death.

A growing hysteria about AIDS has caused a corresponding rise in people's concern about communicable diseases. Church people wonder whether the use of the common chalice at the Eucharist places them at risk. The fears are real and because they are real, they must be taken seriously.

Current studies, reinforced by a Los Angeles TIMES Editorial on November 19th, indicate that the AIDS virus is only transmitted through intimate contact that permits infection through the blood stream or the mucous membranes. Short of that intimate contact, the AIDS virus is known to be quite fragile and not communicable by casual human encounter in the manner that colds or influenza are transmitted. There is apparently no risk of infection in normal human activity for those who do not have AIDS. The common chalice appears to be a risk, therefore, primarily for the AIDS victim, for he or she has no protection against common bacteria.

There are, however, other members of our churches who perceive a risk in receiving communion from the common chalice. For these people I think the church must offer liturgical alternatives. Two such alternatives have been part of church life through the centuries. One is to receive communion in one kind only (the bread). Certain alcoholics have done that at our altars for years. The other is to receive the wine by intinction. That should be no problem. Leave the host in your hand, the chalice bearer will dip it in the wine and place it on your tongue. Communicants should not dip their own wafer in the wine. I greatly prefer intinction, over receiving only the bread, for it keeps the Eucharistic symbols intact. But, I urge churches neither to overreact to the inappropriate levels of fear present in our society today, nor to refrain from taking that fear seriously. In a loving manner, we need to offer immediately sensitive alternatives for those who need them or require them. Again, I say it, I shall continue to receive from the common chalice and I shall continue to consume the unused wine at the end of the service after all others have received. I do not believe there is any danger from the common chalice. This church of ours must be open to the whole human family. Gay people must hear through the words and deeds of the church that they, too, are children of God. The words of Jesus: "Love one another. . .", "You shall love your neighbor as yourself", are all encompassing. His words transcend those of St. Paul or the Old Testament. Paul condemned women as well as homosexuality; seemingly favored slavery, was ignorant regarding alcohol. Paul was wrong about many things. This is no time to argue all of this. Our Lord dealt with people with compassion and care. In the spirit of our Lord Christ, all of us together must work to develop a means within our society to enable all people to live normal loving lives within the boundaries of their sexual orientations, and to place the fears and hysteria that surround AIDS into a context of fact and reality. The AIDS crisis confronts us in every area of sexual promiscuity, with our demeaning of love and our lack of discipline. It calls us to commitment as signs of Christ in His world. AIDS may turn out to be a momentary passing epidemic, or it may be a plague. At this moment, no one knows the final outcome. It must not, however, become an excuse to unleash another wave of irrational hostility on the gay population of our world.

By the action of the recent General Convention, there is now a liturgical ministry never before possible for our laity. As I stated to the priests and deacons at Clergy Conference earlier this fall, I am pleased that General Convention passed canonical changes necessary to allow extraordinary and well-trained Lay Eucharistic Ministers to take the Blessed Sacrament to those who are confined to homes and hospitals directly at the end of the Eucharistic liturgy in the church. Our Liturgy Commission and the Bishop will issue guidelines for this ministry. Only sufficient portions of the Sacrament are to be taken from the altar for the ministry to the sick and shut-ins on that Sunday. There is to be no Reservation of the Blessed Sacrament on the dining table or mantelpiece of the "minister" so licensed. There is one Aumbry or Tabernacle in the parish, that on or near the Altar in the church.

There is a marvellous ministry in music, evidenced by the glorious outpouring of our choirs at the great Liturgy in the Anaheim Arena in early September. Tom and Carol Foster are a great gift to us all. We are blessed in our diocese with some of the most competent organists and choirmasters in the Anglican Communion. I know that they will be opening you up to the treasures of the new hymnal in the coming months. Language has been updated; militarism and sexism are downgraded; powerful 20th century texts will enlighten our worship from the hymnal that is soon to be ours to have and to hold. Like the juggler, if your gift is music, offer it to the glory of God. If your gift is needlework or flower arranging, offer that, as did so many women of the diocesan family to enhance the Anaheim Arena and the Daily Chapel during General Convention. Offer your gifts for a Program Group, Commission or Committee or Board of the Diocese. Do give your gifts to your congregation and in your communities. Regions are catching on. I would pray for the development of new institutions of caring, not just Episcopal, but preferably ecumenical, to assist the hurt in our society in every Region of the Diocese. So do be about it and with it and build new institutions of care and concern.

The third story of this Convention address comes from India. The disciples of a spiritual leader were full of questions about God, so they came to their Master to get the answers. The wise old Master listened quietly, smiled and said: "God is too great for our little words, our little minds. Every statement about God is only a half-truth. Each statement calls for more statements. All answers are distortions of the truth. God is far beyond words and ideas."

The disciples were bewildered and asked: "Then why do you speak of God at all?" The Master said with an understanding smile, "Why does the bird sing?"

Ponder that for awhile. Let it sink in. The bird does not sing because it has all the answers. The bird sings because it has a SONG.

To contemplate our mission and ministry in the tenth decade of our life is not just to manufacture words, be they for sermons or classes by clergy and laity, or talks for community service. This is a horrible distortion of the Christian task. To do theology, to be on Ministry, is to learn to SING and PRAY and WORK. Our pursuit of Theology as the people of God in the Diocese of Los Angeles is all about the great GOOD NEWS, the Greatest Story the world will ever hear. It is the GOOD NEWS of God's caring and God's power to transform life. The theology of Ministry calls forth Eucharist -- which means Thanksgiving. Our worship and our joy is best expressed in music, not dull prose. We are called to be a singing people. Karl Barth's great words leap into my mind: "We are to be Gospel people; the worst heresy is to go about like gloomy owls!"

Well, here we are at the beginning of the last ten years of our first hundred years of life as a Diocese. I call on all of you to grow in our corporate capacity to SING. Like the birds, we do not sing because we have all the answers; we sing because we have a SONG.

THE ADDRESS OF THE SUFFRAGAN BISHOP OF LOS ANGELES,
THE RIGHT REVEREND OLIVER B. GARVER, JR., TO
THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE
NINETIETH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES
DECEMBER 7, 1985

EGGS

I was told on the day of my Consecration that Suffragan Bishops -- like children -- are to be seen and not heard. However, my lot, it seems, is to be seen AND heard, and so it is that I stand before this distinguished assembly to deliver my first Suffragan Bishop's Convention Address.

Whenever I reflect on the areas of ministry most urgently in need of renewed attention in the Episcopal Church and in this diocese, I consistently come up with EVANGELISM and STEWARDSHIP. Thus, I have selected these as the two themes of this Address, along with these two texts:

Related to Evangelism, Luke 10:1-2

"After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.'"

Related to Stewardship, Mark 12:41-44

Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny. Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, 'I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty, put in everything -- all she had to live on.'"

I find that it is helpful to have a catchy acronym if an Address is to be remembered. So, my acronym for this address is EGGS: EG for Evangelism and Growth; GS for Generosity in Stewardship. Unless we return to an era of Suffragans being mainly seen and rarely heard, I plan to speak much and often about EGGS during 1986 -- ministries which I feel must be energetically and enthusiastically empowered and renewed in this diocese.

First point, Evangelism and Growth.

And, I must say and stress and underline: I am not speaking of mere numbers, but of truly committed converts. The United Methodist Reporter - Circuit West (8/30/85) recently published a special report on the so-called "golden years" -- the 1950's and early '60's -- of membership growth, noting that, unfortunately, these were times of significant numerical growth without corresponding spiritual revival -- too many new members properly termed "fragile Christians." The point of the article: do not struggle to measure growth success against 1950's benchmarks; rather, settle only for true conversions and genuine spiritual renewal as real success.

I have organized my remarks about Evangelism and Church Growth under three headings: (1) Preparation; (2) Urgency; and, (3) Teamwork. Some of you have heard me on this before, which is OK: what I have to say is bedrock fundamental -- material so basic as to justify frequent repetition.

First point: preparation. We Episcopalians are typically C-minus evangelists. We were spoiled in prior decades when persons moving up the socio-economic ladder sought us out when they achieved the appropriate rung. Today, not very many are seeking us out. We have a challenge quite new to us and for which we are quite unprepared: we must go out and seek persons to bring to Jesus Christ within the Faith community of the Episcopal Church.

To be evangelists equal to this new challenge, we, first, must be well prepared. We must fully know and utterly believe the message we are to proclaim. Too many of us are not well prepared. So, what do we do? We talk about those things we do know about and understand: the nice Rector, a scratch golfer and a charming spouse; the great curate -- wonderful with young people; a magnificent choir; a beautiful, warm sanctuary; Then, people come to church to enjoy the Rector the Curate, the music, the church building; and, BINGO: the sermon is about sacrificial giving and Christ dying for our sins and racism and regular attendance at worship, ...: no one told the new member that all of this was part of the deal: and, they fall away.

We need to be well prepared, so that we can be honest in our Evangelism: unashamedly announcing Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

I recently heard a paper presented by Canon Kouletsis on St. Francis of Assisi. We think of Francis as the gentle monk who embraced poverty, loved animals, and cared for the poor. What we do not often remember is the rigorousness of the simple, undiluted faith Francis preached -- a sort of Biblical fundamentalism which avoided none of the hard teachings -- which told it plainly, as it was! Honesty in evangelism -- a model we would do well to emulate today: Francis, not only adorning the bird baths in our gardens, but our inspiration for boldness in evangelism.

Second point, Urgency. Our text from Luke strikes a note of great urgency: the laborers are few; so, we are told to pray to God to send forth laborers -- to send out evangelists -- so that a plentiful harvest of conversions might be reaped. Recall the recent Epistle Reading which stressed urgency as the "time is near" -- the last days are fast approaching. Remember Paul's teaching in Romans from the Epistle appointed for St. Andrew's Day:

"How ... can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news.'" (Romans 10:14-15)

In short, evangelism is not a take-it-or-leave-it option for the Christian: we are sent to preach! We were, each and everyone of us, called and commissioned at our Baptisms to be evangelists of the Good News to all people, at all times, that those who do not yet know and accept Jesus as Lord and Saviour might have the opportunity to hear and to respond -- before it is too late.

In the Apostolic Age, it was believed that Jesus was going to return very soon. In these modern days, the Church continues to teach that Jesus might well return this afternoon or tomorrow morning. "Christ has died. Christ is Risen. Christ will come again." Hence, the sense of extreme urgency that people have the chance to say "Yes" to Jesus before He returns and the Last Days dawn.

Preparation. Urgency. And, third point, Teamwork.

So often when we are asked to undertake a task, we say "No" as we feel ourselves inadequate -- not equal to the challenge. And, in most cases, this is probably true. Any one of us - alone - is able to achieve only relatively small, well defined goals. It is cruel to lay the trip on us that, with God's help, we can do anything. What does enable us to accomplish great and wonderful and exciting "good works" is teamwork PLUS God's help.

What I believe is that God does not expect us to do His calling alone. His model is "two by two," beginning with Creation, if I may be excused for citing sexist language: "Then the Lord God said, 'It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.'" (Genesis 2:18) Without woman, man was totally inadequate to the task God had set for those to whom He gave the responsibility of "dominion" it is a task for "two by two," different persons complementing each other -- joining their talents -- so that God's work -- His ministry -- is accomplished -- His Will be done!

In our text for this section on Evangelism and Growth, Jesus sent disciples out "two by two." Here, again, is the model of teamwork, now related to evangelism. Don't be ashamed to feel inadequate to the ministry of evangelism when you are asked to go out alone. I often see Jehovah's Witness people, standing at the doors of supermarkets, holding up their magazines for passers-by to see: did you ever see one standing alone? Or, door-to-door Mormon missionaries? Never alone; always "two by two."

Let us, then, form teams in our congregations and in our regions, and let us send them out "two by two" to preach the Good News, rejoicing to know that, in the sight of God, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news." Surely, God goes with you on this ministry.

Evangelism and Growth: not only numbers, but converts who truly accept Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour; a willingness on our parts to spend the time to become well prepared and of a mature faith so that, with St. Francis, we might boldly teach the fullness of the Good News message; afire with a sense of urgency; and, the good common sense to be evangelists in teams, supporting each other in this urgent work of bringing more and more people to Jesus -- and, eventually, the whole world.

Evangelism and Growth. Now, Generosity in Stewardship - our text taken from the Marcan story of the large offerings of the rich people and of the offering of a few coins by the poor widow which I earlier read. This Gospel story is paralleled by a Reading from First Kings 17:8-16.

It is a time of famine in the land of Judah. The prophet Elijah is sent by God to the city of Zarephath, where, God assures him, a widow will feed him. Elijah meets a widow at the gate to the city who tells him that she is about to prepare her last meal -- for herself and her son, and then they will die -- no meal and no oil left to prepare another meal. Elijah tells her not to fear: the Lord will provide. The poor, starving widow does as Elijah said: and, she and her son and her whole household and Elijah ate for many days, and the meal and the oil were not spent.

Drawing from these two Readings, I have organized my remarks about generosity in stewardship around these three points: (1) Sacrifice; (2) Sharing; and, (3) Saviour Jesus. Three "S's."

First point, Sacrifice. It is abundantly clear that the Biblical standard of giving is sacrificial. The poor widow in First Kings gave her absolutely last morsel of food to feed Elijah. She sacrificed much in response to God's call to her to feed His prophet. The poor widow observed by Jesus in the temple gave only "two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny": but, this was everything she had -- "all she had to live on." If one doubts the depth of meaning intended by Jesus in praising her sacrifice, recall that this incident is prelude to the days in which Jesus Himself gave all that He had -- His very life, for you and for me. The Biblical norm for stewardship is clearly radically sacrificial.

This is clearly seen in the contrast noted by Jesus as the rich people made an ostentatious show of their "large gifts": "they gave out of their wealth." What Jesus perceived is that the wealthy had already provided for their every need and desire -- fancy home, deluxe car, fur coat, vacation resort home, country club membership, yacht, children's college fees, ... AND, behold, much money was left over: so, why not a big gift to the church? It might even be "good insurance" against judgement day.

Jesus praised the gift of the poor widow, calling it much greater than the RELATIVELY larger gifts of the rich. It is clear that the gifts of the wealthy, against a standard of sacrifice, ought to have been significantly larger than they were.

We saw a contemporary example of this in our diocesan VIM campaign. The outside expert consultants told us to expect so much from large gifts from rich people, and a lesser total sum from the individual gifts of people of fewer resources. In fact, though some extremely generous major gifts were received from a relatively few more affluent Episcopalians, the success of VIM was due primarily to hundreds upon hundreds of individual gifts made by those of modest means who accepted the challenge to sacrifice.

The Christian norm for generosity in stewardship is a sacrificial gift measured not by the size of the gift but by the portion of one's total resources it represents. Sacrifice.

Second point, Sharing. The Christian acknowledges that all things come from God. We speak of His innumerable benefits lavished upon us. We give thanks to God for His great goodness. This we do in church.

Outside the church, our vocabulary changes: "I earned it and it is mine!" "You tell me of someone with a need. Let him work for the money to satisfy that need, just like I did." Giving away - sharing with others less fortunate: this is not typically one's first instinct. "All things come of Thee, O Lord" -- OK, but a bit of caution respecting "and of Thine own have we given Thee." If we give, it is out of our hard earned dollars -- out of OUR money, and not a sharing of God's gift to us.

This said, however, I must make note of the great generosity -- the sacrificial sharing -- of many Episcopalians: in support of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief (I am told that we are currently the number one diocese in the Church in our 1985 giving to this Fund -- with a special salute to Canon Parker) and the United Thank Offering; in support of the Institutions and human serving agencies of this diocese, e.g., the Capital Funds Campaign for the new Hospital of the Good Samaritan, our Birthday Thank Offerings for the Neighborhood Youth Association, our Thanksgiving In-Gatherings for Hillside, our gifts to the St. Barnabas' Senior Center, the Seamen's Church Institute, the ecumenical, inter-church Episcopal Service Alliance in Orange County; and, in support of such congregation-based programs as the Well Baby Clinic in St. John's, Los Angeles, the 1736 House in St. Cross, Hermosa Beach, the Union Station in All Saints, Pasadena, the Center for Independent Living of Christ the Good Shepherd, Los Angeles, the Casa de los Amigos senior citizen housing of Christ Church, Redondo Beach, etc., etc. Episcopalians do have an AMAZING track record of generosity in sharing on behalf of the outreach ministries of the Church.

Where we seem to be less than generous in our sharing is in our giving to our local church. For some reason, we have not caught the vision and been gripped by the challenge to support the personnel and programs of our home households of faith -- and, in providing resources for our home congregations to send on in support of regional, diocesan, provincial, national and international ministries -- the church at work beyond our local parochial boundaries.

We are going to examine the reasons for this during 1986, and we are going to respond to what we find in ways which will truly inspire us all to willing and generous sharing in our gifts and pledges to the congregations which are our Christian homes of worship.

Third point, Saviour Jesus. In everything that we do as Christians -- in Evangelism and in Stewardship -- it must be done as a form of saying "Thank You" to God for all that He has done for us and continues to do for us: and, supremely, in the gift of His Son, for us and for our salvation. The Christian does not accept the discipline of faithful discipleship in order to earn celestial blue chip stamps against an eventual Judgement Day. Rather, the Christian freely accepts his or her bounden duty and service as ways to express Thanks to God for all His blessings, including our salvation already won for us: no blue chip stamps needed!

As Christians, we are to live lives which, in every thought, word and deed, say "Thank You, Jesus." "Thank You, Jesus." Rejoice mightily, and do give abundant thanks, that Jesus is your Lord and Saviour.

Generosity in Stewardship: Sacrifice, Sharing, and to say "Thank You, Jesus," Lord and Saviour.

EGGS: Evangelish and Growh; Generosity in Stewardship: to be two of my major themes for preaching and teaching and speaking, and testing and evaluating, during 1986.

As I go about: I will look for growth and deepening of commitment; I will examine how well the people seem to be prepared for the ministry of evangelism; I will seek to perceive if there is a sense of urgency for evangelism; and, I will ask if teams have been organized and sent out to do the work of evangelism? Do you preach the hard Gospel, and do you require commitment? Are you ready? Are you eager? Are you sent, "two by two"?

Further, as I go about: I will inquire about local stewardship: how are we doing in generosity of sharing in support of the total ministry of the Church?

And, ever and always, I will ask if you truly accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, offering Thanks to Him always and in all ways for His great goodness to us. "Thank You, Jesus!" "Jesus is Lord!" Amen. Alleluia.

REPORTS OF WORK
(Received at Convention)

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

THE PERPETUAL DIACONATE

The Commission on the Ministry thanks Annual Meeting for its mandate, in 1984, to present a report on the diaconate at this time. Our sub-committee which studied the matter and the entire Commission which submits this report found there was a lot to learn. We wish we could fully convey the wealth of experience the Episcopal Church is gaining. In this brief report, we can share only our policy recommendations for a diaconate which, we believe, would enhance the life of this Diocese.

(1) We recommend developing a distinctive diaconate. While diaconate is currently affirmed, for every priest is also a deacon, by the same token, diaconate is somewhat hidden within the priesthood. Diaconate needs to be understood more clearly and accomplished more fully on its own terms. Its distinctive purposes can be realized through specific vocations. This will take time and careful planning.

(2) All persons are called to serve the world in Christ's name. Diaconate is servanthood set apart: life-long, theologically trained, authorized and directed by the Bishop, revealing new areas of service, and most especially linking society with sacraments. Our ordinal calls this interpreting the world to the Church. (B.C.P., p. 543) To connect sacramental life with social life officially, by recognized charism, is the special service of the deacon. In this work, the deacon is not alone. On the one hand, lay ministries by their wonderful variety and caring realize the unbounded richness of God's love which is always more than the institutional Church can "program." On the other hand, priesthood in its building and gathering shows the specific promises of God's love: forgiveness and resurrection. But the deacon's spiritual gift lies in bringing the over-abundance of God's love to its specific historical realization through the Church. Love unbounded becomes articulate as Good News, a service we symbolize by the deacon's reading the Gospel at eucharist. (Here we also see the deacon's direct relation to the bishop; the bishop has responsibility for our holding fast the tradition and so must always ascertain that its articulation is authentic.) Thus the lay person, deacon and priest have distinct, complementary callings. Lay ministry gives practical expression to God's love, revealing it through the marvelous variety of experience. Diaconal service reveals God's love by explicitly linking practical love with sacraments through proclamation of Good News. Priests convene the faithful for revelatory events of God's self-giving at the table and in reconciliation. No one calling stands alone; none is higher than another; each calling is needed. In particular, deacons ground practical works of love on an authoritative proclamation of the Gospel and thereby build sacramental community.

(3) In developing a distinctive diaconate, there are certain dangers to be avoided:

(a) "clericalizing" the Church - Concerns for the institutional Church can take energy away from real service; creative lay vocations can unhappily be lost in a sincere if misguided desire for spiritual satisfaction through clerical stature. The diaconate must not be a diversion from lay ministry. Indeed, if clergy enable laity where the two interact, and if lay persons who live in society meet deacons there where deacons serve, then the deacon becomes the primary clerical enabler of lay ministry.

(b) creating "second class" clergy - It is all too easy to think of deacons as "half-priests." So long as we focus on the altar, the priest remains the primary ordained figure; but as soon as we think of our table-fellowship extended in society, the deacon is the primary figure, for it is the deacon who is the Church's official envoy there. Evangelically speaking, the deacon is more important than the priest. Therefore the Commission notes with pleasure recent canonical changes which include deacons equally in the councils of the Church.

(c) unprepared clergy - The deacon's responsibility for proclamation in society requires theological sophistication. If the diaconate were practical service alone, it might require training in that service with an overlay of theology. But the diaconate is service which interprets the world to the Church. The Commission strongly recommends that selection and examination of all Candidates for Holy Orders and their theological and practical training be equally rigorous regardless of the Order to which each Candidate is called. In short, the diaconate should not be an "easy way" to be ordained.

(4) The diaconate presents certain special, positive opportunities.

(a) varieties of service - While there is variety of priestly service (chaplaincy, teaching, etc.), priesthood is most often realized in a local congregation. However, diaconal service would, naturally, find itself in a variety of social settings -- wherever there were need for Good News connecting practical works of love with sacramental events of reconciliation and new life. A deacon's career, therefore, could be realized in any of a number of places: service agencies, factories, offices, hospitals, academies, etc., but always from and for the Church.

(b) close relationship with the bishop - As noted above, there is a special episcopal concern for those who are continuing the witness of the Gospel, for our witnessing tradition is the bishop's special responsibility. Deacons would be led by and accountable to the bishop or his or her designated officer. Deacons are servants in the world, not of the parish. There is no such thing as a parochial deacon but only deacons of a diocese, though all deacons would have a sacramental fellowship to which their service in society would point.

(5) Planning for training, examination, placement, compensation and career will take time and effort. The Commission is willing, with our diocesan Bishop's leadership, to move from basic policy recommendations to practical plans. It is already the canonical responsibility of the Commission to work with Bishop and Standing Committee on such matters, so here we reaffirm our commitment to this effort. We hope to report again to Annual Meeting on our progress, and we ask interested members of the Diocese to let us know of their views.

Chairman

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

At our 1984 Convention I had the great pleasure of announcing that the Diocese of Los Angeles had given $198,386 which was the largest amount of any diocese of the Episcopal Church. This was due in part to the deep concern of our clergy and people for the human suffering that was taking place in Ethiopia and other parts of Africa resulting from seven years of drought.

As we began 1985 I seriously wondered if we could maintain this outstanding record of giving, but I was happily surprised that the people of our diocese continued giving generously to the Fund. I came to believe that 1984 was a significant turning point in the concern not only of Episcopalians but people everywhere for human suffering in the world. Millions of dollars were raised in England and America for African relief by a group of entertainers. The song they sang was, "We are the World," emphasizing the unity of the human family, that suffering of some must be the concern of us all.

On September 19th a devastating earthquake struck Mexico City in which seven thousand persons lost their lives and thousands were made homeless. The response of our diocese was immediate and generous. One church raised over $35,000. All funds were sent to the Bishop of Mexico City to be used where the need was most critical.

Again, on November 13th a volcano erupted in Colombia where twenty-five thousand persons lost their lives and thousands were made homeless. Again our diocese responded with generous gifts to the Fund and they were sent to the Bishop of Colombia to be used at his discretion.

I am overjoyed to report that the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1985 maintained the highest level of giving to the Fund of all the dioceses of the Episcopal Church: Los Angeles $276,399; Virginia $253,159; New York $237,858.

According to Dr. David Crean, the new National Network Officer, this is the largest amount ever given by a diocese in a single year. In addition, our diocese gave $68,015, the final payment on the pledge of the Venture in Mission program, for a grand total in 1985 of $355,414.

An all-time record of $7,225,979 was received by the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief in 1985.

Both of our Bishops in their convention addresses mentioned the record level of giving to the Fund and thanked the clergy and their congregations for their generous support. Bishop Rusack again designated the offering at the Eucharist be given to the Fund.

The Reverend Canon Samir J. Habiby, D.D., the National Director of the Fund, addressed the convention, giving a first-hand review of conditions in Ethiopia and how the Fund is giving help and hope to people not only in Africa but also in Lebanon, Central America and other parts of the world.

In my report to the Convention I expressed my appreciation to the clergy and their congregations for their support during the past year.

I also mentioned the outstanding leadership given by the Reverend Samuel R. D'Amico, Ph.D., who has served for the past three years as the National Network Officer. We are delighted that he and his wife, Virginia, will be returning to our diocese where he served for many years.

A resolution was passed and prayers were offered for the Reverend Raymond K. Riebs who at the time was ill in the hospital. Bishop Rusack spoke of his years of service as Diocesan Representative of the Fund.

In the Fund's 1985 Annual Report, "Where Your Money Goes," three special aid projects in the Diocese of Los Angeles received $37,732 and a grant of $98,900 for Refugee Impact Aid was shared with the Diocese of Olympia. While many of the grants were for critical needs throughout the world, it is important to point out that a number of them were awarded in this country.

For the first time the Diocesan Commission on Schools endorsed the Fund and suggested that the students be given an opportunity to help those in need by giving to the Fund.

We are most grateful to All Saints' Parish, Beverly Hills, for providing the part-time assistance of Mrs. Ludmilla Gibbons in sending personal letters of appreciation to all who make gifts to the Fund.

There are many ways to reach out to help those in need here and throughout the world, but certainly the best way for Episcopalians is to give through the Presiding Bishop's Fund. You can be sure your gift will reach the areas of critical need with minimum administrative expense. And whatever is given to the Fund will not decrease giving for local church needs; it can only increase it.

We can indeed rejoice over the outstanding achievement of our diocese during these past two years, but we must continue our level of giving in 1986. The needs of our brothers and sisters are great, but our need to share the good things with which God has blessed us is far greater, remembering always the words of our Lord, "forasmuch as you have done it to the least of these my brothers (and sisters), you have done it unto me."

The Reverend Canon Richard I.S. Parker
Diocesan Network Representative

THE VENTURE IN MISSION CABINET

Venture in Mission began three years ago as a dream -- a dream of what Episcopalians in the Diocese of Los Angeles could do. The dream has become a reality as the gifts of thousands of individuals combined to produce creative new ministries at home and abroad. It was a "gigantic leap of faith." Venture in Mission has become, as Bishop Rusack announced at its inception, "the largest program of outreach and evangelism ever undertaken in this diocese...an opportunity to learn and to work and to give as one family" to extend the mission of the Gospel.

137 parish and mission congregations energetically supported VIM. Almost 5,500 individuals made pledges. Thirty parishes submitted a single corporate commitment. In all over $5 million was pledged to subscribe the zealous new missionary endeavor.

The commitments made three years ago have been sustained in large part. Some early pledge commitments had to reconsider later because of health or a financial setback. That shortfall was replaced by almost 400 contributors whose giving continued long after their original commitment was met. While the early sketches of casebook projects were refined the income has been invested so that interest earned could extend the programs. As a result, when all the funds are received from extended pledge periods and parishes which entered the campaign late due to local commitments, over $5 million will underwrite the Venture in Mission of the Diocese of Los Angeles.

The VIM story was recounted to the Diocese in some detail in the three year report published in the Episcopal News of May 1985. Since then the Cabinet has authorized funding for projects now under way.

PROJECTS BEYOND THE DIOCESE

The Diocese of Western Mexico received $105,000 in 1983 for the first phase of its development plans, the building of two new churches and the enlargement of a third in areas of considerable population growth. The second phase, the five year development plan for St. Andrew's Seminary in Guadalajara is now being underwritten with a $212,000 grant. $43,500 will be disbursed in 1986, the balance in succeeding years to fund this vital institution for clergy and lay training. A sound local educational institution will strengthen the Church in Mexico as it progresses toward autonomy.

UGANDA AND EAST AFRICA

The plight of the peoples of the Horn of Africa is of tragic proportions. Some development projects adopted by the Diocese of Los Angeles have already been completed, i.e., construction of a water filtration and pumping station and a livestock breeding project at Bishop Tucker Theological College. Both train local leaders in methods that will reverse a dependence on relief programs. Funds for programs to assist in the reconciliation and evangelization of Uganda have already been sent. All VIM work is administered by the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief through local dioceses. The remaining funds for this area are awaiting word from the PBF that the necessary planning has taken place to insure successful results.

The Diocese of Los Angeles has in hand a large sum of money for the Diocese of the Northern Philippines. The political climate in that country has been so unstable that Bishop Abellon has suggested the delay. The original plans have been revised to encourage the success of more localized effort in this mountainous diocese. It is expected that the final plan will be ready for funding beginning in 1986.

WITHIN THE DIOCESE - THE OPPORTUNITY FUND

Since May 1985 the VIM Cabinet has approved funding for two projects. Episcopal Service Alliance, an ecumenical ministry to the poor, homeless, abused, and unemployed inaugurated by the Episcopal parishes of Orange County, received a second year grant of $43,600 toward further development and self-support. The mission congregation of St. Francis and St. Mary's, Los Angeles received approval for a $69,000 renovation and new construction of its parish hall building to provide the necessary space required for its extensive outreach ministries.

The Opportunity Fund Grant Committee has committed $445,000 to new work to date. $600,000 remains available for the exciting ministries that challenge us. Already the committee is reviewing 20 applications submitted since June which include a choir school, a farmers market, a parish evangelism effort to Hispanic speaking Christians, camping, a thrift shop, a feeding program, a video tape series on the Sacrament of Initiation. The ideas are exciting proof that the Holy Spirit stirs hearts and imaginations to respond to the mission of Christ. The Grant Committee anticipates its evaluation and monitoring work to extend for an additional three years.

TRAINING IN DISCIPLESHIP

The Office for Ministry supervises an extensive program for persons aspiring to, training for, and exercising the first years of the ordained ministry. With forty postulants and candidates currently in the Diocese it is a considerable task.

VIM funds provide an intern program for seminarians to give them on site knowledge of the demands of ministry. Regular visitation, guidance, and colloquies provide a needed support structure.

Continuing education for lay and ordained persons is vital to lively faith and ministry. The visiting scholar program recently has benefited from the fall series by the Reverend Robert Cooper. Many throughout the Diocese have been enriched by his presentations on Power and Authority.

Through the coordinated efforts of many program groups and commissions guidelines have been developed for sabbath leaves for clergy. Several clergy and congregations have discovered the blessing of a mutually planned program for education and spiritual refreshment.

A valuable element in the training of disciples is communications. Through a casebook allocation communications in the diocese has been enhanced with an expanded video program made possible through the purchase of an editing system for videotape and the part time staff assistance to make this valuable technique available to our churches. A catalog of resources is in preparation. In addition the communications office has prepared slide presentations on the work of the diocese and has improved coverage of important events from local to diocesan program to the General Convention in Anaheim.

Youth Summer Services has completed its most successful year. Under the leadership of a full time Youth Ministries Coordinator 141 persons participated in service projects in the diocese and beyond. 87 assisted in parish improvement projects, 40 in a camp for youth at Camp Cachuma, 14 travelled to Guadalajara to refurbish the chapel at St. Andrew's Seminary. The overall program provides an opportunity for youth to be exposed to many forms of ministry in a variety of cultural settings.

Venture in Mission has opened doors for many, many people. The first door is the heart of the giver to respond to the exciting call of Christ. Another door opens enabling talented persons to exercise their ministry aided by the gifts of others. Another door is opened where those in need receive gifts of love which is answered with a prayer of thanks and praise that God is good. Venture in Mission has taught us all that we have been blessed and that we can be a blessing to others.

VENTURE IN MISSION

(A Report to the Eighty-ninth Convention)

Venture in Mission has given new impetus for vision and ministry in the Diocese of Los Angeles. It has challenged individuals and congregations to begin creative new work for the spread of the Gospel. New financial resources have turned opportunities into realities.

MISSION AND MINISTRY BEYOND THE DIOCESE

International projects chosen by the Diocese of Los Angeles are showing positive results. In Western Mexico $155,708 has already been spent for the purchase of land and buildings for the Episcopal Church. The development plan for the seminary in Guadalajara is progressing well. The vitality of the seminary will ensure a local base for the ordained ministry to serve the growing Episcopal Church in Mexico. $313,174 remains for new work as these projects become ready for funding.

Administered by the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief $173,906 has been channeled to East Africa for famine relief and food production projects. An outstanding example of how this money is being used is in the completion of a long needed water project at the Bishop Tucker Farm in Uganda. The model farm helps Bishop Tucker College toward self-sufficiency and at the same time trains seminary students in essential agricultural techniques. In West Africa such preparation is of vital importance for their return to local church work. Funds are now available for evangelistic renewal conferences essential for the rebuilding of Uganda. $43,584 has been transferred for this project.

Volunteers for Mission reports that by the end of 1984 there will be 100 lay missionaries serving overseas through this program. The Diocese of Los Angeles has contributed $78,418 for this important work.

The commitment to the Diocese of the Northern Philippines still awaits its first transferral of funds. Currently there is $140,665 available for immediate transmission to strengthen the Church's ministry there. Political and social tensions have delayed the implementation of the many local projects planned. Early in 1985 we should be able to transfer the first funds for the support of mission stations and farm projects.

MISSION AND MINISTRY WITHIN THE DIOCESE

The Revolving Development Fund. Venture in Mission projects in the Diocese of Los Angeles have been carefully monitored by the Cabinet and its committees. The Revolving Development Fund has currently allocated $724,948 of $774,900 available. This sum includes loans to four small parishes for essential repairs and refurbishment: $400,000 set aside for the purchase of new mission property in the diocese; and the commitment of $75,000 toward the building of a diocesan conference and retreat center at St. Richard of Chichester, Lake Arrowhead, which is nearing completion.

The Opportunity Fund

"Lord, make us channels of your grace. May our wills conform to your will, our choices reflect your love to your people, and a song of praise be raised up throughout our diocese; throughout our diocese; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

With this intercession the members of the Opportunity Fund Grant Committee begin the deliberations which lead them to their recommendations for new ministry grants. The committee, with the concurrence of the VIM Cabinet, has approved projects totalling $438,767 from $777,005 in available funds. These include the youth ministry training project developed by Deanery One; a child care center undertaken by St. Gabriel's Chinese Mission, Monterey Park; social service and justice programs sponsored by the Episcopal Service Alliance of Orange County and the South Central Organizing Committee of Los Angeles; a substance abuse center sponsored by Ascension Parish, Tujunga; money to build temporary quarters for the parish ministry of St. Wilfrid's, Huntington Beach, to young adults adrift in our society; the expansion of the Good Shepherd Hospice to serve the needs of the larger community, and the renovation of parish hall facilities at Holy Family Mission, North Hollywood to provide a base for ministry to Salvadoran refugees in that area. The Opportunity Fund has enabled a wide variety of new ministries to go forward. The committee is still receiving new applications for projects from congregations in the diocese.

Two other projects specified in the Venture in Mission casebook for work within the diocese have received allocations from the funds received. Camp Stevens development project has received $37,718 toward the new multi-purpose building. Episcopal Community Services has received $105,172 for its new service center.

TRAINING IN DISCIPLESHIP FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY

Training in Discipleship challenges the ordained and non-ordained. An office for Ministry has been initiated to serve clergy, assist seminarians, focus the spiritual formation of interns and new deacons, recruit minorities for the ordained ministry, establish opportunities for continuing education and procedures for sabbatical leaves. Parish Campus ministry has been encouraged and a successful parish-based university chaplaincy is underway at St. Andrew's, Irvine. The talents of youth are being sought and channeled to served the church and community through the Youth Summer Service. A part-time coordinator has been hired to bring the program into full flower. Finally, we have enhanced communications within the diocese with part-time technical assistance and new equipment in the vital task of sharing our spiritual journey, documenting the path we take, encouraging everyone along the way.

Venture in Mission is the leading edge of our Church's effort to respond creatively and energetically to our Lord's Great Commission. That Commission commands that we make known our Savior's message in every circumstance in Word and Sacrament. Venture in Mission provides the necessary financial resources to make that commission possible in many communities by stimulating and encouraging the use of the gifts endowed in every Christian by the Holy Spirit. With gratitude we thank the many thousands who have pledged to VIM. The total receipts to date are $3,774,197 -- a cause for great rejoicing.

The pledge period will not come to a close until June of 1985 so there is still time for new gifts and contributions to be received. Let us venture together in the kingdom of God.

CHURCH DIVINITY SCHOOL OF THE PACIFIC REPORT

I am here on behalf of the Dean and the Board of Trustees to thank you for the generous and continued support of CDSP. I am pleased to announce that over half the parishes in this Diocese give to CDSP. The contributions have increased from $37,000 in 1983 to $57,000 last year.

Your investment in the seminary will have good results for you. First, you will meet two seminarians for this Diocese who will soon be serving the church here. Secondly, there are plans being made to expand our Continuing Education program and to make it accessible and useful to churches and church people here in this Diocese. The seminary wants to be a resource to us.

Let me introduce the two seminarians who will each speak briefly on their education at CDSP.

Tim Vivian is a first year student at CDSP. Tim is a life long Episcopalian. Growing up in a military family, Tim traveled throughout the country and came to Vandenberg Air Force Base in 1967. Tim has been a parishioner at St. Mary's in Lompoc and his home parish is now St. Michael's University Church in Isla Vista. He received his PhD. in Church History at the University of California, Santa Barbara and plans next year to publish two books on St. Peter of Alexandria, a fourth century bishop. After seminary he hopes to combine teach and scholarship in Church History and Biblical language with ministry in the church.

Marni Schneider was raised in Ohio, attended Purdue University as a journalism major and ultimately graduated from Loyola-Marymount University in Los Angeles in Communication Arts after working in the television industry as a director, producer and writer for 16 years.

St. Augustine's by-the-Sea in Santa Monica, in her words "educated me for the ministry" and she left for CDSP, where she received an award for being the outstanding student of the first year class. Now, in her final year, Marni has been president of her class for the last two years, is an honors student, member of the worship committee and a writer and director of the seminary's Spring Follies, a musical comedy production. She is looking forward to ordained parish ministry after completion of her seminary education next May.

Herbert Lucas,
Trustee, Church Divinity School of the Pacific

Bishop Rusack, Bishop Garver, lay and clergy delegates, greetings from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

When I was asked by CDSP to speak before this Convention, I accepted with fear and trembling: preaching before 50 people at St. Michael's is a bit different from addressing the assembled multitudes of our Diocese.

What can I tell you about CDSP, the seminary that, as Mr. Lucas has just reported, our diocese is doing so much to support?

Like this diocese, with its diverse ministries and programs, my class at CDSP is also rich in diversity, and I believe this is healthy for the Church. We are about 50% women, 50% men, ranging in age from 25 to 50; our former occupations include teachers and professors, nuns, salespersons, parole officers, writers, and even a whale-trainer!

The Church is its people, and CDSP is blessed both in its students and its faculty. As an academic myself, I can testify that the quality of teaching and scholarship at CDSP is very high. This semester I have had outstanding courses in Old Testament, Ethics, and Church History. Yet because we are a small school we have more opportunity than at a university to get to know our professors personally and talk with them about their own lives and faith and ministry. It is the people who are the Church, and CDSP has already offered me a strong community of good and caring people.

My wife and I are in a Christian mediation group taught by two CDSP seminarians. This group meets weekly to learn different kinds of Christian meditation, and seeks to bring contemplation and meditation into our daily lives. In January the leaders of this group will be conducting a retreat for my home parish of St. Michael's, Isla Vista.

People also expose us to different worlds. Each junior is assigned to a small group that meets weekly during the first semester with a professor to discuss topics of interest. The group I am in has become close; we have shared our stories, our sorrows and our joys, and in these lives touched by Christ I am learning incarnation and resurrection.

On Thursday nights we have community Eucharist and dinner, and often following dinner we have programs planned by students. This semester the programs have been widely diverse: Christian spirituality, the Anglican tradition of spirituality, rural ministry, and world hunger. This last Thursday our Evening Eucharist was based upon a fourth-century Greek liturgy, and next Thursday we will have a Eucharist in Spanish.

We are diverse, but as Anglicans we are united around our tradition of the Prayer Book and daily worship. Last Ember Day I wrote Bishop Rusack that daily worship has come to mean a great deal to me. I feel that at CDSP I am learning, with the heart as well as the the mind, with the spirit as well as the intellect, what it means to be an Anglican and a Christian.

Although seminary can be very difficult, even exasperating, it has challenged me more than I ever could have imagined -- and I am a better person for it.

Briefly, then, all of this -- and much more -- is what CDSP means to me, and, I hope, to you, to this Diocese, and the Church.

We will continue to need your increasing support.

I am grateful to those in this Diocese who are supporting me, including Bishop Rusack, St. Michael's, All Saints' By-the-Sea, Santa Barbara, and St. Mary's, Lompoc. As a CDSP student, I am grateful to all of you who represent parishes that by their 1% pledge support ALL of us, lay and ordained, in our common ministry in Christ. Thank you.

Tim Vivian
Seminarian

I had intended to bring to Bishop Rusack and all of you greetings from the North Country...but I feel like I'm IN it! It's so nice to be back home in warm and sunny southern California, even if only for a few days. And it's wonderful to see some of my friends again, especially from St. Augustine's By-the-Sea. Let me take this opportunity to personally thank them for their continued support. I was well prepared for seminary by the folks at St. A's and I am now being well prepared by CDSP to return to parish ministry in a different role.

One of the greatest advantages of being at CDSP is the rich ecumenical experience. As part of my Seminary education, I spent the summer of '84 at the State Prison Hospital for men in Vacaville, CA - with five other chaplain interns: 3 Lutherans, 2 Unitarian-Universalists, and ME. We were supervised by a Lutheran minister, a Roman Catholic priest and a Rabbi. This was possible because CDSP is part of the General Theological Union, a consortium of 9 Seminaries, most of which are one block north of the Cal-Berkeley campus, in a neighborhood known lovingly as "Holy Hill". Through the GTU I have studied ethics with a Baptist, church history with a Lutheran, and theology and social ethics with the Jesuits. And in the Anglican spirituality course taught at CDSP, over half the class came from other traditions, including Orthodox, to learn from ours.

Also part of the GTU community is the Center for Women in Religion, an ecumenical group of women students, staff and faculty from all the schools of the GTU. The courses and community events offered by the Center have provided yet another experience with people from different denominations as we struggle to clarify who we are, who we are called to become, and what we believe. And believe me, one of the best ways to find out why you're an Anglican is to be the ONLY one in the room!

So, between CDSP and the GTU we are able to get a solid Episcopal education and get the best from other traditions as well.

Of course, the biggest part of our lives at CDSP is academic. And there are times when the expectations seem impossible to meet. Especially right now for myself and other seniors, as we face final exams, the Christmas season, and the General Ordination Exam all in the next four weeks. There is light at the end of the tunnel, but for us it still looks suspiciously like an oncoming train!

We've begun something new at CDSP this year, in preparation for the ordination exams. Each Wednesday, the entire senior class has lunch together. We call it our weekly session of Faith, Hope and Panic! But as we brainstorm current issues confronting the Church, we share our expertise, our concerns, our unique points of view, and our love for one another, we eat, talk, laugh, cry and pray together. Whether it has helped us as an academic review only time will tell, but it has already helped us as Christians learning to struggle, to play and to pray together in the Church.

There is much more to tell you about CDSP, but we can talk later. Instead I would like to spend a moment saying thank you. Unfortunately, I have known many seminarians who feel that when they were sent off to Seminary they were more or less 'cut loose' by their diocese. That is not the case with Angelinos. We are very aware of and grateful for the support we receive from all of you. Certainly financially, but in other important ways as well.

Each year Bishop Rusack, who stays in touch with us all by letter and phone, comes up for a visit - as does our Chaplain, Doug Vest. From our home parishes we get financial aid, letters, phone calls, and prayers - and from St. Augustine's I've even had visitors! We have 'shepherds' in the Diocese who provide spiritual support and guidance. And the women of the Bishop's Guild keep us in their prayers and send us cards and letters as well. It is a network of support from you to us. So we have here a special thank you card for you - with each of our pictures and all of our thanks. As they say at United Way..."we don't know you (all), but we love you."

Thank you Bishop Rusack - thank you all, and God bless you.

Marni Schneider
Seminarian

Elder Camp--a Feast for the Body, Mind and Spirit is the newest offering of the Program Group on Camping. This session, designed especially for persons over 60, provides a wealth of opportunity for physical well-being, mental stimulation and spiritual fulfillment. This year's session, June 10-14 at Camp Stevens near Julian, featured workshops on the art and history of the letter including participants' writing of their own letters of remembrance, advice, resolution and opinion.

Bird walks and other nature discovery activities in the beautiful woods of Camp Stevens were a popular part of the program as were excursions to nearby state parks, historical sites and the home of renowned artist James Hubbell. The week also included aquanetics, singing, folkdancing, stargazing, worship and lively discussions around the fireplace and campfire.

Plans are underway to expand on the success of this initial program for senior adults when the new conference and lodging facility at Camp Stevens is completed next spring. The new facility will provide 8 new sleeping rooms for 1-6 persons each, 3 meeting rooms, a chapel and a library.

The Program Group on Camping continues to provide a variety of programs for persons of all ages including summer and winter camp sessions for children; wilderness travel programs; backpack trips; youth-at-risk programs; leadership training; workshops and conferences; family camps and outdoor education. All of these fall under the umbrella of the newly revised purpose statement of the Program Group on Camping:

"The Christian Faith proclaims that God has wonderfully created, and yet more wonderfully restored, the dignity of human nature. In Christ, God has taken what it means to be human and made it part of God's own reality so that all human endeavor is graced with His presence. This abiding presence of God promises each person the possibility of sharing the divine life of Him who humbled Himself to share our humanity.

As an integral part of the Episcopal Church in the Dioceses of Los Angeles and San Diego, Camp Stevens shares in the Church's proclamation of this Good News.

This proclamation is first carried out in an activity program designed to give participants wide ranging and varied outdoor experiences, so that they may develop a sense of personal connection with, and respect for, God's creation. The Camping Program continually seeks new opportunities to expand the horizon of its outdoor activities.

The Gospel is also proclaimed in the Camping Program's commitment to respect the dignity of every human being. This commitment is carried out in a program designed to foster personal growth in the individual participant, and to help each participant develop an awareness of the needs and feelings of others. The Camping Program seeks to bring together people of diverse backgrounds and to provide an experience of caring community life.

God's involvement with us in creation, community and the affirmation of human dignity is celebrated at the close of each camp session in the Holy Eucharist.

In these and other ways, Camp Stevens and the Diocesan Camping Program endeavor to assist the individuals in coming to a deep sense of reverence and respect for themselves and their fellow human being, the creation and God."

ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP TRAINING

This year the members of our Program Group have worked on a number of projects and activities which we believe will have an ongoing positive result in our Diocesan life. A planning and goal-setting day held in February at St. Barnabas', Eagle Rock, saw members working on three major sets of concerns in the following areas:

- The ongoing educational ministry of the Diocese and in particular the ability of our Program Group to respond to the needs of congregations;
- A Catechism-based filmstrip/video tape project, which would provide a resource for Confirmation and pre-Baptismal instruction;
- The effects on regionalization on the programmatic activities within the Diocese.

Each of these three groups has developed goals, on the basis of which further work has been done in succeeding months. The concerns, issues and goals developed by the groups considering the impact of regionalization provided the basis for the conference held on May 10 and 11 at the Marywood Retreat Center in Orange. Regionalization of program was addressed by members of Diocesan Council and representatives from the several program units in the Diocese. We are particularly grateful to Bishop Garver for his keynote address at that conference and for his continuing work with those who are seeking to ensure that the newly-formed regions will have effective and responsible program components. Action steps agreed to at Marywood have led to the programmatic element being emphasized in the preliminary regional meetings. The Reverend Greg Larkin, Dania Matheny, the Reverend Richard Graves, Joan Elton, and Nancy Trullinger form the planning group, which continues to work effectively in this vital area of Diocesan life.

The filmstrip/video tape project is still in the planning stages. Shirley Rose, the Reverend Eric Law, and Madeleine Bennett have shepherded this project through several phases of planning and exploration of resources. They have arranged for the total Program Group to see examples of the work of professionals who are under consideration for the production of this resource. As of this writing, the process of seeking funding for the project is continuing, aided by Paula Arvedson, who has acted a grants consultant to the group.

The third of these groups, consisting of Tracy Gaestel, Charlotte Moore, Ray Gallie, Paula Arvedson, and Katie Wright has developed goals aimed at ensuring prompt and helpful response to requests for educational help from local congregations. It is also hoped that the Diocese at large can be made more aware of the resources and skills which exist on our Program Group and of their availability to help at the local congregational level.

Other activities of the Program Group through this year have included discussion of some curriculum resources, familiarization with new books and resources in our fields of interest, and sharing of concerns and experiences. There has been some preliminary exploration of a study course from the Diocese of St. Alban's, England, which provides an ecumenical study of the so-called Lima Document on Baptism/Eucharist/Ministry developed by the World Council of Churches.

Four members of our Program Group - Shirley Rose, Paula Arvedson, the Reverend Eric Law and the Chairman joined our Staff Liaison, Elizabeth High, and five other people from our Diocese in attending the National Roundtable Leadership Conference sponsored by the National Church. This gathering, held April 30-May 3 at Estes Park, Colorado, brought together approximately 100 people from Dioceses throughout the country. It was one of two such conferences which were designed to allow for the exploration of leadership models suggested by two books - A Spirituality Named Compassion by Matthew Fox, and In Search of Excellence by Peters and Waterman. Those who attended report valuable learnings and enthusiasm for new styles of leadership, which can make our total ministry more effective.

Towards the end of this reporting period, we were happy to welcome our new liaison from Diocesan Council, Mr. Bill Moritz from St. Columba's, Camarillo. We also continue to be deeply indebted to Elizabeth High for her unfailing interest and enthusiasm for our work, and for the untiring help she gives us all.

ON COMMUNICATIONS

Primary thrust of the Program Group on Communications during much of the past year was the planning, preparation and execution of the Group's involvement in the General Convention at Anaheim.

A goal was established earlier in the year by Bishop Rusack in a meeting with the Program Group when he requested that they concentrate their effort toward a positive press by emphasizing the diversity of the diocese. He charged the group with the responsibility of:

--The publication of a special, expanded issue of the Episcopal News to be distributed to all those attending the General Convention, and, to brief them about the Diocese of Los Angeles and Southern California;

--The design and structure of a large booth (in the Convention Exhibit Hall) to inform Convention delegates and other attendees about the many facets of a diocese that spreads from the desert to the sea.

The special Episcopal News was edited by the Missioner for Communication, Ruth Nicastro, assisted by Janet Kawamoto and the Program Group's Editorial Board chaired by the Reverend Houston Horn. This issue, including the largest representation of advertisers ever, was expedited by the use of new typesetting equipment which allows the staff to produce all type internally and which has reduced the cost of publishing the paper each month.

One of the highlights of the Convention exhibits was the Diocesan Booth, which was staffed by diocesan headquarters staffers and members of the Program Group. Its distinctive design was the work of two Episcopal volunteers, professional graphic designers Diane and Tim Bryant.

Located near the entrance of the Exhibit Hall, the booth featured poster-size photos of various diocesan ministries, and a continuous video display consisting of an hour-long series of two-to-six minute videotapes showing different types of ministries in the diocese. Informational materials and brochures about these ministries were also available in the booth.

In addition to staffing the booth, many members of the Communications Group (which is made up of a mix of professional media communicators and clerical members) worked in the Convention Press Room, assisting the large number of media which covered the Convention.

Preparatory to all of this, the Communications Group organized and staged a briefing for Southern California media planning to attend the Convention. Held in early June, those participating included Convention officials from the Episcopal Church Center in New York City, the Diocese of Los Angeles and the Program Group on Communications.

The regular Communications program was carried on through the year also with concentration on the Episcopal News, the diocesan-wide video program, and production of a slide show for pre-Diocesan Convention regional meeting.

ON EVANGELISM AND RENEWAL

Since Diocesan Convention 1984, the Program Group on Evangelism and Renewal has adopted a long range plan for developing consultation relationships with congregations in the areas of evangelism and church growth. This is the general trend in the national church and particularly in Province VIII.

The first stage of this process was begun in February with the training of the program group members to serve as consultants. The training period concluded in June.

The second stage of the process will begin in the fall as the program group selects three congregations with whom to enter into a consultation arrangement.

The third state of the Process (the consultation procedure) will begin early in 1986.

ON MINISTRY IN HIGHER EDUCATION

At our last diocesan convention, the representatives of the diocese unanimously affirmed our ministry in higher education and urged that it be given "sufficient priority in the next Program and Budget Cycle for ministry in higher education."

The efforts expended in this vital ministry to the students, faculty and staff of the institutions of higher education of our diocese have drawn strength from the support offered by the diocese, and the development of this work over the last year reflects this.

New ministries have been established at the University of California, Irvine and at the University of Southern California. These new works give us a presence at all of the University of California campuses and at the major urban campuses in our diocese.

Over the next year, we hope to see the establishment of new ministries at California State University, Long Beach. In the near future, we hope to assist local parishes in establishing programs at the Claremont Colleges, Los Angeles Community College and at California State University, Los Angeles.

During the past year, the various ministries that are supported by the Program Group for Ministry in Higher Education have engaged in a variety of activities which range from bringing Desmond Tuto to UCLA to helping to create a food program in Isla Vista. The chaplains have done everything from serving as cooks for students involved in the divestment demonstrations to teaching courses in the university. Their work has given students opportunities for worship and spiritual growth ranging from regular worship to retreats for Asian students of the diocese.

During the past year, the chaplains planned and carried out a diocesan student retreat at Marywood Retreat Center, and have begun planning for sending a large contingent to the Second National Student Gathering of the Episcopal Church.

This work remains faithful and supportive of the established ministries at our various campuses, while looking to expand and establish the presence of Episcopal Chaplaincies at the other campuses that we find in our diocese.

ON MISSION CONGREGATIONS

During the reporting year, the Program Group on Mission Congregations initiated the new mission congregation of St. Dunstan's of Glastonbury, Moreno Valley (Sunnymead) and sponsored its application for union with the 89th Convention of the Diocese. The Program Group also sponsored the new Vietnamese Mission located in Garden Grove - Church of the Redeemer - for union with the 89th Convention.

The Program Group continued its search for suitable mission land in the Trabuco Canyon area of Orange County, however the owners have taken much of the available acreage off the market at the present time. The major population growth in the Brea-Diamond Bar region, Rancho Cucamonga-Etiwanda region and in some parts of Ventura County signal the need for the Program Group to pursue additional mission development in the coming year.

Personnel changes during the year: the Reverend Douglas Holmes was appointed Vicar of Epiphany, Agoura Hills/Westlake Village; the Reverend Russell Touchstone was appointed English speaking Missioner at Iglesia de la Magdalena, Glendale and Holy Family Mission, North Hollywood as part of a team ministry guided by the Reverend Fernando Gomez, Vicar; Mr. Eric Menees, General Theological Seminary Middler was appointed Summer Intern at St. Richard of Chicester, Lake Arrowhead; the Reverend D. Bruce MacPherson formerly part time priest in charge at St. John's, La Verne has been appointed full time Vicar; the Reverend Matthew Ahn has been reappointed Vicar of St. Nicholas' Korean Mission, Los Angeles; the Reverend Michael Bamberger has announced his resignation as Vicar of St. John's, Needles upon his call as Associate, Sierra Madre; the Reverend Charles Belknap was appointed Vicar of Incarnation, Norwalk; the Reverend F. William May was appointed Priest in charge of St. Dunstan's, Sunnymead; the Reverend Byron Chinn was appointed Priest in charge of Christ the King, Palmdale; the Reverend Peter Ensor was appointed Vicar of St. Margaret of Scotland, San Juan Capistrano; the Reverend Lynn Jay was appointed Vicar of St. Stephen's, Valencia. Two missions are in the process of making application for parish status in union with Convention - St. Peter's, Rialto and St. John's, Costa Mesa.

The Korean preaching station at North Hollywood proved premature. The remaining members determined to join either St. Nicholas' Mission in Hollywood or to associate themselves with St. David's Parish, North Hollywood.

Other events in the mission field of the Diocese include the dedication of St. Richard of Chicester Church and Robert C. Rusack Clergy Retreat Center; the initiation of a community pastoral care center at St. Luke's, Fontana; the dedication of a new organ at St. George's, Hawthorne; and the initiation of a food for the hungry program at Holy Child-St. John's, Wilmington.

The Archdeacon went on sabbatical at GTS, New York City during the fall semester. During his absence, the Reverend Canon Ralph Deppen, D.D., formerly Archdeacon of Chicago kindly fulfilled the Visitation responsibilities of the archdeacon's office.

Plans for 1985-86 include a restructure of the Program Group in concert with the Regional Structure plan of the Diocese. It is hoped that a more effective means might be found to engage in mission development closer to the field during the coming year.

The Program Group wishes to express its deep appreciation to all the Mission Clergy; the lay leaders and the members for their many contributions to the extension of the Church's mission in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

Archdeacon of the Diocese

ON STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

The Program Group on Stewardship and Finance convened on a monthly schedule. It undertook three major projects in service to the congregations of the diocese.

The overnight of the Mission Share Fund pledge requests proceeded according to the revised schedule adopted in 1983. This schedule consisted of preliminary announcements of the pledge askings in May followed by a formal pledge request in August. The deadline for submitting the 1985 pledges was September 30. Forty percent of the parishes met the deadline, a substantial increase over last year. By the time Convention met the pledges were in hand to confirm the budget needs. With less than a one percent delinquency in pledge payments for 1984 the Program Group is satisfied with this schedule.

A major revision of the Audit Guide for parishes and missions was the second project. The 1984 Convention required schools and diocesan institutions to make a financial review conforming to procedures established by the Program Group on Stewardship and Finance. The Program Group revised the Audit Guide to fit all units of the church in the diocese. It has published and mailed to every unit a much simplified Guide.

Development of a Planned Giving Program financed by a Cathedral Grant for the first year was the third project of the Program Group. The Planned Giving Program is retaining Mr. S. William Dowey, a long time member of the diocese, as part-time consultant. The program promotes opportunities for deferred giving for the benefit of any parish, institution, or agency affiliated with the Episcopal Church at diocesan, provincial, national or international level. It is a service to the members of the diocese as a whole as a vehicle for promoting the stewardship of accumulated resources. Thereby Planned Giving rounds out the stewardship education of the diocese.

The Program Group continues to support training programs to enrich and increase the number of consultants available to assist congregations with stewardship education programs. In May the Program Group co-sponsored a training session with the Diocese of San Diego. The event was so successful that further team training is planned to benefit both dioceses in this vital area.

ON YOUTH

The Program Group on Youth, composed of lay persons, clergy, and youth provides resources, support, communication, assistance with the development of youth ministry and activities on a diocesan level for youth and their advisors.

This year, the Diocesan Youth Coordinator position, funded by grants from Venture in Mission and the Cathedral Corporation, is held by Marge Devine. Based at Diocesan House, the Youth Coordinator is responsible for providing communication with local youth leaders, as well as support and resources in conjunction with the Program Group on Youth; obtaining, cataloguing, and updating information about youth work on a diocesan, provincial, and national level; work with the person responsible for the Diocesan Resource Library; to publicize diocesan and local youth events; to provide needed administrative support for the Program Group on Youth; is responsible for the coordination of the Venture in Mission Summer Youth Work Project.

During the last weekend in October, the Junior High Youth Rally was held at Camp Stevens, with the theme, "All Good Gifts", and in April, the Senior High Youth Rally was held, the theme being, "Chose Life" from Deuteronomy 30:15.

In the fall, the Program Group on Youth, in conjunction with the Commission on Alcoholism and the Program Group on Christian Education and Leadership Training presented two workshops on Chemical Dependency for youth, parents, clergy and youth advisors in Los Angeles and Santa Ana. In January, the Program Group on Youth presented a Youth Advisors Retreat and Workshop in Pasadena.

In December, youth of many areas of the Diocese gathered to act as "gophers" for the Diocesan Convention, and in February attended a retreat with the Ecumenical Community of Taize.

During December and January, youth, clergy, youth advisors and parents participated in a survey to assist the Program Group on Youth in expanding the Diocesan Youth Program and to establish long range goals. As a result of this survey, a proposal for an expanded budget has been presented to the Program Group on Program and Budget to enrich the youth program for the Diocese and to include an ongoing position for Diocesan Youth Coordinator.

Also during the past year and for three years previous, the Program Group has been working in cooperation with the National Office of Youth Ministries to plan program for youth attending the General Convention in Anaheim in September.

For the third consecutive year, the Program Group on Youth offered the Venture in Mission Summer Youth Work Project, funded by the Venture in Mission Program. This year the project was expanded to six weeks, with a total of seven projects being offered to youth. This project is one of service and outreach. This year, over 120 youth from throughout the Diocese participated in the seven projects: Camp Stevens, the E.S.A. offices in San Clemente, Santa Ana and Laguna Beach, San Andreas Seminary in Guadalajara, the Vietnamese Refugee Center and Church of the Redeemer in Garden Grove, and St. Simon's Parish in San Fernando and Adventure Camp in Santa Barbara at Cachuma Church Camp.

The Program Group on Youth continues to interface with the Deanery One Youth Project as they develop a model for youth ministry.

The Program Group on Youth welcomes any suggestions, questions and ideas as well as persons interested in youth ministry who want to become involved in work and planning.

ON ALCOHOLISM

The Commission on Alcoholism met every two months throughout the year in different parishes of the Diocese. Our meetings always began with dinner followed by a program and a survey of the Commission's work to date.

This year, a Co-Chairman was elected, Mary Gilligan, to assist the Chairman, Father Barbour.

Services provided throughout the year included:

1. "The Traveling Road Show: - An effective audio-visual team presentation which gives the facts about the illness of alcoholism and dispels popular myths about the disease. The format of the presentation can be adapted to particular situations. The "Road Show" is available to parishes and groups in the diocese.
2. Audio-Visual Resources - Other audio-visual materials are available to parishes and responsible groups. They include films, filmstrips and displays on alcoholism and other types of substance abuse.
3. Publishes Resources - A wide variety of published resource material including pamphlets, books and information about Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon, Alateen, Narcotics Anonymous and other referral resources is available for study and reflection.
4. Diocesan Policies on Alcohol and Alcoholism - As approved by Diocesan Council, these timely documents set forth guidelines for prudent use of alcohol in our churches.
5. Mini-Retreats - Day-long events scheduled throughout the Diocese, offer to recovering alcoholics and their loved ones a chance to reflect and grow spiritually under the direction of an experienced leader.

The Commission on Alcoholism works closely with the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcoholism (NECA) and with the Recovering Alcoholic Clergy Association (RACA).

For three years Father Barbour has served on the Board of Directors of NECA.

ON ANGLICAN FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

My first thought relative to making this report was to use this opportunity to make a suggestion to the reader that if you have an interest in ways to share prayer with others, please write or phone for information about the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer.

As the only worldwide prayer organization in the Anglican Communion, the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer seeks to answer the Call to Prayer by increasing and strengthening the companionship of prayer. The essence of the life of the church is the relationship between the Christian and his Lord. That relationship is, first of all, a prayer relationship.

In order to address the statements mentioned above, we had as our speaker in several areas of the Diocese, Frank B. Neiman, Ph.D., Dean, School of Applied Theology, Oakland, and Trainer, Education for Ministry, University of the South.

In this year, we were fortunate to be called by three churches interested in developing prayer groups. We feel blessed to report that all three advise that they are now a body of praying people.

Prayer is the hub of the wheel that moves the church in its work and worship. Prayer is essential to the vitality and the ongoing life of the church.

The Commission stands in readiness to assist and looks forward to being called upon to serve by providing information and resources made available through the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer.

ON ASIAMERICA MINISTRY

The LAD/EAST Commission (The Los Angeles Diocese Episcopal Asiamerica Strategy Task Force) has been working on a partnership program for ministry to Asians since 1974 following the 1973 General Convention in Louisville, Kentucky. It is a program of the Episcopal Church that is carried out in partnership as members of the One Body - at the local, diocesan, provincial, national and on a world-wide level - with churches of the Anglican Communion in Asia, So. Pacific, Southwest Asia, and India.

At the local level, we note the following congregations and special ministries towards Asian people in the Southland:

Ministry to Japanese - Prior to 1974, St. Mary's, Los Angeles (Mariposa) was the only ministry to Asians in the Diocese. Founded in 1907 by a Canadian missionary to Japan, Mary Louise Paterson. The late Reverend John Misao Yamazaki, S.T.D., was Vicar from 1913-45 and General Missionary from 1946-57. The Reverend Canon John H. M. Yamazaki, D.D., Vicar 1946-56, and Rector 1956 to the present. The Reverend Canon

Joshua Kominami has been serving as Missioner to the Japanese-speaking ministry since 1983. St. Mary's has been the only ministry to Asians in this diocese over these seven decades.

Ministry to Koreans - St. Nicholas Mission, founded 1975. The Reverend Matthew Ahn, Vicar. Korean Community Services, founded 1975. Father Ahn, 1st Director; Mrs. Grace Ahn, present Director. Church of the Annunciation (Second Korean Mission) in Anaheim. The Reverend Paul Yoon, Vicar, 1983.

Filipino Ministry - The Reverend Magdaleno Bacagan came from Washington D. C. to conduct a feasibility study in 1974 and recommended a two-fold ministry (1) to members of the Philippine Independent Church, and (2) to Filipino Episcopalians. Church of the Holy Child (Philippine Independent Church) was established in Highland Park in 1975. Father Gregory Bayaca was appointed Vicar. The congregation then moved to the Navy Chapel in Long Beach. Currently the congregation is settled at St. John's, Wilmington, where Father Bayaca is also Vicar and the two congregations work together as one.

Ministry to Filipino Episcopalians - Filipino Episcopalians attend several parishes in which they reside: St. Mary's, Los Angeles; St. James', Los Angeles; Trinity, Los Angeles' St. Anselm's, Garden Grove. The Reverend Magdaleno Bacagan was appointed Vicar to the Filipino Ministry. At Trinity Parish, where a large number are actively involved, a special outreach ministry to new immigrants from the Philippines has been established with the Reverend David Duncan, Rector, and Florence Munoz as Director.

Chinese Ministry - This ministry began with surveys and several consultations sponsored by LAD/EAST and funded by the National EAM (Episcopal Asiamerica Ministry) in 1981-82. Those giving invaluable assistance were the Reverend Laurence Chang of Hong Kong, the Reverend Albany To of New York, Chairman of the National Chinese Convocation and the Reverend Winston Ching of the National EAM. Also giving support were the members of the partnership committee of the dioceses of Hong Kong and Los Angeles. The Reverend Benjamin Pao of Boston, formerly of Hong Kong, came to study the potentiality of this ministry. There was a strong indication of lay support. In 1983, Bishop Rusack made a call to Father Pao to begin this ministry. A church and parish hall were made available in Monterey Park. In 1984, Father Pao was instituted as Vicar of St. Gabriel Church and the congregation was received as a mission by the Diocesan Convention. Today, it is a viable congregation involved in the life of the diocese and community.

Indo-Chinese Ministry - The Church of the Redeemer (Mission for Vietnamese) was established in 1984. The Reverend Duc Nguyen, Ph.D., first Anglican Vietnam priest, was appointed Vicar for this congregation. He is working on a Vietnamese translation of the 1979 Prayer Book.

St. Anselm Refugee Center has been the most active refugee program in the nation. The Reverend Canon Samir Habiby, the Reverend M. Fletcher Davis, the Reverend Duc Nguyen and Ms. Kathleen Cullinane have all played an important role in this outreach program. Ms. Cullinane is now attending General Theological Seminary.

Ministry to Pacific People - The Reverend Sione Halapua, Rel.D., has been involved in an ecumenical ministry to Pacific people. He is currently preparing a feasibility study for this area of mission.

The Mar Thoma Syrian Church - with which the Episcopal Church has a concordat relation, has a congregation at the Church of Angeles, Pasadena, where the Reverend K. G. Pothan is priest-in-charge.

Ministry to Asian College Students - The Reverend Eric Law, Episcopal Chaplain at USC is also busily involved in ministry to Asian students attending the Southland universities and colleges.

The LAD/East Commission is composed of clergy and lay representatives from Asian congregations, members at large and diocesan staff officers who serve as liaison members.

The following meetings of the Commission were held during the year:

February 23, 1985 at Holiday Inn at Fullerton, to prepare for the Episcopal Asiamerica Booth at the General Convention to display the historical background and development of the Asianamerica Ministry in the Episcopal Church from 1973-1985.

March 19, 1985 at Trinity Parish, Los Angeles, to welcome and hear from Bishop-Elect Oliver Garver; to welcome Dr. Duc Nguyen, first Vietnamese priest and Vicar of the Church of Redeemer, Garden Grove; to set the schedule of seven commission meetings from May 21, 1985 to May 20, 1986.

May 20, 1985 at Diocesan Headquarters to plan new mission strategies for LAD/East. To plan Dinner/Program at three congregations during EAM National Consultation on September 2 - 6, 1985, as host diocese.

June 29, 1985 at Church of the Redeemer, Garden Grove. To plan for afternoon convocation workshops, evening service; supper and program at local congregations; serving as hosts: Tuesday, September 3rd at St. Mary's, Los Angeles, with Trinity, Los Angeles and St. John's Wilmington (Japanese and Filipino Night); Wednesday, September 4, at Annunciation, Anaheim with St. Nicholas, Los Angeles (Korean Night); Thursday, September 5, at St. Gabriel, Monterey Park with Redeemer, Garden Grove (Chinese/Indo-Chinese Night).

The representatives of the Diocese of Los Angeles have played a key role in the development of the National Episcopal Ministry. Currently serving as convenors of the National Ethnic Convocations are: Chinese Convocation, the Reverend Dr. Benjamin Pao; Filipino Convocation, the Reverend Magdaleno Bacagan; Indo-Chinese Convocation, the Reverend Fletcher Davis.

The above three have been appointed by the Presiding Bishop to serve on the National EAM Commission and Father Bacagan has been appointed its chairman. Dr. Benjamin Pao has been appointed to serve as a member of the Commission of Coalition of Human Needs, representing the Asian Commission. Previous commissioners from the Diocese of Los Angeles were: the Reverend Matthew Ahn, Convenor for the Korean Convocation; and the Reverend Canon John Yamazaki, National Chairman of the Commission for eight years. He is planning to retire from the active ministry on January 1, 1986.

We are deeply grateful to the following for support and counsel: Bishop Robert Rusack, Suffragan Bishop Oliver Garver, Archdeacon Terence Lynberg, Joon Matsumura, Assistant Controller, and to the Reverend Winston Ching, National Staff officer for Asiamerica Ministry.

ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Bishop appointed me the Chairman for the Commission on Architecture in March 1985, with the charge that he wanted us to become pro-active rather than re-active. To us, this means that we will be involved in projects at a very early date, hopefully, when they first are being thought about. There are many skills on this Commission and we want to be helpful.

The Canons require certain things when remodeling or building projects are undertaken. Architecture includes many things from paint color to landscaping and certainly it is concerned with sizes and uses of buildings. We are acutely aware that many projects are undertaken, particularly remodeling projects, without consultation. We feel that many problems can be avoided if consultation takes place at an early date. All too often, the canonically required approval of this Commission on Building and Remodeling comes to us after much time and money have been invested in plans and architects.

We are here to serve you, we want to be helpful. Please feel free to contact us.

ON THE CLERGY COMMUNITY CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

This Committee plans and carries out the annual three-day gathering of the clergy of the Diocese and their spouses. The Committee is responsible for making arrangements for speaker and topic, as well as planning for the site, schedule, worship, social events, menus and all of the little details which seem to be needed in holding a conference of this nature. The Committee has met on an irregular basis as needed.

The 1984 Conference was held at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Barbara, October 13-16. The speaker was the Right Reverend Desmond Tutu, now

Bishop of Johannesburg and winner of the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize.

The 1985 Conference is scheduled to be held the Sunday, Monday and Tuesday following the second weekend of October. The site which has been chosen is the Gene Autry Hotel in Palm Springs.

ON DIOCESAN HUMAN SERVICE INSTITUTIONS

The Commission, representing Bishop Gooden Home, Episcopal Community Services, the Episcopal Home, Hillside, the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Neighborhood Youth Association, and Seamen's Church Institute has devoted much of the year working with the Secretary of Convention in determining which agencies within the Diocese are canonical institutions, according to the mandate of last year's Convention. The Commission serves as a clearinghouse for the mutual concerns of its constituent members and coordinates funding requests, public relations efforts and allocation of resources to its member agencies.

ON ECUMENICITY

Over this past year the Commission has been in the process of restructuring for a more efficient method to carry out the many facets of its work. We are aiming at a structure that keeps in balance the two sides of the ecumenical coin: Faith and Order and Life and Works. This is essential if the ecumenical coin is to be complete.

In the area of Life and Work we have been active in many areas of inter-faith activities. We started the 1984-1985 year with a prominent ministry during the Olympic Games followed by participation in the Martin Luther King annual commemoration; the SCOC Justice Conference at which Bishop Rusack gave a major address; Hunger and suffering; the homeless; Propeace; Capital punishment; access to Health Care just to mention a few.

In the area of Faith and Order we have our established areas of ARC/LA, ARC/SB, ARC/O, LED/LA, our own Faith and Order groups who submitted, to the Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations, a response to the Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry (BEM) document of the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches. In formation we have dialogue groups to communicate with the Jewish, Islamic, Buddhist, and Orthodox Communities.

We continue our relationships with the Interreligious Council of Southern California (IRC), the Southern California Ecumenical Council (SCEC), Los Angeles Council of Churches, the South Coast Ecumenical Council, the Valley Interfaith Council, the National Conference of Christians and Jews (NCCJ), the American Jewish Committee (AJC) and the newly revived Women's Interfaith Committee.

The Sixty-eighth General Convention has referred four studies to the several dioceses of the Church over the next triennium which gives us a very full agenda along with the on-going work of the Commission. Many authorities have said quite clearly that the Ministry of the Church of the future will have to be ecumenical. We are making every effort to be prepared.

ANGLICAN ROMAN CATHOLIC DIALOGUE/LOS ANGELES (ARC/LA)

ARC/LA has been meeting regularly throughout the year. A major portion of our time this year was spent in the study of the document Images of God: Reflections on Christian Anthropology from ARC/USA. This study culminated in an overnight study meeting with ARC/SB, ARC/O and ARC/SD. It resulted in a response to ARC/USA by the Southern California ARC community which was well received by ARC/USA. We continue to take leadership in the Annual LARCO Clergy Retreat which was led this past year by the Reverend Max Oliva, S.J. on the subject of the Spirituality of Peace and Justice and was held at Manresa Retreat House, March 19th and 20th, 1985.

This year we plan to do an indepth study of the reception process of our churches in the receiving of ecumenical documents in conjunction with the other ARC Dialogue groups in Southern California. In addition we are in the process of pairing Episcopal/Roman Catholic parishes for the study of family life under the program developed by the Franciscan Communications Center.

ANGLICAN ROMAN CATHOLIC DIALOGUE/SAN BERNARDINO (ARC/SB)

The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue in the San Bernardino Region has continued to grow stronger. We now meet on a monthly basis (except July and August) and are working on a proposed set of Marriage Guidelines to present to our respective Bishops, hopefully by October of this year. After their approval, we plan to hold a joint Clergy Conference to present the Guidelines to the local clergy.

We continue to participate in the larger ARC work, such as the studies on God and Man and the annual LARCO retreat. In the future, we plan on exploring possible Baptismal Guidelines and further inter-parish lay activities.

ANGLICAN ROMAN CATHOLIC DIALOGUE/ORANGE (ARC/O)

The Anglican Roman Catholic Commission/Orange met several times during the past twelve months to improve relations between our two Churches and to share with one another not only friendship but support in our various ministries.

Highlight of the year was the overnight at Marywood Center to discuss and otherwise respond to the document Images of God: Reflections on Christian Anthropology, issued recently by ARC/USA. A well-organized event allowed for full discussion, reflection and the drawing up of a response to the members of ARC/USA to this document.

Other topics of mutual interest included pastoral concerns when Episcopalians enter into evangelistic endeavors within the Hispanic community, many of whose members were baptized in the Roman Catholic Church but who are currently active in no Christian community.

At present, plans are going forward for the first ARC/Orange retreat, to be held later this year.

Episcopalians on ARC/Orange are the Reverend David M. Baumann, Co-Chairman; the Reverend Brad Karelius; the Reverend Canon J. Ralph Deppen; the Reverend Richard Bullock; and the Right Reverend John Krumm.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ECUMENICAL COUNCIL

Faith and Order Commission: This past year we engaged in a study of the Nicene Creed which parallels the work of the Faith and Order Commission of the WCC in their study of A Common Expression of the Apostolic Faith for our Time. This year (1985-1986) we are attempting to compose a working paper taking the theme of the Apostolic Faith a step further in the many cultural and religious dimensions of Southern California. The study is entitled Diversity of Christian Expression in Southern California. Our objective is to get in line with the programs in the United States and the world at large. This is not to be a sociological study but a real theological effort.

ON HISPANIC MINISTRIES

Since July 1984 up to June 1985, the Hispanic Commission has met ten times to deal with different topics.

We have worked closely with La Sagrada Familia Refugee Program, which has served hundreds of people with food, English classes, legal services, referral services, etc. We have tried to involve parishes on projects with refugees.

Plans are under way to have a positive and informative presence at General Convention in September 1985, through the worship service in Spanish on Tuesday, news media coverage, hospitality, booth, etc.

A Special Retreat was held in October 1984, for adults, youth and children at Angeles Crest Christian Camp. A total of 58 persons attended from La Magdalena, St. Margaret's and Immanuel.

We are looking into the Sanctuary Movement to find ways to help those who are in need.

We are studying the present structure of the Hispanic Commission to find ways on how, as a commission and as individual members, we can help the implementation of the Five-Year Plan.

The Commission is aware that lay training and education is a priority for the years to come and is taking the necessary steps to fulfill this priority.

We wish to express deep gratitude to the people of those parishes who have made available their buildings and facilities for the ministry to Hispanics. Our gratitude to all the members of the Hispanic Commission for their cooperation and thoughts, and our prayer to our Heavenly Father on behalf of John Welch, a faithful member of the Commission, who died in April, 1985.

ON HOUSING

The Housing Commission has viewed itself as an advocacy group also providing resources to help parishes and missions in the diocese as they seek to sponsor housing for the poor and homeless people in their areas.

The work of providing housing is becoming increasingly difficult as federal monies are becoming more scarce. One of the very difficult problems facing would-be sponsors of F.H.A. 202-section 8 housing is obtaining "front" monies to acquire land, engage an architect and a consultant and provide the necessary studies. A further problem is presented as the Department of H.U.D. is carefully examining the financial statements of the sponsors. To strengthen the application the Housing Commission in 1984 sought to obtain co-sponsorship from the Diocese for such applicants. When co-sponsorship from the Diocese was not forthcoming, the Housing Commission was deeply gratified that St. Barnabas Senior Center offered to become co-sponsor and to help provide on a loan basis some of the "up front" monies.

The Commission rejoices with the congregation of Christ the Good Shepherd which, under the leadership of Mrs. Perceia Hutcherson has now established its second housing project, this one built in Inglewood for the handicapped. (The first project was one of the first projects built in our diocese for the elderly and was constructed adjacent to Good Shepherd Church and is called "Good Shepherd Manor".)

The Reverend Robert Oliver, Rector of St. James', Los Angeles, advises us that St. James' project which is rehabilitating ten apartment units and building fifty-five new senior units in a six story building is looking forward to full occupancy by Christmas of this year. Stringent municipal building codes and the usual hold-ups have been responsible for a number of delays. The building will feature a terrace garden-recreation area and underground parking. The commission heartily congratulates Father Oliver and the committee for their resolve in providing the much-needed housing for the neighborhood.

Church of the Advent, Los Angeles has filed an application for a 202-8 elderly housing project. A very enthusiastic Mr. Young Johnson who is a man of many talents has led a gifted committee to forward the application to the Department of HUD. A separate entity called the Advent Betterment Corporation has been formed. The project called "Bohler Manor" has a location at 920 W. Gage Avenue. Sixty units of garden apartments in a three story building have been planned. The Reverend Richard Hall of the St. Barnabas Senior Center has been working closely with Mr. Johnson and the A.B.C. to ensure a strong co-sponsor and hopefully, successful application. The project must compete with many other applications in the Department of HUD for funding. The support of Senators Cranston and Wilson has been solicited. The Vestry of Church of the Advent and the Corporation of Advent Betterment Corporation is waiting for further advice from HUD as to their viability.

There does exist a crisis in shelter for many people in the Los Angeles basin. The people living in the large tent provided for a short time earlier in the year reveals the number of street people without housing. The Los Angeles basin has very scarce supply of rentals, and by standards of housing in the rest of the country, this housing is exhorbitant.

The Housing Commission lauds all of those parishes which are seeking to provide shelter for the homeless. We offer resources, encouragement and direction for those parishes and missions which would like to seek to build an apartment building of housing for the elderly.

Chairman

ON INDIAN WORK

The concluding statement of last year's report - "The establishment of an Episcopal Center for Native Americans is the next major step in this urban ministry" - illuminates the work of this year.

Beginning in 1986, the Commission on Indian Work in the Diocese of Los Angeles wants to make a strong commitment to affirmative action with urban Native Americans in this area. Our intention is to establish an Indian Center as an Episcopal witness with focus on Native American needs and concerns.

The center has a three-fold purpose: (1) To provide an informal gathering place for brotherhood, i.e., a place to relax, share, and seek out old and new friends; (2) to provide a resource as well as a referral agency for assistance with basic needs, such as food, clothing, shelter, counseling and spiritual concerns; (3) to administer a comprehensive sociological study in order to better understand the needs and issues that confront the urban Indian. Currently, funding is being sought for the establishment of this project.

ON LAY MINISTRY

The Commission on Lay Ministry has functioned to uphold the ministry of the laity - ninety-nine percent of the Church's members throughout the Diocese by: 1) Attending the national network meeting of representatives concerned with myriad aspects of lay ministry; 2) Reviewing and recommending the film Day by Day for use in parishes; 3) Participating in a variety of capacities at General Convention; and 4) Supporting, with enthusiasm, the work to develop a program of Training for Ministry in Region Santa Barbara.

The Commission stands ready to serve the congregations and groups in the Diocese who wish to explore the ministry of the laity.

The Commission thanks Bishop Rusack, Canon Hultgren, the Reverend Doug Vest, and Diocesan House staff for their counsel and support.

ON LITURGY AND CHURCH MUSIC

The Diocesan Commission on Liturgy and Church Music consists of approximately twenty-five lay persons, church musicians, and clergy who meet monthly at Diocesan House. The Commission has had its greatest task this year in the planning for the Opening Eucharist of General Convention, and the initiation, for the first time in the history of General Convention, of a Daily Chapel space for Eucharist and prayer. In addition, the ongoing tasks of the Commission have been: to respond as a music and liturgy resource to congregations in the Diocese, to educate clergy and church musicians on current issues, particularly through our fine quarterly publication edited by Fritz Frurip.

Commission members enjoy the privilege of being a graduate seminar on issues of music and liturgy in the Church. We certainly have one of the finest commissions in the American Church, and many of our Commission members provide national leadership. The Reverend Cliff Gain has served as Chairman of the National Association of Diocesan Liturgy and Music Commissions. Carol Foster has provided leadership on the national music commission, providing leadership for the new Hymnal.

Tom Foster has provided leadership as President for the Association of Anglican Musicians. Fritz Frurip is a member of the North American Academy of Liturgy.

Some general areas of activity for the Commission this year have been the following:

- (1) We have provided liturgy and education resource for the celebration of the Bicentennial of the Consecration of Samuel Seabury.
- (2) We have provided workshops on Liturgy and Music through the Diocesan Resource Center.
- (3) With Carol Foster we have provided leadership in the Diocese for education of congregations on the New Hymnal. The majority of congregations in the Diocese have placed orders for the New Hymnal. The overwhelming response from the Church as a whole are a positive indication of the results of the education programs from persons such as Carol Foster.
- (4) We have as a future area of study the whole issue of musician compensation. Now that the Diocese has provided some guidelines for clergy compensation, we want to assist in providing guidance for congregations in this area.
- (5) We continue to provide copies of the Handbook for Liturgical Ministry published by our Commission in 1982, as a guideline for doing liturgy in the Diocese under the guidance of the Bishop.
- (6) Joint sponsorship of the Annual Choir Camp at Camp Stevens in August.

The major effort and work this year has certainly been in the area of preparation for General Convention. The Opening Eucharist is a result of many hours of planning and meetings, using the excellent resources that we have on this Commission and working with our Bishop. Our goal has been to provide an outstanding experience in liturgy and music. It has been a difficult task because of the reorganization of General Convention management. We also were very disappointed that the Presiding Bishop's original plan for a Rite II Eucharist was not maintained. Late in the planning process, the Presiding Bishop changed to Rite I. But, nonetheless, the Commission decided that we would plan the best Rite I we can!

Tom Foster and Bill Wunsch have provided leadership in organizing over 1,000 persons in a Diocesan Choir, including many hours of area rehearsals, and music selections.

Planning for a Eucharist possibly involving 10,000 persons is a very difficult task involving many on-site visits. Thanks to the organizational skills of Father Cliff Gain and Father Mark Lieske, assisted by Fritz Frurip, we were able to design a seating plan, write the liturgical text for submission for printing, and develop a customary of how the dramatic action would unfold.

Mary Godby has provided the needed leadership and artistic skills in planning the visuals, (the vestments and liturgical furniture plan) for the Opening Eucharist and Daily Chapel.

As this report is written prior to General Convention itself, we feel we have planned thoroughly a great Eucharist celebration that is a liturgical witness of our Diocese, and will provide guidance for future General Convention liturgies.

The innovation of our Daily Worship space at General Convention comes from a desire to avoid the many hotel liturgies that have taken place in the past, and provides a large, handsome worship space where various interest groups might do their Eucharist together. Our schedule is to provide at General Convention, through the Monastic Community, Morning Prayer at 6:30 a.m., the Noon Day Prayers, and Evening Prayer following the act of Dismissal. Daily Eucharist will be at 7:00 a.m.

Father Mort Ward has fulfilled a very, very difficult assignment. His attention to detail and his ability to pave the way through many obstacles I know has provided us a great example for the years ahead of General Conventions.

The Daily Chapel space will include a Blessed Sacrament Chapel and place for ongoing prayer through the Anglican Fellowship of Prayer and Confession and spiritual counsel through the Episcopal monastic communities.

Chairman

ON MINISTRY

The Commission on Ministry consists of fifteen elected and appointed members and many volunteer consultants, "friends of the Commission," whose services are invaluable. The Commission works with the Bishop and Standing Committee to encourage and select Candidates for Holy Orders and to support the clergy in their continuing ministries.

The Commission held nine regular monthly meetings and one over-night conference. Three BACAM conferences were held, two for those preparing for Postulancy and one for those preparing for ordination to the Diaconate. (BACAM stands for "Bishop's Advisory Committee on Applicants for the Ministry.") Twelve persons were recommended for ordination to the Diaconate. Six Postulants were recommended for Candidacy at regular meetings of the Commission.

Other Commission work regarding preparation for Holy Orders included the decision to recommend that a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent normally be required; the decision to re-write our guide to preparation, the "Holy Orders Manual"; to review the process by which persons ordained in churches not in communion with the Episcopal Church may seek Episcopal ordination; and to encourage local congregations to take a more active role in guiding members seeking ordination in a realistic assessment of the opportunities and requirements.

With regard to support for the clergy in their continuing ministries, the Commission formed a Study Leave Committee to encourage theological study away from the cure, from time to time. Grants are available for study costs. The Commission's Committee on Clergy Compensation produced a simplified guide to determining adequate compensation in local situations. Support was given to adding long-term disability insurance to the present insurance program of the Diocese. A "task force" was formed to respond to the Annual Meeting's resolution that the place of the Diaconate in our common life be reviewed.

Work to shape policy for the future included collaboration with the Standing Committee on a "white paper" regarding policies about the ordination of minority clergy and their deployment, the thrust of which was to encourage and recruit, to "select in" rather than "select out". Other emerging points of view were that the process leading toward ordination might be communicated more clearly and that the rich variety of candidates for ordination suggests a varied, creative response beyond our existing procedures.

ON MINISTRY WITH THE DISABLED

In February, 1985, the Commission on Ministry's year-old Task Force on Ministry with the Handicapped became the Commission on Ministry to the Disabled, by action of Diocesan Council.

Many of the group's 21 members are disabled - blind, deaf, physically impaired or mentally/emotionally retarded - and others work with the disabled. The goal these capable, enthusiastic people share is to work for the fullest possible participation of disabled persons in the Church and society. The group pursues this goal through activities which

- a) educate the Church about the existence, needs and abilities of disabled people;
- b) encourage the Church to practice affirmative action with the disabled; and
- c) promote the well-being of the disabled in our communities.

In 1985, these activities include

- 1) making a video showing provisions for access to worship which Los Angeles parishes have made for the disabled, including ramps for wheelchairs and interpreters for the deaf. This video is available for use by parish groups.
- 2) writing the script for a second video, "The Able Disabled", which will show disabled people ministering effectively in their parishes and communities.
- 3) educating our members by sending representatives to participate in the National Convention of the Episcopal Task Force on Accessibility and the Episcopal Conference of the Deaf.
- 4) increasing access for disabled persons attending the General Convention by providing packets of information about special opportunities and provisions available around Anaheim, and by assisting in the hiring of interpreters for the deaf.
- 5) hosting national Episcopal "disabled ministry" reps during General Convention.
- 6) publishing a quarterly newsletter, sent to all churches of the Diocese, which provides material to help any parish become more sensitive and accessible to its disabled members.

Commission members are ready to consult with parishes which want to increase their sensitivity and accessibility. No fee! Invite a consultant today.

ON RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION

The Commission on Racism and Discrimination met six times between July 1, 1984 and June 30, 1985. The principal agenda items for the Commission during this past year have been the preparation of the gender discrimination resolution that was passed at the last Diocesan Convention, the solicitation of congregational resolutions conforming to that resolution and the development of practical steps to assure that congregations will, in fact, adhere to the Convention's policy of non-discrimination in the interviewing of and calling of clergy. The next steps for the Commission, which will be reported to this Convention in 1986, address the problems of racism and discrimination that we encounter in the secular world and the appropriate responses of the Church and the individual Christian.

Lamar M. Hill
Chairman

We attach to this report a list of the fifty-four congregations that have complied with the Diocesan Resolution against gender discrimination. It is worth noting that 21 of the congregations listed below included gender discrimination in their original resolutions in 1984 that dealt with racial discrimination. While every care has been taken to assure accuracy, there may be omissions. Should that be the case, please contact the Chairman of the Commission and the record will be corrected.

ON SCHOOLS

During the year July 1, 1984 through June 30, 1985, the Commission on Schools met on three occasions and sponsored three other meetings for constituent groups in the diocesan school family.

The three program meetings were for rectors and heads of schools (January), chaplains and teachers of religion (February), and preschool directors (April). The chaplains and teachers of religion and the preschool directors met again during the spring to continue discussion of mutual concerns. These groups are scheduled to meet in 1985-86 at their own internal direction.

The Commission itself began the year by reviewing with Bishop Rusack the canonical charge to the commission and a history of the commission in the diocese. The Commission reviewed and revised certification procedures for diocesan schools and offered the revision to the National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES) as a model for other dioceses. 15 schools applied for the revised certification during the 1984-85 year. The commission affirmed a dues structure for diocesan schools and approved the use of commission funds for continuing education and professional affiliation, citing a need for member schools to seek continuing education for faculty and to affiliate with leading professional organizations like the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and the California Association of Independent Schools (CAIS). The Commission assisted members schools with local financial or personnel situations as requested by the bishop, rector or head of school. Through affiliation with the California Association of Private School Organizations (CAPSO) the Commission sought to keep member schools informed of entitlement opportunities through the State Department of Education and legislative developments with a current or potential impact on private schools. The Commission participated in discussions with other commissions and program groups of the diocese regarding the budget cycle and the potential impact of regionalization.

Plans for the 1985-86 school year include program meetings for the constituent groups described above; meetings of the Commission itself to continue monitoring the health of diocesan schools; assistance at the NAES booth at the General Convention; attendance at regional meetings of NAEYC and CAIS; visitation by Commission members to diocesan schools; continued representation in CAPSO; assistance to diocesan schools in complying with the audit guidelines of the diocese; and an articulation to member schools of services provided by the Commission. The Commission is anxious that diocesan schools view the Commission as a service organization with a willingness and ability to deliver such services.

The diocesan school family numbers almost 40 schools with a combined enrollment of nearly 7,000 children, ages 3 to 18. These institutions represent an important and valuable segment of our diocesan family.

ON THE UNIVERSITY RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE

We have completed several programs that were begun in previous years, laid the groundwork for activity in the years to come and carried on our usual round of services to the UCLA community.

The Cabinet served UCLA, the nation and the nations attending the 1984 Olympic games as chaplains in the UCLA Olympic village. Their presence augmented by assistants from a variety of religious traditions, make possible a program of ministry which served athletes, coaches, and staff in the Olympic village.

The URC was also instrumental in organizing the Westwood religious community into WICOH - an agency which help visitors with hospitality and much needed services. These activities have made possible an increased level of cooperation between the various religious traditions which we find in Los Angeles.

This new term started with a visit from the Right Reverend Desmond Tutu which began a series of visits, lectures and presentations by a variety of leaders in the fields of theology, ethics and politics. These speakers led the campus community in discussions of the Roman Catholic Bishops pastoral letter on economics; on "Liberation Theology"; of life in the village of Le Chambon, which sheltered refugees from Nazi injustice during the Second World War.

The celebration of Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, an interfaith Seder, and the Baccalaureate Service have provided a regular round of religious services for the UCLA community.

The activation of a student program advisory committee, the purchase of a computer, preparation for a program of Christian-Buddhist dialogue, seem to indicate that the coming year will see the URC continuing to build upon the increased level of programming and activity that it has undertaken in the last few years.

The Deaneries have now by action of the Annual Meeting of the Eighty-ninth Convention been replaced by the Regions (Canon IX, Sec. 9.00 - 9.06). The organization of the Regions took place during the Spring and held initiating meetings during the Summer of 1985. However, some Deaneries as required by old Canon IX have reported to Diocesan Convention on their activities before the formalization of the Regional structure.

DEANERY SIX

Officers elected at the 1983 Plenary to serve in 1984 were: Nancy Richardson (Holy Faith), President; The Reverend John Noble (St. Clement's), Vice President; Edna Kuhns (St. Philip's), Secretary; Dolores Williams (Holy Faith), Treasurer; Yvonne Bingham (St. John's), Representative to Diocesan Council; Merlin Liversidge (St. Mary/St. Francis), Representative to the Program Group on Missions.

In addition to considering reports from our Representative to Diocesan Council and our Representative to the Program Group on Missions, the Deanery Six Council agenda from July to December, 1984, has been confined largely to the discussion of issues related to the future of the Diocesan structure and the Deanery system.

We continued to hold our monthly meetings at different congregations throughout our Deanery and we would like to express our appreciation to the lay and clergy who have generously offered to be our hosts. Also, we are most thankful for those congregations who provided financial support and lay participation to the Deanery during the year. Without this support, we could not have continued to function.

The Deanery Six Plenary Session held at St. John's Episcopal Church on November 17, 1984, elected the following officers to serve in 1985 if needed: Julia Phillips (St. Clement's), President; Muriel Dinwiddie, (Reconciliation), Vice President; Phyllis Bryant (St. Philip's), Secretary; Dolores Williams (Holy Faith), Treasurer. Continuing in their terms of office were: Yvonne Bingham (St. John's), Representative to Diocesan Council; Merlin Liversidge (St. Mary/St. Francis), Representative to the Program Group on Missions.

Since the 1984 Diocesan Convention voted to replace the existing Deanery system with a Regional structure, no meetings have been held.

We are grateful to all those who have devoted time and energy to the Deanery Six Council through the years it has been in existence. Now we anticipate being able to make contributions to the larger region with a wider horizon of service and new opportunities for a creative vision of the future.

DEANERY EIGHT

Churches of the Deanery Eight area have continued to meet monthly for mutual support and sharing ideas and concerns. There has been strong emphasis this year on social outreach through discussion and several special programs and reports. Plans are developing, or in progress, in the areas of providing shelter and feeding the hungry.

Our annual fall festival at St. John's, La Verne, in September, 1984, had a carnival atmosphere with booths, games and a picnic supper -- all great fun and good companionship -- making possible a gift to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief of $430.

A planned workshop on the new hymnal and a choir festival were postponed indefinitely because of the delayed publication of the hymnal.

In February, March Devine, Diocesan Youth Coordinator, presented a program on Summer Youth Projects, which was received with interest and discussion.

Our representatives on Diocesan Council and Program Group on Missions, and the Deanery ECW president have been regular in attendance, giving reports on their respective meetings.

The Churches of Deanery Eight have enjoyed and profited from their association and now look forward to being an active part of the San Gabriel Region.

DEANERY NINE

Deanery Nine meets monthly on the third Tuesday of each month alternating between churches within the Deanery. Guest speakers presented programs each month, beginning with Father Richard O'Shaughnessy who showed slides and spoke of the Mission in Baja, California.

At the February meeting, Father Art Bartlett gave a full report on the Deanery Nine Camp Stevens family weekend which 38 people attended. The theme was "Strengthening Our Faith". Also, during this meeting Temple Roath gave an interesting talk and slide presentation on Camp Stevens and distributed leaflets to take back to our churches.

During the March meeting Marge Devine, Diocesan Youth Coordinator, gave a full program on the funding, aims and work of the Summer Youth Project. She stated that this may end during the Summer of 1985 as 2/3 of the funds are from a VIM grant. Flyers were distributed and a need for volunteers emphasized. Also at the March meeting an 11 minute tape was played to encourage volunteers to serve at General Convention.

At the April meeting Kathy Call, Executive Director of African Enterprises, spoke of her personal experiences in two years service in Uganda and gave a slide presentation of the conditions in the refugee camps. Her biggest encouragement is in the leadership of Bishop Festo.

At the May meeting, Carl Erickson gave an excellent slide presentation of their recent trip to Israel.

The first six months of 1985 have been very frustrating for the representatives who make up Deanery Nine. We have been constantly asked, "With the re-organizing of the Diocese into regions, what's going to happen to the deaneries. When is the cut off date for final deanery meetings?" It is hoped that in the near future we will have an answer to these questions.

As President of Deanery Nine Council this year, I have had ambivalent feelings about the role that Deaneries have played in the Diocesan structure. Deanery Nine has served as a communication facilitator between the Diocese and Parishes and Missions. These has also been a wonderful feeling of fellowship within this Deanery and it is my hope that this will continue.

The Diocesan Resource Center

The Center provides resources to the entire Diocese through a call-in/walk-in service. These resources include: The Charles E. Brown Memorial Library which lends books, publications, reference materials and contains the public archives of the Diocese; The St. Paul Music Library which contains a wide assortment of choral music; and the Audio-Visual Library which lends filmstrips, films, audio tapes, and videotapes for a small fee. A new Videotape catalogue is scheduled for publication in early 1986.

Office of the Urban Missioner

A member of the Bishop's Executive Staff, the present Urban Missioner is the Reverend Canon Morris V. Samuel. In this capacity, Canon Samuel coordinated the Diocesan Olympic Volunteers and Hotline, is the Bishop's liaison to the South Central Organizing Committee, United Neighborhood Organization, Orange County Organizing Committee, the Coalition on Small Parishes, and other civic and community organizations. Canon Samuel is also Canon Pastor to the Cathedral Congregation.

The Cathedral Congregation

The Congregation of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul currently meets in All Souls' Chapel at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. Every Sunday

The resignation of the Reverend Hartshorn Murphy, Rector of St. Philip's, Los Angeles (Bishop's appointment) from the Board and Grants Committee was accepted with regret. Father Murphy's expertise and compassion will be greatly missed by the Corporation. Appointed by the Bishop to complete Father Murphy's term on the board was Mr. John Hutcherson, and on the Grants Committee, Mr. Charles Phipps, both of Christ the Good Shepherd, Los Angeles.

Operations

The Corporation Board met quarterly, in September and December of 1985 and March and June of 1985. The Grants Committee met quarterly in August and November of 1984 and February and May of 1985. The books of the Corporation of the Cathedral are audited each year by the firm of Davidson & McKinley. The audit for the year 1983 has been completed and certified. The audit for 1984 is in process, but not completed or certified.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES OF CONVENTION

THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

After waiting several months for the final report from New York for 1984, we finally received the good news that the Diocese of Los Angeles was NUMBER ONE of all the dioceses of the Episcopal Church.

Los Angeles	$198,386
Virginia	161,141
Pennsylvania	156,881
New York	142,500
Massachusetts	129,500

In addition to the $198,386 given by the congregations, $118,325 was given through Venture In Mission for a diocesan grant total for 1984 of $316,611. The total giving for the National Church was $4,363,000 - more than double for 1983.

This remarkable achievement is something of which we can be justly proud and I want to thank the clergy and people of our diocese for their concern and generosity.

This amazing response was due in part to the media coverage of the tragic conditions resulting from a seven-year drought in Africa where men, women and children were dying daily from disease and starvation. I shall never forget the picture of the Ethiopian mother and child which appeared on the front page of the December issue of the Episcopal News with the caption, "Such a babe in such a place. Can He be the Saviour?"

From all over the diocese came gifts and thrilling stories of people's concern. One small mission received nearly $4,000 though earlier in the year only two persons had contributed to the Fund. Teachers in one of our Church Schools gave $1,000. A large church gave $10,000; another made a one-Sunday appeal in Advent and received over $25,000. A parish in Long Beach placed a bucket in front of the Christmas creche and $800 was given.

At the Diocesan Convention in December the Reverend Canon Samir J. Habiby, D.D., Executive Director of the Fund, told in a very moving way of his recent trip to Africa and the tragic conditions he observed. The offering at the Holy Eucharist in the morning was given to the Presiding Bishop's Fund, and in the evening at the Convention Dinner, a bucket was passed from table to table and filled to overflowing. The use of a bucket originated with an English Bishop who went about his diocese collecting funds for African relief, saying, "Whatever you give is only a drop in the bucket to what is needed."

The question now is, can we maintain the level of giving for last year without the assistance of the media? Something very special was firmly established last year in our diocese by the people's extraordinary response to human need, and we have every reason to believe that their loving concern and generosity will continue. Many churches are designating one Sunday each month as Presiding Bishop's Fund Sunday, and some have responded to the appeal of the Diocesan Hunger Committee by placing a line item of 1% in their budget in fulfillment of our Lord's command "to feed the hungry, clothe the naked. . ."

Not only does the Fund give quick and generous response to disaster situations throughout the world, but this year it has funded domestic programs in our Diocese totalling nearly $88,000. They include St. Anselm's Immigrant and Refugee Community Center, the Central American Refugee Center at Holy Family Church in North Hollywood, the AIDS Project of Los Angeles, and the Development Institute of UCLA African Study Program.

The Presiding Bishop's Fund is the official channel of the Episcopal Church's response to human need through relief, rehabilitation, refugee/migration affairs, and development in various parts of the world. It works through the dioceses of the Episcopal Church and Sister Provinces of the Anglican Church and is a team partner with programs of the World and National Council of Churches.

With your help our diocese can and must continue its level of giving to the Fund in 1985 as it did in 1984.

Heavenly Father, please be our guest may all this food to us be blest and let there be a goodly share on the tables everywhere. Amen.

The Reverend Canon Richard I.S. Parker
Network Representative

ON REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT

People fleeing from Iran have replaced Southeast Asians as the largest group of refugees sponsored by the Diocese of Los Angeles. During the first ten months of the federal fiscal year of 1985, the diocese sponsored 142 Armenian Christians from Iran whose churches and schools have been closed by the Muslim rulers of the country. That compares with the sponsorship of only 106 Southeast Asians in the same period.

In 1982, as the crisis of the boat people from Southeast Asia was becoming less critical, the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief became a separate voluntary agency for refugee resettlement. Prior to that time, most of the congregations that sponsored refugees did so through Church World Service. Since the program was initiated by the Presiding Bishop's Fund, the number of refugees resettled by the diocese has grown.

FFY 1982	65 families	156 individuals
FFY 1983	70 families	174 individuals
FFY 1984	138 families	301 individuals
FFY 1985*	149 families	384 individuals

* includes only the first 10 months of FFY85

In 1982, almost all the refugees sponsored by the Diocese of Los Angeles were from Southeast Asia. In 1985, only 106 of the people sponsored during the first ten months were from Southeast Asia, while 278 came to the Los Angeles area from other parts of the world.

Saint Luke's, Long Beach, deserves special commendation. For each of the past six years, the parish has sponsored at least one refugee family a year. Their current family is from Czechoslovakia. Most of the refugees now arriving in the diocese are sponsored by their relatives, not by churches.

The diocesan refugee resettlement project is housed at the refugee center at Saint Anselm's, Garden Grove. Special thanks to Beryl Nyre of Saint Luke's, Long Beach, who headed up the project from its inception until the summer of 1985 when she resigned to serve as seminarian intern at Saint Anselm's. The new project director is Joye Cawley of Saint Mary's, Laguna Beach. Thanks also go to the members of the Refugee Resettlement Committee who continue to meet regularly to insure that the program goes forward with vigor and sound management.

Reaching out a hand of help and a heart of love to people who can't go home is an important and continuing ministry of the Diocese of Los Angeles. It is good to know that the needs are still being met!

Chairman

THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

(Constitution, Article SIII, Sec. 28 and Canon XXIII)

It is most fitting that we express publicly our deep and grateful appreciation to Edward A. White, Ph.D. who has served the Diocese so ably as Archivist/Historiographer for many years. He has brought to this office a very real ministry using his talents and professional training for a great service to the Diocese. It was with deep regret that he had to give his resignation to the Bishop in the early part of 1985.

The Bishop appointed me to replace Dr. White in this office. Through the generosity of the Bishop, it has been made possible for me to attend a number of workshops for archivist/historiographer functions. We have memberships in the following professional organizations for continuing education: Society of American Archivists; Society of California Archivist; The Historical Society of the Episcopal Church; National Episcopal Historiographer Association.

Since the Spring of 1985 all the material held in the Diocesan Archives have been moved to the Diocesan House and some work has been done with this material. However, a great deal more must be done in a professional manner if we are to meet in an expeditious way the many requests which come to the Office of the Archivist/Historiographer.

In conjunction with the Diocesan Resource Center there is now available for use the following journals and periodicals: The Historical Magazine (Church Historical Society) from 1946 complete; The Witness; The Refugee Report (815); Seminary News (General Seminary); Grapevine (JSAC) from 1969 complete; The Episcopal Women's History Project, complete; Interreligious Newsletter (AJC); The Nashotah Quarterly Review; Info (815); The Seabury Journal; Ministry Development Journal; Journal of Women's Ministry; Mandate (PBS); Face to Face Interreligious Bulletin; Heartlines (Episcopal Home); The Conference Call (S.D. County Ecumenical Conference); Interfaith Reporter (San Fernando Valley Interfaith Council); Trinity News (Trinity Parish, N.Y.C.); The Evangelical and Catholic Newsletter; The Evangelical Catholic; Unity Trends; Ecumenical Trends; The Link (Americans for Middle East Understanding); Into the World (815); Jubilee (815); Middle East International; The Christian Challenge from September 1967; Ecumenical Bulletin (815) complete from number one.

There is a need for the Archives for copies of The Episcopal Church Directory (formerly Stowe's Clerical Directory); The Episcopal Church Annual (formerly The Living Church Annual); Diocesan Journals before the year 1930; a copy of the 1980 edition of The Episcopal Lay Leadership Directory and back issues of the Annual Theological Review and a subscription to this Journal to keep the archives up to date would provide a very useful resource. Any help with these needs would be gratefully appreciated. You need only to contact my office in Diocesan House (213-482-2040) to make inquiries.

The Reverend Canon Harold G. Hultgren
Archivist/Historiographer

THE BISHOP GOODEN HOME

The Bishop Gooden Home is a non-profit organization dedicated to the recovery of male alcoholics. We offer surroundings designed to make it as comfortable as possible for the men to make the transition from hopelessness to a sober, happy, productive life. The Home provides counseling, both group and individual for our guests and members of the family.

The increased need for our services (as of this date, we have nine on our waiting list) has prompted us to enlarge our facility by one-third. We are currently seeking funds for this major project and to date, have met 50% of our financial goal. A building permit has been granted by the City of Pasadena and we must break ground before October, 1985.

THE BISHOP'S GUILD

In 1984 the Bishop's Guild celebrated "70 Years of Befriending Seminar-ians". The guild was started in 1914 by Bishop Johnson, and for 70 years has been concerned with the spiritual and financial welfare of the seminarians from this Diocese who are studying for Holy Orders. Thank's to the very generous response of the entire Diocese were were able to give Bishop Rusack $16,000.00 for the support of our seminarians. This was accomplished through membership donations, both individual and organizations, the sale of old gold and silver, memorial fund donations, and the sale of tickets and Patron donations to the Bishop's Guild Garden Party.

Our annual benefit is the Bishop's Guild Garden Party held in October. In 1984 it was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Schmidt in Glendale. Congratulations to Betty Rhodes, the Patron Chairman, and Jane McCracken, the Tea Chairman, for a delightful afternoon.

Our meetings in 1984 were held at St. Luke's Parish, La Crescenta; Trinity Parish, Redlands; St. Gabriel's Mission, Monterey Park; St. Paul's Parish, Pomona, and the annual meeting at St. Gregory's Parish, Long Beach. We greatly appreciate the hospitality of each of these churches. Our meetings commence at eleven o'clock with the Eucharist celebrated by Bishop Rusack. Then luncheon followed by a short business meeting, and a speaker. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Through our "Be-Friend a Seminarian" program we have kept in touch with all 33 of our seminarians. We attempt to find individuals or organizations to be a friend to each seminarian. This means sending cards and letters on Birthdays, Christmas, and Easter, and just being a friend during his or her stay in seminary.

The Bishop's Guild arranges the reception following the Diaconate Ordination in June. As Chairman, I have attended the ordinations to the Priesthood and the Diaconate. These ordinations are proof of our help in furthering the ministry of the church.

CAMP STEVENS

In 1979 a new master plan for Camp Stevens was adopted which called for the creation of a conference center to serve the Diocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of San Diego. These plans included the construction of a new conference and lodging facility in the central part of the camp property. This year, construction has finally begun on the long-awaited facility.

When completed, in the spring of 1986, the new building will offer lodging for an additional 48 persons in 8 rooms with adjacent modern restroom and shower facilities. The meeting room upstairs can accommodate over 200 persons or be divided into 3 smaller rooms. It will feature a hardwood floor, fireplaces and a glass and tile solarium entry way. The building will also have a chapel and a small conference/room library.

The building was designed by Dennis Tuttle of Environmental Designs in La Mesa and is being built by Gemini Development of Julian. The total cost of this project will be over $515,000. Funding has been from a variety of sources including $173,000 from Venture in Mission ($25,000 of that from the James Irvine Foundation); $25,000 from the Cathedral Corporation; $3500 from All Saints', Beverly Hills, St. James', La Jolla and the Bishop of San Diego; and a grant of $234,000 from the Endowment Fund of the Church of Our Saviour. The balance of $74,000 is being sought from other grants and individual donations.

Camp Stevens Conference Center is available to Parish, District and Diocesan groups for weekend or mid-week retreats and conferences from September through June. Currently, heated dormitories accommodate 80 persons--the new facility should be open in April. Delicious meals are skillfully prepared and served family-style in the dining room which seats 120. Charges for a weekend of 2 nights and 5 meals are $40/person or, for exclusive use, a base fee of $1500 plus $15/person. Reservations are made directly with the Center's resident Director at 619/765-0028 or P. O. Box 367, Julian, CA 92036.

THE CANTERBURY WESTWOOD FOUNDATION, INC.

The 1984-85 year has been an active one for the Canterbury Westwood Foundation. The areas in which this ministry to the UCLA community has always been active have been continued and the ministry has expanded into new areas of interest and involvement.

The Chaplain continued to carry out Canterbury's regular round of services and celebrations of Christian worship. The community gathers each Sunday evening to worship and join together for fellowship over a simple supper. The Chaplain has also joined with his Protestant colleagues to sponsor an ecumenical eucharist which is held each Monday at Noon.

The student community attended two retreats during the course of the last academic year. One featured opportunities for worship and recreation at Lake Arrowhead, at the second retreat, they joined with Episcopal students representing colleges and universities from all over the diocese to discuss "Contexts for Celebration".

The foundation sponsored "a sporting evening" which included supper and attendance at the UCLA Men's Invitational Gymnastic Tournament. This festive evening raised program funds that are so necessary to continue this ministry.

The Chaplain served the community and his church by acting as coordinator for religious services to the 1984 Olympic villages as well as serving as religious services coordinator in the UCLA Olympic village.

During the past year, the Chaplain has been involved with the students of the UCLA community who have been concerned with the treatment of Central American refugees in this country. This led to setting up CARSO, the Central American Refugee Sanctuary Organization. CARSO was instrumental in having UCLA declare itself a sanctuary as well as committing support to these people who have been forced to flee from their homes.

The Chaplain has also been actively involved with the members of the student body who are trying to find a way to end apartheid in the Republic of South Africa. During the period of their peaceful protest on the UCLA campus, he has acted as moderator during their discussions as well as opening St. Alban's church to them as a place to eat their meals, to talk, pray and relax.

Canterbury Westwood Foundation has been actively involved in planning and negotiating for the service that will consecrate Canon Oliver B. Garver as Suffragan Bishop of this diocese. This service, which will take place on May 25, 1985, involves many members of the Board of Directors who will rejoice to see a fellow board member become a bishop.

These paragraphs highlight some of the activities of what has been a very busy year. It is the hope of the foundation that this work has provided a faithful and visible ministry to this community in which we are called to serve.

The Reverend Giles L. Asbury
Chaplain

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

The Daughters of the King is a national order for laywomen of the Episcopal Church and churches in communion with it, with a rule of prayer, study, service, and evangelism, dedicated to the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the strengthening of the spiritual life of the parish. There are twenty-three chapters in this diocese. Nationally we support two women missionaries in Brazil and give scholarships to women who are studying to become professional layworkers in the Church. A memorial fund assists in special needs of missions in our diocese, and the Daughters in this diocese through our Bishop Gooden Scholarship Fund present two seminarians with $1,000 scholarships each. The recipients this year are Betsy Hooper and Kenneth Hunter.

Our Diocesan Chaplain is the Reverend Mark Shier, St. Andrew's, Fullerton. Our officers elect are: President, Mrs. Bruce Bringgold; First Vice President, Mrs. Charles Moody; Second Vice President, Mrs. Hal V. Ryerson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Richard Elton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. Arnold Gaillard; Treasurer, Mrs. William J. Alfriend.

On September 13, 1984, we held our Fall Assembly at St. Michael and All Angeles, Corona del Mar. Holy Eucharist was celebrated by the Reverend Gene Wallace, Father Shier gave the Homily, and a Litany of Healing was offered. Janice Rusack gave a marvelous talk with slides about the Christian Church in China.

Our annual Lenten retreat at St. Mary's Retreat House in Santa Barbara March 22-24, 1985, was led by Father Shier, who helped us face our concerns for today's serious problems through trust in our Lord.

On April 20, 1985, our Spring Assembly celebrated the Order's 100th Anniversary at St. James', Los Angeles, whose own chapter charter is 73 years old. The Reverend G. Kevin Taylor, St. Mark's, Downey, addressed us on the subject of Prayer.

There was a summer Santa Ana Regional Tea for Daughters and guests, hosted by St. Anne's Chapter at Corona Del Mar.

Daughters are Christian women, trying to implement their confirmation vows to pray, work, and give for the spread of Christ's Kingdom. They are recognizable by the silver Greek Cross worn over their hearts. This cross is inscribed, "With heart, mind and spirit uphold the cross." Our motto is: For His Sake, I am but one, but I am one; I cannot do everything, but I can do something. What I can do, I ought to do. What I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do. Lord, what will you have me to do?

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

The Episcopal Church Women have had an exciting year. We have been involved with the re-organization of the Diocese. As the structure of the Diocesan organization of the ECW was dependent on the Deanery system, new regions will mean great changes for us. Instead of having ten geographical areas, we will now have five. This means that the annual or twice a year Regional meetings will have to cover a larger geographical area. But we hope it will act as a catalyst for change, throw up new leadership, and give us new momentum.

The Annual Meeting was held at St. Michael and All Angels Church, Studio City, and Jenny Ladefoged was installed as the new president. Our then Suffragan Bishop Elect preached, and Bishop Rusack celebrated, and installed the officers. The speaker at the luncheon was Marcia Walz, Triennial Finance Officer, who gave a brilliant address about the National ECW.

The Today's Woman conference was held in October at St. Edmund's, San Marino. As usual, it was on a Saturday, so that working women could attend. The speaker was the Lutheran author of "The Shalom Woman", Dr. Margaret Wold. Six workshops were offered.

The Memorial Fund is a Fund of the ECW which is used for the medical expenses of anybody in need in the Diocese. Each grant is fairly small, around $300 or so, but the checks can be issued within one day. There is no expectation of repayment, although we can always use recycled money. $6,400 was granted from June 1984 - June 1985, and $5563 was received in memorials and interest.

We are always in a state of flux, some branches die, or atrophy, others spring up, and others revive. This year we seem to be on an upswing. Much of this is due to the outgoing President, Jeanette Roche, who has led us for the past three years. We will sadly miss her elegance and love.

Jenny Ladefoged (Mrs. Peter)
President

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES/ST. BARNABAS SENIOR CENTER

The past year might be characterized as one in which the agency took one step backward and several steps forward.

First, the bad news. The City of Los Angeles Housing and Community Development Department withdrew the "block grant" we had received for the purchase of land on which to construct a new senior center. Fortunately, the agency possessed sufficient financial resources to "buy out" the City's interest in the property, so we now have clear title to the property and are released from any obligation to the City.

Service delivery continues to increase in both volume and variety. We delivered 199,242 social services to 19,319 unduplicated clients in 1984-85. In line with the agency's dedication to those most in need, the USC/St. Barnabas Alzheimer Disease Diagnosis and Treatment Center was established at the agency during the past year. A companion proposal for an Alzheimer Disease Day Care Resource Center has been submitted. To enhance and enable even greater service delivery, some components of agency operations have already been computerized, and that process will be completed in the coming year. The Board of Directors agreed in principle to co-sponsor HUD 202 housing projects and has, in fact, co-sponsored one such project.

Our preliminary attempts at capital fundraising have indicated that the agency needs to strengthen its potential for a successful capital fund campaign. To that end, together with consultants from the Executive Service Corps, the Board is currently embarked upon a process of board development, long range planning, and public relations.

The agency no longer acts as fiscal agent for the Department of Recreation and Parks nor the St. Vincent Senior Nutrition Program. Despite the "loss" of those employees, additional staff persons have been added, and we enter the current year with a total of 22 employees and an operating budget of $3.6 million.

THE EPISCOPAL HOME

The Episcopal Home continues to serve the elderly at its facilities in Alhambra and Rancho Palos Verdes. Over fourhundred and twenty five persons ranging in age from 62 to 102 are receiving care in the two retirement facilities and their associated nursing units.

During the past year the Home was successful in issuing bonds through the California Health Facilities Authority to refinance the debt incurred in building the Canterbury at Rancho Palos Verdes. The issue has provided increased financial stability for the corporation.

At the present time the Alhambra facility is completing the remodelling program that provides additional space, kitchen units, full bathrooms and patios for the residential rooms. An enlargement of the larger intermediate care nursing unit has been authorized and should begin after the first of the year.

Energy conservation continues to be a priority for the Home. A computerized management system has been installed at the Alhambra facility and is now operative. The solar installation completed last year has produced a savings of $2,000 a year.

A new cogeneration unit is under construction which should reduce energy costs by over $100,000 per year.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

The Girls' Friendly Society presents to the Church a program that permits our girls to grow and mature in the household of faith. Our symbol program, graded to meet the spiritual and educational needs of growing girls is a model that is beginning to be accepted in other parts of the country. We would hope that the clergy and the lay people of the various congregations in our Diocese would study the symbol program and see it as a resource to nurture our new generation of young children. We have an active outreach program, and we are eager to be invited to tell the "G.F.S. Story" anywhere!

We continue to be active! The Rally Day and Leadership Training, our "Not So Quiet Day" in Lent, the Annual Meeting, and the Anniversary Service are special events that highlight our Diocesan Program each year and bring us together for fun, learning, worship, and fellowship. The G.F.S. camping program, held at Camp Stevens during the first week of August this year was built around the "Rainbow Symbol" that teaches the girls about God's promise of love. The camp was an exciting growth experience for over 90 girls.

This next year we look toward the National Assembly, which will be held in July of 1986 at New London College in New London, Connecticut.

We are in the process of selecting a youth delegate to this meeting, who in turn might become a candidate to attend the World Council Meeting to be held in Wales in 1987. So, G.F.S. might seem to just be a program of girls meeting in the local parish hall, but in reality it is a "friendship circle" that joins girls and women in every part of the world.

HILLSIDES HOME FOR CHILDREN

Hillsides Home for Children continues to provide service to battered and abused children of Southern California. This past year we served 93 children and their families, which represents service to 372 individuals. This population of children would indicate that the type of abuse that they have experienced is of a greater severity and duration than in the past. I have been struck with the increase in the number of children that we serve who have been victims of repeated sexual assault. Currently 60% of our children (4-12 years of age) have experienced sexual assault. Even with the increase in the severity of the problems, I am encouraged about the changes I witness in these children's lives, the change in their attitudes, the joy in their faces, and the renewed trust in the adults around them. These changes are all part of God's miracle. I rejoice in their joy daily and I would encourage members of the diocese to drop by to witness this for themselves.

As many of you may be aware, the Church of the Angels is next door to the Home. The Vicar, Father Robert Gaestel, has been very active in the life of the Home. His weekly involvement has brought a new depth of Christian involvement to the children and staff of the Home. I am particularly grateful for his presence and support in the traumatic events that occurred this past year to staff and children. These events affect the family of Hillsides so that his ministry to the Home has been appreciated, not only in its help to the individuals involved, but to the entire Hillsides family. We are looking forward to an increased growth of our mutual mission.

This past year included the birth of a pilot program "Families Together", which I am happy to announce the Cathedral Foundation of the Los Angeles Diocese has helped to fund with a grant of $20,000. This program is designed to give crisis help to families on a 24 hour basis and to prevent the continuation of destructive and abusive practices in the lives of the families. We recognize that most parents want to do the best for their children and are helpless in stopping some of their destructive practices. Many times these parents were the children of abusive parents and need to learn new parenting skills. We are pioneering a project to intervene in this cycle of abuse. Our initial pilot had one third of its referrals from the surrounding Churches. One of the strengths of this program is its ability to be placed in regions throughout the Diocese. This grant from the Diocese will go a long way to help establish this program.

Our school for severely emotionally disturbed children has grown this past year. We started our third year of the school and began to gain recognition from outside resources. Originally set up to help the children living in the Home, the school has expanded by 25% to include day children commuting from their own homes. We are particularly gratified with the success of the school in helping our children and this addition of community children reaffirms our belief. Again, we invite you to visit us and see what we are doing in our school.

1984 was also the first full year of use for our recreational center. This building provides a place for our children to play, create, discover their real potential and most of all, to give them the freedom to be children again. We are blessed to have such a facility. We have only scratched the surface of its uses.

We are sending 18 children to Camp Stevens this year. This camp has been and continues to be the finest facility for camping available to our children. The love and affection that the staff show our troubled children helps them to recognize God's love and affirms a faith in them. The Episcopal community is to be congratulated for supporting such an outstanding Christian camping program. Again, we have been blessed.

As you can tell, this past year has been a vitalistic one for the life of the Home. We are entering the new year with renewed energy and a commitment to spread the word of the work of the Home throughout Southern California. We need your help in achieving this goal. Bless you all for your thoughts and prayers.

John M. Hitchcock
Executive Director

THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

PATIENT SERVICES

Emergency Department: On April 30, 1985, the Hospital opened an Emergency Department. The new Department is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week by physicians and registered nurses specializing in emergency care. Minor injuries and illnesses will continue to be treated in the Ambulatory Care Center which is incorporated in the Emergency Department.

Outpatient Surgery Center: A new era in health care began with the opening of the first hospital-based free-standing outpatient surgical center in the Los Angeles area. A gala Dedication Ceremony was held on May 31, 1984. In response to improving technology and third party insurers, the Center offers both low cost and convenience for surgical procedures that do not require over-night hospitalization. The University of Southern California In-Vitro Fertilization Program is also housed in the Outpatient Surgery Center.

Laser Center: The Center for Laser Surgery was established in May, 1984. The laser technology is developing and expanding, and the establishment of this Center will allow the Hospital to take a leadership position in this exciting and expanding field.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Good Samaritan Participation as an Official Hospital of the 1984 Olympic Games: In keeping with the spirit of Flag Day on June 14, the very special Olympic Flag was also raised in front of the Hospital. A day-long celebration was held marking the official beginning of our designation as an Official Hospital. During the Olympic period, the Ambulatory Care Center was available 24-hours per day, 7-days a week to offer services for athletes, visitors or members of the press.

Olympic Torch Relay: Two employees were chosen to represent the Hospital in the Torch Relay. Several hundred employees participated in the Olympic Torch Relay Qualifying Competition.

Health For Life Exhibit: A permanent health care exhibit, developed by the Hospital Council of Southern California and sponsored by the Hospital and other area hospitals, opened in July at the California Museum of Science & Industry. The fully automated exhibit will bring a message of health and wellness to an estimated five million visitors each year.

Weight Loss Program: The Hospital entered into an agreement to offer a medically supervised weight loss program, "Weight to Live", developed by George Bray, M.D., a University of Southern California researcher in the field of obesity. The program combines dietary guidance, behavior modification and exercise to help change life-long poor eating and exercise habits to achieve permanent weight loss and improved health.

American College of Surgeons Approval of Cancer Program: The American College of Surgeons awarded the Hospital with a three year approval of the Cancer Program.

MISSION CRAFTS SHOP

During the past year, Mission Crafts has continued to sell its beautiful items at a wide variety of meetings throughout the Diocese. We were thankful to be able to give Bishop Rusack the sum of $4,000 for his seminarian fund.

Regretfully, we were forced to come to the conclusion that our sources of merchandise from the mission field were almost exhausted. Since our purpose has always been to provide a market for self help groups and these were ceasing to exist, we are gradually going out of business. We will continue to sell our inventory at future meetings and look forward to presenting our Bishop a large check when we close our books.

We greatly appreciate the patronage of all our friends throughout the Diocese.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD YOUTH ASSOCIATION, INC.

During 1984, NYA provided services to approximately 2,200 young people and their families in the West Area (Venice, Mar Vista, Culver City, Santa Monica, West Los Angeles) and in the Harbor Area (Carson, Wilmington, San Pedro, Torrance, Lomita).

Lots of new and exciting things are happening at NYA these days:

In the West Area, new additions to NYA include:

The Children's Clubhouse in Venice Located on Pacific and Brooks, the Children's Clubhouse is open five days a week providing day care and afterschool care for latchkey children from the Venice area. Staffed by a Child Development director and three NYA older youth, the program includes living and learning corners where children can read, do arts and crafts, play "dress up", play house and learn simple cooking activities. Future plans call for developing a mother's support group and developing services for parents. This program was made possible by a grant from the W.M. Keck Foundation with additional support from Las Doradas.

The Neighborhood Framery

NYA's newest venture is our first step into the business world. We've been funded by the Mattel Foundation to start up a custom picture framing business at our Mar Vista facility. The business will provide on-the-job training in famery and are gallery work for NYA's youth, as well as generate monies to be used in NYA's programs. NYA youth involved in the business will be exposed to art museums, art galleries, trade shows, supply houses, other framing businesses and art shows. It is hoped that NYA will generate custom framing work from agency supporters, as well as do work for restaurants, offices, and other businesses.

Special Summer Day Camp

A five-day a week summer program staffed by NYA youth as day camp counselors will provide a wide array of activities (arts and crafts, sports, swimming, weekly bus trips) to 45 children from the Venice-Mar Vista area. A special feature of the program will be a science lab in which the day campers will explore sea life, start an aquarium, and ant farm; learn to use microscopes, and learn astrology. Free lunches and T-shirts will be provided to all camp participants.

In the Harbor Area, new plans include:

The Harbor Area Reorganization

Because of space costs, NYA has moved its Carson staff into the Wilmington facility. The Wilmington offices are being renovated and getting a face lift. A key part of the organizational change is the development of the Harbor Area Program Board which will be comprised of residents from the local community as well as Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, etc. The Program Board will work with staff to asses community needs and assist in program development. We plan to expand our services in the area including working with younger children at risk. We will be expanding our computer tutorial program and also be providing job training and placement services.

Special Summer Program

The Harbor Area staff has planned a special summer program for NYA youth which will include various recreational and educational activities. Arts and crafts, athletic tournaments and trips are also a part of the summer plans intended to keep things "cool" during the hot summer. New staff just coming aboard bring with them an array of recreational as well as counseling skills which will be put to good use this summer.

And the good news for both areas: We've received two Sunshine Coaches from the Variety Club -- One to be used in each area. The coaches arrived just in time for our summer program.

As you can see, we've accomplished a lot in the last few months. Our Mar Vista facility will be fully utilized this summer with all our new activities and we'll be hosting an open house by summer's end for the Harbor Area's new look.

Come visit us at our facilities in Venice, Mar Vista and Wilmington. And if you should be in need of custom picture framing, come see us in Mar Vista. Your business will contribute to a good cause.

THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF LOS ANGELES

In its 104 years of providing care for the world seafarers in the port cities of Los Angeles and Long Beach the following activities and programs are reported.

Community life centers around St. Nicholas Chapel where 125 Holy Communion services were celebrated, 110 evening services conducted along with 4 baptisms, 22 burials and 7 weddings.

On July 8, 1984 the Seamen's Church Institute was honored by a visit from Princess Anne, President of the Anglican Church's Mission to Seafarers. It proved to be an outstanding day at the Seamen's Church Institute.

The International Channel Swim teams from United States, Great Britain, Egypt and Czechoslovakia were the guests of the Seamen's Church Institute at a reception honoring the teams after completion of the 26 mile Catalina swim on August 15, 1984.

Through the cooperation of the local National Maritime Union the International Federation of Seafarers Trust purchased a new 15 passenger van to assist SCI in transporting seafarers in the Port of Los Angeles. The United Thank Offering made a grant of $15,000 to SCI to develop SHIP -- Shared Hospitality in the Pacific -- for the employment of a ship's visitor.

Plans were started during the year to develop a Communications Center at the new Cruise Terminal in the Port of Los Angeles. The new Center will accommodate the crews of the seven cruise lines using the Port and will include overseas telephone service, gear storage, lounge area, library and writing facilities.

During the year Father Arthur Bartlett, executive director of the Seamen's Church Institute, was named Citizen of the Year by the Lions Clubs of San Pedro; was elected Honorary Mayor of San Pedro, which contest raised more funds for charity than any previous campaign; and SCI was given a special award by the American Youth Hostels, Los Angeles Council for the assistance SCI has given AYH.

On June 22, 1985 SCI held its first Board Retreat, an all day session at Marymount College, to review all the existing programs of the Institute and to make plans for the coming year on its total programs both existing and new. The Board was pleased with the results of the first Retreat and plans for a second are under way.

We are grateful for the continued financial support of our many friends throughout the Diocese.

The Seamen's Center Guild through its activities, especially the Thrift Shop, has funded many projects and activities as it continues to attract more volunteer members and involves itself with the maritime community.

My personal thanks to the many volunteers, especially the Board of Directors, who give both time and money to the on-going work of the Institute and especially to Bishop Rusack who is the Episcopal Advisor to the Missions to Seamen in North America and the Caribbean.

The Reverend Arthur Bartlett
Executive Director/Port Chaplain

CAMPBELL HALL (EPISCOPAL)

The images of new construction -- large earth-moving vehicles, masons, carpenters, gigantic cranes moving massive beams into place, traffic, and the inquisitive expressions of students, parents, and faculty as we shared in the beginnings of a much anticipated construction program -- are the images which provide the most vivid recollections of the 1984-85 academic year at Campbell Hall. This year has been one of the most invigorating academic seasons of all the years I have enjoyed at Campbell Hall. The exhilaration which comes with the launching of a new program -- the expansion of our high school to co-education and, now, the excitement which comes with the construction of new facilities to support that program -- permeates the campus with a positive spirit. At the end of the school year, I am encouraged by the energy expended during this year and the accomplishments achieved in a wide range of school issues.

The public ceremony which characterized the spirit of the year most aptly was ground breaking, March 7, 1985, for the new gymnasium/theatre/classroom learning center. Flexibility was the dominant theme that day, when at the last minute, a heavy downpour moved 900 students, faculty, and guests into the old gym for the first "indoor" ground breaking ceremony. In the indoor ceremony, Bishop Rusack; Thomas Von Der Ahe, Building Chairman; Ruth Kirinda, high school student body president; Megan McCord, junior high student body president; and I turned the first symbolic spades of earth by moving soil from one metal wash tub to another with a gold shovel. Students and guests cheered spontaneously as we officially launched 25,000 square feet of new building, a re-developed track and field, an additional parking lot for 150 cars, and an expansion to the administration building.

To support this $2.6 million expansion, our Board of Directors and development office staff and faithful volunteers have spent countless hours in the school's behalf. At the end of our second year of capital fund-raising, I'm pleased to report we are "on target" in meeting established goals. The remaining 2 years of the Campaign for Campbell Hall will continue to be intense as we endeavor to complete the project. The campaign goal of $2.60 million is a very ambitious one for a school like Campbell Hall; however, I'm optimistic that the generous donations from parents, foundations, board members, alumni, and friends of the school will continue to support this institution in meeting the greatest financial challenge of its history.

The highlight of the year for the faculty was the biennial faculty retreat held at La Casa de Maria Retreat Center in Santa Barbara. Our speaker was Dr. Barbara Jones, Executive Director of the Council for Religion in Independent Schools. The theme was an in depth discussion of the school's climate with specific attention directed to the Campbell Hall moral climate. Dr. Jones, a dynamic speaker and retreat leader, inspired our gathering to go farther in exploring our role as moral educators as well as academicians. A continuing faculty committee was spawned during the two day retreat, and Campbell Hall is indebted to its faculty member Nancy Frank, Chairman and the Committee for an excellent follow-up report and recommendations for further study. The school "Climate Committee" has become a permanent force in our midst. Nancy Frank, and Louise Macatee, Campbell Hall's Director of Religious Education, are spending two weeks in July attending Harvard University on a special study grant. The two-week intensive seminar entitled "The Institute on School Climate and Governance," is being taught by the top moral educators in the country. For the next academic year (1985-86) our theme will again be school climate, and we have invited Barbara Jones to return to Campbell Hall to lead us in a follow-up study in December, 1985.

The moral climate study was only one of several professional studies conducted on campus this year by outside consultants to review several pertinent aspects of school life. The major issues we addressed this year included Admissions; administrative computer needs and a plan to coordinate various information needs of the campus into a computer system; the role of the business office and the appropriate staff needed to expand and support this function; and a thorough review of our outdoor and environmental education programs to include the addition of grades 7 (Cedar Lake) and 9 (Joshua Tree) to the programs already offered in 8 (Catalina Island Marine Institute) and 10 (Yosemite Institute).

A major thrust initiated this spring was the preliminary committee work to gather the information for next year's kindergarten through high school accreditation self-study. Every six years, the school spends an intensive period of time reviewing and studying every aspect of school life, the end result of which is a comprehensive self-study document which is submitted to a team of outside evaluators from California Association of Independent Schools and Western Association of Schools and Colleges, who read and study the report and visit campus for four days to observe, verify, and evaluate the school's program and operation. The most important result of the self-study process is the school community's self-analysis of the pertinent issues for further growth and study for the next six years. Substantial benefits to the on-going strength of Campbell Hall have been derived from previous accreditation experiences, and I look forward to next year's work, report, and visit by CAIS and WASC.

The end of Co-ed year II for our high school's expansion brought another period of continuing growth for the school. Our male enrollment moves steadily upward. The election of the first male student body president at Campbell Hall High School was an historic one this spring. At the summer orientation meeting for next year's student leaders which I attended, I was pleased to observe a particularly thoughtful and loyal group of young people. The decision to expand our high school to include coeducation has been a very positive one for Campbell Hall. I look forward to congratulating next year's first senior co-ed class in June.

Close to Founder's Day in 1985, Campbell Hall's founding Principal, Mildred E. Hawks, died on January 24, 1985. Her wish was to have a simple service in the building dedicated in her honor at her retirement in June, 1973. On February 2, 1985, the family, friends, former students, and colleagues of one of Campbell Hall's great spirits, filled the Mildred E. Hawks Building on campus to celebrate her invaluable contributions to the life of the school and to offer our prayers of Thanksgiving for a life of service. Her nephew, the Reverend Rand Reasoner, and I officiated at the service which for all of us was one of vivid memories of a wonderful lady who cared infinitely for a community of students and faculty she helped nurture from its beginnings in 1944 with the Reverend Dr. Alexander K. Campbell, the founder of Campbell Hall. We shall miss the presence of this elder statesman of Campbell Hall.

In reflection, we have much for which to be thankful this past school year which was a period of exciting accomplishment for Campbell Hall. Looking ahead to 1985-86, all of us at Campbell Hall are eager to dedicate the gymnasium/performing arts/classroom complex. It will stand as a symbol of the school community's collective efforts to support a sound educational experience for generations to come.

All of the accomplishments of the past year would not have been possible without dedicated Board and parent leadership. To those often unrecognized members of the Board of Directors who work tirelessly to support the school, Campbell Hall and the Headmaster offer continuing sincere appreciation. And to our Parent-Teachers Council, and especially to Dr. and Mrs. Frederic Sherman, PTC President and Class Coordinator Chairman, again our hearty thanks and praise for a myriad gifts of service.

I am pleased to report to the Diocese of Los Angeles that Campbell Hall continues to grow while remaining true to our tradition of academic excellence and to the spiritual and moral nurture of the students entrusted to its care.

The Reverend Thomas G. Clarke
Headmaster

THE GOODEN SCHOOL

The Gooden School celebrated its tenth birthday on the 12th of May, 1985. During its short lifetime it has both grown in dimension and reputation. Gooden is taking its place among the member schools of the California Association of Independent Schools and will be seeking the accreditation of that body during the coming year.

The new Jameson Building has been a source of great comfort and efficiency, having provided space for a science room, dramatic presentations, and proper classrooms for all other instruction.

Notable events that highlight the school year are the religious festivals. The entire school serves as a choir, and all have learned the liturgical music for the Eucharist, Evensong, Morning Prayer, the Liturgy of the Palms, and for other occasions. The music includes both the canticles and the hymnody appropriate to the season. Examples of these services are those held on the Eve of All Hallows (evensong), The Passion Liturgy, held just before the Easter recess), weekly Morning Prayer in the School Chapel, The Advent Festival of Lessons and Carols. The last service mentioned was a part of local television programming.

Each year the number of students grows by a few members. The year closed with 65 students; the coming year promises 70. With a loyal, enthusiastic and competent student body, The Gooden School looks forward to an exemplary future.

Headmaster

HARVARD SCHOOL

Harvard had a very successful year in 1984-85. One of the obvious and visible measures of success for a college preparatory school is the record that students achieve in their admissions to college. This year's class is outstanding, even by the standards set by their predecessors.

We have had Visiting Committees for the Science and English Departments. The reports of those Committees and the responses of the Departments have been submitted to the Education Committee. Our visitors were impressed by what they found and they said so forcefully and directly.

Our work with computers continues to develop.

Professor Juday Schwartz, Head of the Education Technology Center at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, came out to spend two days here, review our progress and make some recommendations.

Ellen Mintz, our School Oibrarian, is involved in a collaborative venture with other schools. They are preparing a foundation proposal to gain some support for a joint effort under which neighboring private schools will share information about their book and magazine collections and will participate in the cataloging system based at Ohio State, which has become the national standard.

I have so far commented largely on the academic program because that is the part of the school to which I have given most attention this year. However, the noteworthy academic performance of our senior class should not obscure the very considerable achievements of our athletes. Harvard School now fields 27 upper school teams and 10 lower school teams, so we often have trouble finding space to play. One of the significant events of the year was the opening of Harvard's new athletic field in the Encino Flood Basin (now dubbed by the students "Saracen Stadium"). By the end of the summer all the plans should have been completed and the field will be in full operation as a very considerable addition to our athletic facilities. The outstanding record established by Harvard students in their academic endeavors and on the athletic field have given the School a formidable reputation.

Fifteen years from now Harvard will be one hundred years old. Between now and then there will inevitably be change if the School is to stay abreast of the times. What will remain constant, however, is the commitment of those who serve this place to keep on questioning, reviewing, evaluating and constructing so that Harvard may continue to hold a deserved place of esteem among school.

For your support of our ventures I and my colleagues here remain truly grateful. May you feel that your extensive commitments of time and talent have been rewarded by an institution that is instilling into the next generation of leadership in our society the values and the understanding to which we all aspire.

THE SUMMARY
OF
ANNUAL PAROCHIAL REPORTS

VOLUME II

PART IV

STATISTICS OF PARISHES AND MISSIONS

As is well known, every congregation is required by The Canons of the Episcopal Church (Title I, Canon 5, Sec. 1) to file with the Bishop of the Diocese (in the Diocese of Los Angeles the Secretary of Convention is designated by the Bishop to actually receive them) an Annual Parochial Report by February 1st for the preceding year. In the tables following you will note certain congregations did not file before March 1st, 1985 the date the Secretary of Convention is required by the same Canon to file with the Executive Council and the computer. In all these cases the last year for which a report was filed has been used indicated by (*). The following congregations have filed the 1984 Report since that date: Sunnymead, St. Dunstan's, 4/9/85; Holy Family, North Hollywood, 4/15/85. The balance as of November 12, 1985 have still not been filed.

The Constitution of the Diocese of Los Angeles (Article VI, Sec. 16) provides that "The Lay members (of Convention) shall consist of Delegates chosen in proportion to the number of communicants reported to the Annual Meeting of Convention of the previous year." This means that if the Annual Parochial Report is not filed before the Meeting of Convention zero communicants are reported and the congregation is entitled to only one Lay Delegate the following year. "Each Parish and Mission in union with Convention shall be entitled to at least one Lay Delegate" (Article 1, Sec. 16).

Board of Directors
The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles (the Diocese) at December 31, 1984, and the related statements of revenue collected, expenses paid and change in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note A, the Diocese's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the modified basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

As described in Note B, the financial statements do not include all Episcopal Agencies in the Diocese of Los Angeles.

In our opinion, except that the omission of the financial statements described above result in an incomplete presentation, the financial statements designated above present fairly the assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions of the Diocese at December 31, 1984, and the revenue collected, expenses paid and change in fund balances during the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note A, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles (Diocese) is presented to assist in understanding the financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Diocese, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to a modified basis of cash receipts and disbursements and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements. Accruals are made for interest receivable, pledges receivable, and the Agency fund.

1. Fund accounting

Financial activities are recorded in the individual funds described below, each of which is deemed to be a separate accounting entity. The financial affairs and operations of each fund are accounted for in separate self-balancing accounts which represent the funds' assets, liabilities, fund balance, revenue and expenses.

2. Basis of accounting

All funds are maintained and reported on a modified basis of cash receipts and disbursements. Consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

3. Mission Share fund

Transactions related to revenue primarily from the churches within the Diocese and used to finance the annual programs and budget of the Diocese as approved at the Diocesan Conventions are accounted for in the Mission Share fund.

4. Agency funds

Transactions for which the Diocese maintains a fiduciary responsibility are maintained in the Agency funds.

5. Missionary Expansion Loan fund

Transactions related to resources obtained and used for the purpose of providing financing for various missions and parishes are accounted for in the Missionary Expansion Loan fund.

6. Endowment and Trust funds

Transactions relating to resources obtained through an endowment or trust, and restricted for specific purposes are accounted for in the Endowment and Trust funds.

7. Venture in Mission fund

Transactions relating to resources, obtained through fund raising activities, and restricted for specific purposes are accounted for in the Venture in Mission fund.

8. El Toro Debt Service fund

Transactions related to funds obtained and used for the acquisition of property and construction of facilities in El Toro and payment of interest and principal on related debt are accounted for in the El Toro Debt Service fund.

9. Property fund

Transactions related to the capitalization of disbursements for fixed assets are accounted for in the Property fund.

10. Total (memorandum only) column

The data shown in the total (memorandum only) column is presented for purposes of additional analysis. Such data merely aggregate the columnar statements by fund types and is not intended to present combined financial information in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE B - THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ARE NOT ALL-INCLUSIVE OF ALL
EPISCOPAL AGENCIES IN THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities or fund balances of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Los Angeles (a corporation sole) or various other institutions, parishes, missions and agencies of the Diocese.

NOTE C - DIOCESAN INVESTMENT TRUST

The Diocesan Investment Trust is a portfolio of various securities maintained and controlled by a board of trustees. The Trust is carried at cost. Aggregate market value at December 31, 1984 is $1,137,122.

NOTE D - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are carried at one of the following valuation bases:

Valuation basis	Amount
Cost	$5,619,119
Appraised value	536,261
Nominal	503
	$6,155,883

Methods other than cost have been used to value properties acquired when cost records were not maintained and no provision is made for depreciation or amortization of exhaustible property. These practices represent departures from generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE E - BONDS PAYABLE

The proceeds from the bonds were used to help fund the construction of facilities for St. Margaret of Scotland Mission. They were issued in two classes: capital notes and income notes. Both issues bear interest at 10% per annum. Simple interest on the income notes is paid semiannually. Compound interest on the capital notes will accrue and be paid upon redemption. The due dates of the notes are as follows:

	Income notes	Capital notes	Total

Thirty-fifth Annual Report
of
DIOCESAN INVESTMENT TRUST of the Diocese of Los Angeles

For the Year Ended October 31, 1984

To Our Shareholders:

This report will serve its customary function of reporting on the past fiscal year as well as provide an interim report for the first nine months of the 1985 fiscal year. This makes the report timely and more useful at the Diocesan Convention in December which occurs after the 1985 fiscal year end, but prior to the completion of the Price Waterhouse audit for that year.

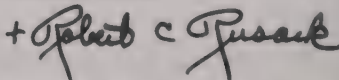

The fiscal year ending October 31, 1984 was characterized by an austere inflation rate, a very strong dollar, which is a mixed blessing for investment markets, and earnings of many companies increasing at somewhat slower rates than the recent past. All this created excellent buying opportunities in the wake of previous years' rather ebullient equity price increases. It also created modest 12 month results for most of the averages, including the DIT. Share values were up a mere 0.7% and the increase in dividends per share was held to 3.68% over the previous year.

Interestingly, the first nine months of the current fiscal year, through July 31, 1985, witnessed a more cohesive stock market and the DIT benefited. During this period the value of each DIT share increased to $67.25, which is an annualized increase of 15.7%. Dividend distributions were up slightly during the same period. Despite some modest decline in the popular averages during the summer, the year to date gains for the markets and the DIT have been strong.

The Trustees remain confident that our able investment managers, Capital Research and Cramblit & Carney, will continue to produce the solid performance they have shown since becoming our advisors. Their proven agility in anticipating and responding to changing market environments is an important component in achieving the three DIT objectives of providing a minimum 7% cash return each year, maximizing capital appreciation opportunities and safety of principal.

As always, we welcome your questions.

Faithfully yours,

Notes to Financial Statements October 31, 1984 and 1983

Note 1 – Summary of significant accounting policies: The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Diocesan Investment Trust of the Diocese of Los Angeles (the Trust) in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Security valuation: Investment securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the year; securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date are valued at the mean between the last reported bid and asked prices. Mutual fund shares are valued at quoted net asset value.

Income taxes: The Trust was incorporated in California in 1949 as an investment trust. Subscription to the Trust is limited to churches and other institutions affiliated with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Southern California area. The Trust is exempt from federal and California income taxes and had no unrelated business income during the years ended October 31, 1984 and 1983. Accordingly, no provision for federal and California income taxes is necessary.

Other: Capital gain dividends paid by mutual funds are recorded as net realized gains on securities sold. Cash tenders for subscriptions to shares and requests for withdrawal and redemption of shares must be received three business days prior to the end of any fiscal quarter and can be made only as of the quarter end. Share prices for tenders and surrenders are based on the quarter end net asset value per share determined on the same basis as in the annual financial statements.

Note 2 – Sale of securities: On February 12, 1980 the Trustees resolved that from that date, two-thirds of the assets of the Trust at such date and two-thirds of future tenders shall be invested in mutual funds managed by Capital Research and Management Company. The remaining one-third would be managed by a separate investment management firm.

Note 3 – Shares of beneficial interest outstanding: The shares of beneficial interest outstanding includes 7,353 shares to be issued for subscriptions received at October 31, 1984, and excludes 4,175 shares surrendered at October 31, 1984.

At the service, the Right Reverend, the Suffragan Bishop of Los Angeles, Oliver B. Garver, Jr., D.D. was the celebrant. The Reverend Robert C. Gregg, Ph.D. was the preacher.

At 3:00 p.m., the Reverend Canon Harold G. Hultgren, Secretary of Convention, called to order the Annual Meeting of the Ninety-first Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles for the transaction of business. He recognized the Chancellor, Canon R. He reported that at 2:45 p.m. on the 5th day of December 1986, he examined the records of registration for this Meeting of Convention and found that 347 lay persons had registered as present, which exceeds the 149 necessary to constitute a quorum, and, that 220 members of the clergy had registered as present, which exceeds the 97 necessary to constitute a quorum. Therefore, he reported, the necessary quorum for the transaction of business was present at this Annual Meeting of the Ninety-first Convention as specified in Canon X, Section 10.00 of the Canons of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles.+ The President declared a quorum was present and called the meeting to order for the transaction of business.

ADJUSTMENT OF MISSION SHARE FUND GUIDELINES FOR INFLATION

WHEREAS, the Mission Share Fund (MSF) parish pledge guidelines provide a schedule of Target levels as a percentage of the Net Disposable Budget and Income (NDBI); and

TO THE ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
NINETY-FIRST CONVENTION
DECEMBER 6, 1986

PATCHES AND WINESKINS

The earthly ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ was a cause of great conflict. For instance, false teachers may try to tame and sanitize the Parables: but you and I know they were sharp weapons, forged for use in hostile debate. As my Seminary New Testament Professor, Charles Smith, put it: "Jesus used parables and Jesus was put to death. These two facts are related and it is necessary to understand the connection." Jesus stirred up controversy as His new and novel teaching contradicted the conventional and traditional wisdom of the Establishment of Israel. If your reading of the New Testament does not lead you to account for the Crucifixion, you have not been grasped by the Gospel teachings.

God is ever doing wonderful and exciting new things. Sometimes His chosen respond and sometimes they nail His messenger to a Cross.

God called Abraham when he was 75 years old. He packed up all his possessions, took with him his wife, Sarah, and did as the Lord told him to do: left his country and his people and his father's household, and traveled to a new and strange and distant land.

Jesus called Peter and Andrew -- "Come, follow me!" And, they immediately left their fishing nets and family and homes, and followed Him.

These are, however, the dramatic exceptions. Over the ages, most did not heed calls from God to join with Him in totally new ventures. He was initiating for new days and generations. Why risk a scary unknown? the status quo was too comfortable and quite sufficiently satisfying.

Sometimes, persons who initially said "Yes" had second thoughts: recall the rumblings of the Israelites in the desert: "If only we had died by the Lord's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you (Moses) have brought us out into the desert to starve this entire assembly to death." (Exodus 16:3) The cost of freedom under God was too great to pay: give us, again, slavery with plenty of food to eat. More trust in Pharaoh than in God.

Things new frighten most of us. The unknown and the unfamiliar are scary. When God calls us into new and radically different days -- His days as Lord of History, we prove to be persons of a weak Faith and a paucity of Trust when we do not enthusiastically embrace the new and boldly stride forward into new times. Our prayer must ever be: not my will, but God's be done.

We Episcopalians of the Diocese of Los Angeles are being called by God into new days. What will be our response? As I thought about this critical challenge confronting us, I recalled our Lord's words to John's disciples, sent to ask Jesus about the rules for fasting: "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment making the tear worse. Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will be ruined. No, the pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved." (Matthew 9:16f)

From this text comes my title for this Address: Patches and Wineskins.

One of the new realities we must learn to live with and accept is that our dear and beloved former Diocesan Bishop, Robert Rusack, rests in the eternal embrace of God, his earthly labors among us as Chief Shepherd finished. He is no longer physically among us. What I sense is that numbers of us have not yet wept sufficiently to wash our minds of the "pretend" that he hasn't died. We continue chained to a vain hope, whose grip enslaves us and prevents our ready welcome of the Lord's new days presently dawning in our midst.

I thought about this as I stood last week aboard the USS Arizona Memorial in Pearl Harbor -- and, openly wept: reliving the memories of events of 45 years ago tomorrow. Have I been grieving for this long -- failing to weep enough to liberate me from the emotional bondage of Pearl Harbor Day?

Indeed: let us weep boldly and openly and fully for all that is tragic and painful and lost in our lives, and then let us move on into new days -- set free, though remembering with an abundance of thanksgiving all of God's blessings lavished upon us in past days. We best honor the Bishop we loved by moving ahead into the new times to which Bob Rusack sought so repeatedly and courageously to lead us when he was among us.

Three recent newspaper articles caught my eye as pertinent to my theme of "Patches and Wineskins":

1. An August 17 Los Angeles Times editorial entitled, "Let's Get Serious." This editorial spoke of the growth and new demographics in California, and concluded: "California has always been the vanguard of progress and promise in the United States, the place where the future could be molded to the people's needs and desires. In recent years, however, the state seems to have lost its enthusiasm for building for the future. California can regain that edge going into the 21st Century, but only if it lays the groundwork now."

I suggest to you that this same judgement and mandate applies to the Church. We must have enthusiasm for building the future, and we must be laying new groundwork today for our assuredly very, very different tomorrows.

2. A November 17 Daily News article on Baby Boomers going to church more --- in significantly increased numbers and with increased regularity: do we accept this as a welcome challenge, or do we see it only as problem and hassle? Their views will be in conflict with those of many of our older members: for example, sufficiently conservative on political and economic issues, but perhaps very liberal on sexual and life-style matters. Also, they bring a commitment to "participatory democracy," a potential for some conflict in churches of a heirarchical polity. Are we ready to embrace these baby boomers?

3. A November 28 Honolulu Advertiser article contrasting the Eastern United States and Lee Iacocca with the Pacific Basin and Soichiro Honda. You and I, warns this article, must learn to listen more and carefully to the voices and leaders of our home region: our future is the Pacific Basin, and our models are not to be found in the East, but by looking South and to the West -- to Mexico and Latin America and Asia and the Pacific Islands.

Patches and Wineskins: laying new groundwork for our tomorrows; openness to new members with new ideas and priorities; and, the nerve to turn ourselves around a full 180 degrees -- our focus no longer on New York but on the Pacific Basin from which cultures and nations the majority of the population of this Diocese come -- the scant majority today -- the large majority by the year 2000.

I believe that we have made a good beginning and are well underway in this Diocese in addressing these urgent matters on many complementary fronts. To the extent that this Address is expected to be on the State of the Diocese, we have an exciting "patches and wineskins" story to tell.

1. MISSION DEVELOPMENT AND EXPANSION is happening all over the place -- five new mission initiatives just this year. Archdeacon Lynberg and the Program Group on Mission Congregations are doing a great job!

But, this task is for all of us: we ought to be growing and expanding in every Region, through varied models -- many of them probably NOT conforming to "the way we have always done it." Regional Councils need ever to be alert to new Mission opportunities in their respective areas.

One limitation which is a serious problem for us is capital funds. At the time of the Bishop's death we were talking about a Capital Funds Drive for MISSIONS ONLY -- land and buildings for new congregations -- a single purpose, tied intimately to Evangelism. We estimated that we could raise $18,000,000 -- an average of $100 per year/per Episcopalian for three years. I believe we could achieve this with very little difficulty as I know the high priority Evangelism and Church Growth enjoy in this Diocese. The idea will be on the top of the pile of initiatives I will be urging on our new Diocesan next year. I know we can do it, and what a rich Harvest we then could reap for the Lord.

2. RENEWAL OF SMALL PARISHES. I have become deeply concerned to learn how many small and struggling Parishes we have in this Diocese-- congregations in which mere survival is the constant challenge: how sad! We have all sorts of resources available for the small Mission. We have precious little to offer to the small Parish. I want to change this! I have asked Mari Koenigs, working together with the entire program staff and in consultation with the leadership of our small Parishes, to take on this portfolio for us.

We are only in the beginning stages of this initiative, but things are going to begin to happen soon -- help is on the way-- believe you me! This is one of my highest priorities. We must and will find new ways to strengthen and to renew our small Parishes.

3. CONTINUED EMPHASIS ON ETHNIC AND MINORITY MINISTRIES. Los Angeles has the largest concentration of American Indians in the country. I have asked the Archdeacon to take responsibility to assure that the Diocese has an active ministry to our Native American neighbors-- and soon! You will be hearing more on this at an early date, I promise you.

You are aware of all our new initiatives in Hispanic Ministries under the leadership of Canon José, working closely with the Archdeacon when a Mission is involved. We are already preparing to participate in the legalization of our un-documented neighbors -- to help our own people and, ecumenically, the larger community, as provided for under the recently enacted Immigration Reform Legislation. Wonderful and exciting things are happening in Hispanic ministry -- in San Fernando, Oxnard, North Hollywood, El Monte, Pico Rivera, Lincoln Heights, Huntington Park, South Gate, Glendale, Santa Ana, ...

We are aware that we have not always taken sufficient initiative in Black ministries in this Diocese. This is going to change! We have asked our existing Black congregations to help us -- and, we have some money set aside -- and, we are at work. We need the prayers and encouragement of all the family of this Diocese as we begin new ventures in the area of Black ministries.

Our new Asian ministries -- Korean, Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, Filipino, South Pacific Islands -- continue to advance in happy and exciting ways. We are moving beyond the "founding" stage, and are now working on internal development, steady growth, and the recruitment and training of lay leaders for local and diocesan positions. We are working to develop a new ministry of outreach to Asian young people -- heirs of the immigrant spirit, but shaped by the American youth culture -- with an emphasis on College campus ministry and Young Adult initiatives; our point guard in this new style ministry is the Reverend Eric Law, our Chaplain at USC. I have been involved in EAST ministries, nationally and locally, for over 10 years, and how wonderful it is to see the fruits of so much labor by so many blossoming and flourishing in our midst.

4. EVANGELISM. As you know from last year's EGGS Address, Evangelism and Church Growth are high on my list of priorities. Remember our Lord's call to St. Andrew, whose Feast Day we celebrated this past week: "'Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and followed Him" (Matt. 4:19f). You and I are called today to be fishers for Christ, reaching out to all those who do not yet know Him as Lord.

In this area of ministry it is especially important for us to evolve new styles and materials: much necessarily in foreign languages and sensitive to different cultures and traditions. We need new and realistic "patches and wineskins," suitable for modern day Evangelism. To assure that we have this priority constantly before us, I have asked Canon Doug Vest, working in collaboration with all program staff persons, to take on an expanded workload respecting the evangelism portfolio.

He has already recruited a team of eight who have received special training at two national Church workshops -- a major time commitment, and you will be hearing soon from these enthusiastic and articulate "fishers" for Christ as they offer to help you in local evangelism initiatives: new models for new days.

5. STEWARDSHIP. As we are all painfully aware, stewardship in the Episcopal Church is nothing to write home about. Congregations, Dioceses, Provinces and the National Church suffer constant financial agonies: much to do, and too little to do it with. Thus was this my other theme, with Evangelism, in last year's EGGS Address: Generosity in Stewardship.

Under the competent, patient, loving and long-suffering leadership of Canon Jerry Kahler, we are making great strides as we try new approaches such as the Alabama Plan and as we work with our Consultant, William Dowe, generously funded for us by a VIM grant.

The contrasting disconcerting news is that for 1987, 28 Mission Share Fund pledges continue BELOW the Entry percentage level -- representing a total $170,700 deficiency. This hurts! 16 parishes, yet under the Target percentage, plan no increases in 1987 over their 1986 pledges. This hurts! This hurt pains especially in the year 1987 when, following the mandate of this Convention $131,000 in added budget dollars have to be allocated to the funding in full of our National Church Apportionment. Finding these new dollars is difficult when Mission Share Fund pledges do not conform to the norms set by this Convention.

We are, however, not discouraged and we are going to make generous stewards out of Episcopalians yet, or know the reason why! It will not be for any lack of risking new initiatives and creating boldly new "patches and wineskins".

6. CLERGY DEPLOYMENT. This is another area cared for by Canon Kahler assisted during peak periods by Elizabeth High and Canon Vest. I think we have a very fine system for vacancy consultations and Rector searches, but with some weaknesses in pastoral attention to grief over the loss of one's former Rector and to the shock over the adjustment required to the style and priorities of one's new Rector. In other words, the process is not perfect.

I have, therefore, asked Canon Kahler to undertake an evaluation of our process -- drawing on the expertise of Clergy Deployment Officers in other dioceses, on national Church resources and on the experiences of Search Committees and Vestries of this Diocese. Given this projected Study, and recognizing the election within less than a year of a new Diocesan -- a key figure in this process, I would very strongly urge this Convention NOT to make any canonical changes this year which would change the system: next year is quite soon enough, and piece-meal tampering is, in any case, rarely wise: let's do a thorough and competent study, and be patient to heed the style of our new Diocesan.

7. LAY LEADERSHIP. When the Pope visited France in early October, he spoke out against any expanded or rediscovered role for lay people. He rejected greater leadership roles for laity, a position I find utterly absurd. I rejoice to welcome increasingly important ministries in the Church for trained and committed Episcopal lay persons -- including, I should note especially: young people and minorities.

Elizabeth High's portfolio is Christian Education and Leadership Training -- the recruitment, training and sending out of lay leaders. She does this very well, which is an enrichment of our Diocesan life and an expansion of our ministry possibilities. I have asked her to give renewed program staff emphasis, with her special focus being Youth and Young Adult ministries: the future lay leaders of the Church. We must give growing support and urgent encouragement to this area of outreach and ministry among our youth and young adults, and I plan to see that we do!

Marge Devine is a worthy and most competent partner in this renewed program staff emphasis, with her special focus being Youth and Young Adult ministries: the future lay leaders of the Church. We must give growing support and urgent encouragement to this area of outreach and ministry among our youth and young adults, and I plan to see that we do!

9. COMMUNICATIONS. Ruth Nicastro, ably assisted by Bob Williams and Bob Hoffman, continues to assure that this Diocese be THE national model for excellence in print and video communications. We can take great pride in the recognition we enjoy throughout the Church because of our communications efforts.

And yet, we need to do more: especially, as Canon Richard I. S. Parker is ever reminding me, in the area of television. So: we don't rest on our laurels, but we press on to ever greater heights of excellence: things ever new for these exciting and challenging new days in this communications capital of the world.

9. MORE OF THE BISHOP'S STAFF. For the past several minutes I have made note of, and have saluted and praised, many of those who serve you and this Diocese as members of the Bishop's Staff. There simply is not time, however, to cover each person as I would wish. Peter Mann and Joon Matsumura manage surely the finest Treasurer's Office in the whole Episcopal Church. Canon Harold Hultgren assures our leadership on all ecumenical and inter-faith fronts, keeps our archives in order and serves this Convention as its Secretary. Randy Kimmeler ably oversees our new venture in developing a Diocesan Resource Center. Mini Hippolito manages our excellent new Cathedral Book Store -- long a dream of Bishop Rusack's and a valuable resource for us all. Merilee Cate, Celia de Simonds, Elizabeth Donohoe, Phyllis Golowka, Bill and Earleen Larson, Becky Merwin and Ruth Finis make up the finest and hardest-working support Staff to be found anywhere.

These persons -- and all the Bishop's Staff -- are in service to the whole diocese -- are your servants and partners in ministry. They are a wonderful and amazing crew of dedicated and sacrificing laborers in the Lord's vineyard. It is right and fitting that we especially honor them this morning for all they have done and continue to do during this difficult in-between period as we all await the calling of our new Boss.

10. DEVELOPMENT OF THE REGIONS. I am very pleased and excited over how our new Regional structure is evolving. I meet regularly with the Regional Presidents, and find these dialogues most helpful and valuable. We are off to an excellent start.

There is, of course, more to do: for example, we need to regionalize more of our program initiatives and to establish regional sections of our Program Groups. This further development of this new structure -- designed for our new days, will receive much Staff attention and my personal attention in the new year. Again: we are designing and creating new "patches and wineskins."

I have made a special effort in recent months to attend as many Regional Clericus meetings as possible, and I am most pleased and encouraged by what I find. I sense a new feeling of family and of partnership, and of mutual care and concern among the clergy of this diocese and that's wonderful!

11. SOCIAL ISSUES. While all the above diocesan program initiatives have been undergoing renewal and, as necessary, redirection, we have not neglected our Christian duty to speak out on the great social issues of these days -- either I personally and/or various of our Program Groups: on Peace and the Arms Race, on Racism, on Sexism, on the AIDS crisis, on Central American concerns and Sanctuary, on Economic Justice issues, on Hunger, Homelessness, ...

I believe the Church must speak out on such issues-- limited, I must stress, to the clear moral and ethical dimensions of the issues. We are not experts on other phases of these issues. I have welcomed the opportunity -- in the Press, on Radio and on Television; before the Los Angeles Unified School Board, before the LA County Board of Supervisors and therefore the LA City Council -- to express my views, and I will continue to speak out as the Spirit gives me utterance.

12. COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENTS. One of the great privileges and pleasure of being a Bishop in the Episcopal Church is the opportunity to serve on various Boards and Committees of broad community interest and participation. You come in contact with many good and decent and wonderful people, not necessarily Church people. The interactions and different viewpoints are mutually enriching. I thank you for permitting me these involvements -- for instance:

a. Co-Chair of the King Week Festival '87, sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

b.Co-Chair, with Archbishop Mahony and Rabbi Freehling, of the AIDS Interfaith Council of Southern California.

c. Vice Chair of the US-Pacific Council, whose purpose is the funding and construction of a major Pacific Basin monument and Cultural Center -- the west coast equivalent of the Statue of Liberty.

d. Member of the Boards of Planned Parenthood/Los Angeles, of AIDS Project/Los Angeles, of Community Youth Gang Services Project, of the National Center for Immigrants' Rights and of the Orange County Organizing Committee.

I rejoice for these opportunities to be a witness for the Episcopal Church in the wider community in your name.

Well: much that is good and exciting and fulfilling and creative and wonderful -- an abundance of new "patches and wineskins" -- is happening. What a joy to be a participant in this rich variety of ministries. The major self-study currently in process leading to a profile describing our new Bishop and a blueprint for us to follow in the years ahead: this study will help us further to define the "patches and wineskins" essential to our future as a Diocese seeking to be faithful to what our Lord is calling us to be and to do. These are thrilling days!

And, I must say: among the greatest thrills is the amount of volunteer and effort put in on behalf of the mission and ministry of this Diocese-- service on Committees, Commissions and Program Groups-- on Boards of Institutions -- in elective offices -- as Diocesan Convention delegates-- in countless and varied ways. The Volunteer Corps of this Diocese is the greatest!

Another thrill at the top of the list is to see, as I travel around the Diocese, the ministries underway -- day by day -- in and through all the congregations which make up our Diocesan family. These ministries are the greater part by far of the total ministry of this family. The local ministries of the Diocese are, also, the greatest!

These are, as I said, exciting and thrilling times to serve this Diocesan family as Suffragan Bishop.

As I say this, however, I must also tell you that there are hours and days which are depressing and quite troubling. I can become discouraged and very tired. In these moments, I remind myself that the Bishop is chosen to be Servant and not Master -- that he is called to serve and not to be served; and, that servants have bad days -- that it is their lot-- that "suffering" is an appropriate Biblical adjective for a servant; and, that the sun will assuredly rise tomorrow on a new day, with lots of exciting new "patches and wineskins" to brighten the hours.

A book by my Seminary Theology Professor, Bill Wolf, is entitled No Cross, No Crown. If we are to persevere and prevail in service to the Lord and to all of His people, we must be willing to suffer and to sacrifice. In sending out the Twelve, Jesus said to them: "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life must lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will save it."

(Luke 9:23f)

So: we accept the harsh and the difficult as a small price to pay for all the joy and delight and privilege of serving as your Suffragan Bishop in these exciting days of new challenges and opportunities -- "patches and wineskins" and all!

Now: to conclude this already overly long Suffragan Bishop's address.

What I sense we too often do is forget that we are a Church -- the Body of Christ, sent into the world to accomplish His Will through the several ministries of each unique member of the Body. We are a Church, called to faithfulness and trust and obedience and witness and integrity and servanthood. We are not just another organization: we are a holy household, a sacred community, a Spirit-filled family.

We are not free to pursue our personal interests or private preferences. Our duty is to do God's Will -- His Will to be done, by us, here on earth.

A recent article in the United Methodist Reporter noted research showing that "loving" churches are growing churches. The secret to church growth is a congregation's ability to love. In the research, Assemblies of God churches did the best in loving; Presbyterians and Methodists were not as loving.

The article didn't report how the Episcopal Church rated, but that doesn't matter as the point clearly applies to us: if we truly love God, we must love our neighbors, also: and, this quality and intensity of Love is our best witness for success in Evangelism -- in our effectiveness in being fishers for Christ.

I call us to be truly a Church and abundantly to love one another. Thus is our future secure as we will have placed all in God's hands, permitting Him to use us for His purposes. In His service is perfect Freedom, and abundance of Joy. Alleluia!

THE SERMON GIVEN BY THE REVEREND DR. ROBERT C. GREGG
at the
COVENTION EUCHARIST
of the
ANNUAL MEETING
of the

Feast of St. Clement of Alexandria, December 5th, 1986

On the streets of his seaside city you could hear a dozen languages, witness every variety of business transaction (licit and otherwise), glimpse the current stars of stadium and stage, overhear the conversations of students and their mentors, and find any form of entertainment (licit or otherwise) you sought. For this Christian priest, St. Clement of Alexandria, it was impossible to live in Alexandria and to avoid sharp and militant exchanges of religious opinion. The pagan majority called upon Zeus and the time-honored deities for protection against national enemies--those beyond the borders, barbarians, and the trouble-makers within, especially Christians--that irritant group of avid, yokel, unpatriotic followers of Jesus.

Among the Christians themselves there were rifts and disagreements. And the priest found himself jammed from both sides; the self-named "spirituals" claimed a knowledge and experience of the Lord unique to their group, an elevated grasp of the gospel's meaning, while the bulk of the new believers in Jesus demanded their salvation without complications, told in scriptures that mean exactly and literally what they say. If you've ever been in a situation in which Christians periodically rise to pronounce firmly what the gospel is, and what the creed and behavior of every believer must be--and felt yourself profoundly uneasy--you can imagine being in that priest's place in that 3rd century Egyptian metropolis.

Right. Today is the feast of St. Clement, and you're saddled with a preacher who spends most of his time studying Christianity in antiquity. Clement will not be ignored on this his day. Not a chance. How good are the chances that I will convince you, in these few minutes at the beginning of your convention, that the Diocese of Los Angeles can--probably should--call upon this ancient priest and teacher, in order to sharpen the unique identity and mission of Episcopalian Christians? Humor me... give Clement some room at this conclave.

Of Clement's life we know almost nothing. Apparently he was a convert; certainly he was a Christian teacher in Alexandria, from which he seems to have fled in 203, when the church there was persecuted. We know him from his writings. They reveal that during his career as pastor-teacher, he handled some perennial and difficult questions--things familiar, in some form, to everyone in this room. Did Jesus really mean it about the camel and the needle's eye? Some prosperous members of his community asked whether the wealthy could be saved--and he wrote an answer in the form of two more questions: do your riches own you--more than your God? have you opened your hand to those in want, without asking whether they are worthy or unworthy? Lopsided wealth and the crises of the needy occupied Clement the priest, and compelled his response: Commit yourselves to your Lord and to your neighbor, not abstractly like the spirituals, the gnostics, but actually, materially. Imitate the God you pray to, the one who did not enter your life in the abstract, but in reality. Imitate the incarnate one who loved you without asking about your worthiness.

Another issue troubled Clement's Church. What was to be done with those who had joined the body of Christ, renouncing Satan and his works--if they later committed a grievous sin--denial of Christ during persecution, or adultery, or murder? Were such people to be separated forever from the church and its saving eucharist, or could there be a second repentance, then discipline, and reconciliation at the end? The priest recalled a story about a young believer turned local terrorist, a thief and killer.² The apostle John had once known him, and set out in the hills to confront and reclaim him. When they met, the thief was on the verge of putting the blade to John, but recognized him, and collapsed in tears. Clement's point and resolution? The mercy of God outruns the rules and calculations of people and their institutions.

A review of a novel I saw last week referred to "the vaunted elastic of the Episcopal Church",³ and I wondered what that might mean beyond our reputation for loving the via media. Critics of the Anglican and Episcopal tradition believe we love the middle way precisely because it permits us always to take graceful, elegant stands--nowhere in particular. Are indecision and indefinite viewpoint the distinctive marks of our small but noble band? It may look that way when we are compared with other groups, especially some of our sisters and brothers in the Lord, whose dogmas await no further revelation, and whose moral codes do not blink in the face of dilemmas you and I could never have foreseen.

Are we, of all denominations, the softest, the most wimpish, in belief and behavior? I beg to differ. If the reasoned tolerance, the compassion so central to Clement's Christianity is central to the Gospel of Jesus Christ--a treasure to be nourished by a church that knows its saints--we have something quite specific to say: a definite kind of courage is required of faithful people. Or, faith is the courage of tolerance and compassion in an age when the hawks and vultures are circling. The courage of faithful people is distinct and it is different--different from the religious dynamic of those who lust after certitude--and are not above threatening you with it.

In an authority-craving society, to be restrained in what we say on God's authority is not to be indefinite--it is to honor the Holy One, and to avoid idolatry, to resist becoming God's voice, and then God's bully, and finally, abettors of religious bigotry. All the energy and courage we have been given is needed simply to tend those who need tending, and to own our character as a pilgrim, unfinished people--people trusting in a God we do not yet fully know. What we do know, we have learned by being, ourselves, tended.

Why celebrate the life and mind of Clement of Alexandria? Because there cannot be found in him the pinched face, the tense jaw, and the forced happy countenance and mood of the terminally religious--the believer whose disappointment seems to be caused only partly by the fact that we have not gotten right with God; more exasperating is the fact that God has not yet compelled us.

It may be true, as today's collect says, that Clement was converted "from the terrors of ancient philosophy". But I am grateful that when he came to the Christian faith, Clement brought with him an idea and ideal dear to the Greek world. He believed that a person fully alive possessed *megalopsychia*⁴--greatness of soul, flexibility of mind, liberality. He knew that unless large-souled, a person gives way to the instinct to condemn, to distrust the world's goodness, to invoke morality as a strategy for fencing off the downtrodden. Is greatness of soul the legacy of St. Clement to our church? Could our "elastic" consist precisely in that courage not to contract, not to shrink from those needy in whom we meet the one who gives us our life? Would it not be a genuine gift to a frightened world, and to an apprehensive Christendom, if we embodied that confidence that knows, first the ministry of mercy, and also knows when believers cannot speak with certitude, except to pass the peace of God, and to recite the mystery of faith?

I think it is not hard to know how Christians large of soul, Christians with St. Clement for a patron, are to hear and take to themselves the assertion in today's epistle; God "has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins." Not on the basis of dogmatic accuracy do we have our life in God, and not through any moral accomplishment have we won our salvation. Nor is it by any kind of certainty we have come to, that we have become a liberated people.

Our redemption, the life and confidence we have as God's own, is the forgiveness of what we have done and left undone. Our hope is in the gift wrought by our Christ, and again made known to us, and by us, in the breaking of bread. Alleluia. Amen.

⁴ Clement describes megalopsychia as a "form of courage" in his MISCELLANEOUS (STROMATEIS) 7.3.

FAITH AND ORDER DIALOGUE PROGRESS REPORT

In response to the Resolution of the Annual Meeting of the Ninetieth Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles, the Faith and Order Dialogue of the Commission on Ecumenicity is in the process of giving serious study to the document The COCU Consensus: In Quest of a Church Uniting.

The Sixty-ninth General Convention (1988) of the Episcopal Church will be asked to accept or reject this document and to proceed to a Church Uniting based upon the precepts presented. Your Commission recognizes the gravity of this decision and has committed itself to a thorough study of whether this is "a sufficient theological basis for the covenanting acts" which are necessary for a Church Uniting. A full report will be presented to the Ninety-second Convention of the Diocese.

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Diaconate

In a 1984 resolution, Annual Meeting of Convention asked the Commission on Ministry to report to the Bishop on the diaconate as a distinctive order. This was done, and last year Bishop Rusack asked the Commission to announce a new policy for a distinctive diaconate. Today we report a plan for implementing this policy. We remember with gratitude Bishop Rusack's policy decision the fulfillment of which we begin today. The diaconate is "alive and well" in the national Church and will soon serve here, complementing lay, priestly and episcopal ministries. As the diaconate already exists in Church law, no canonical changes are necessary. Yet we strongly encourage all members of Annual Meeting to communicate their thoughts about the direction we are taking, by writing any member of the Commission.

Guidelines

Persons seeking to be admitted as a Postulant for Holy Orders, whether for diaconate or priesthood, are expected to meet the requirements laid out in the Commission on Ministry's booklet, "Preparing for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Los Angeles," known as the Bluebook. A new edition will be published in January, 1987.

There will be a two track course of preparation and formation leading to ordination in this diocese. Those preparing for priesthood will be expected to prepare in the manner which has been established over the years. Those preparing for diaconate will have a separate course of preparation. They would be encouraged but not required to spend a year at an accredited Episcopal seminary as part of their training. They would not be required to earn a Master's degree, but must demonstrate the capabilities for graduate-level theological work. Because one diaconal role is proclamation of God's good news, special emphasis would be placed on communications skills, especially preaching.

All candidates for Holy Orders must pass examinations to ascertain proficiency in the seven areas of knowledge set by national canon, either by the General Ordination Examination in the case of those preparing for priesthood, or by examination conducted by the Commission on Ministry with the approval of the Standing Committee and Bishop in the case of those preparing for the diaconate.

In all cases of a person seeking ordination to the priesthood after preparation for the diaconate, that person shall be required to begin the whole process again, including initial screening by the Bishop's Advisory Committee of Applicants for the Ministry (BACAM), taking a course of studies unique to priesthood, parochial internship, and examination. Due to the different nature of the work involved in priesthood and the diaconate, the requirements for Clinical Pastoral Education would be two quarters' study for a deacon and one for a priest. Formal academic preparation for deacons could be carried out through the Episcopal Theological School at Claremont ("Bloy House").

After ordination, deacons would serve under episcopal supervision and, normally, in association with a local congregation. They would be able, as appropriate, to participate in health insurance and pension plans equally with priests and bishops. They would vote at Annual Meeting of Convention (subject to residency requirements). Deacons would ordinarily derive their income from secular employment, but would consider their career the diaconate. This means the primary criterion for holding a particular secular job would be its providing an opportunity for the deacon's ministry in that job site and connecting that site with a sacramental community.

The specific implementing tasks are before us. As we begin to work on them, we also look forward to our new bishop's creative use of this opportunity for the increase of ministry. In the meantime, upon publication of the revised Bluebook in 1987, persons who feel called to the diaconate are encouraged to begin using that booklet to prepare. We expect the first Postulants would be admitted in 1988.

The Commission on Ministry thanks Annual Meeting of Convention for its initiative, in 1984, which led to this report.

VENTURE IN MISSION

Venture in Mission, inaugurated in the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1981, organized latent diocesan energy toward the development of new ministries at home and abroad. The direction set by Diocesan Convention became the catalyst to change a vision for mission and potential financial resources into exciting ministry opportunities. Dozens of programs have received seed money, thousands of persons have received the benefit of the church at work.

Since 1987, fully paid pledges from 4,287 individuals and congregations have amounted to $4,021,097. (Twenty-three congregations made a single pledge. The actual number of additional individuals is not known.) Even after the pledge period formally closed in May 1985 payments continued to be received from 226 units yielding $76,552. Over a thousand accounts remain open. As long as gifts to Venture in Mission are received, the funds will be put to work.

The casebook of Venture in Mission projects adopted by convention included six programs beyond the diocese, four within, and specialized recruitment and training programs. The Cabinet, whose task is to monitor the disbursement of funds, decided at the outset to authorize funding only to projects ready to start. Most projects beyond the diocese have received their allotted portions of the funds, except Western Mexico and the Northern Philippines. These two dioceses have re-evaluated their original plans, goals and procedures. VIM contributions received for them have been held earning interest which will increase the final allocation at time of funding.

Within the diocese VIM created two sources of money for new initiatives. The Revolving Loan Fund provides money to establish new missions and has expanded the ability of small parishes with minimal resources to refurbish and repair tired structures. Eleven projects have been undertaken in the amount of $729,017. $320,486 in loans funds at low interest remain available.

The Opportunity Fund provides grants to projects which enhance local ministry, such as a counseling center, a certified farmer's market or a youth ministry training program. Of fifty-six requests thirty projects have been approved in the amount of $602,135. $124,667 is still available for new work.

Camp Stevens, jointly sponsored by the Dioceses of Los Angeles and San Diego, has received $137,495 from our venture. The newly dedicated year round conference center is a marvelous example of our dollars at work.

The center will allow expanded program opportunities for this vital diocesan ministry.

Episcopal Community Services, providing forty-seven different social services to the elderly in the MacArthur Park area of Los Angeles, has received $116,660 from VIM, a part of the two million dollar cost of their single full service facility. The balance is provided by public funds.

Training in discipleship covers many programs from visiting scholars and provision for clergy study leaves to the enhancement of campus ministries. The youth summer service undertaken by VIM has successfully brought youth and parish service projects together in an exciting way yielding personal growth and spiritual development. The past two years saw the program enriched by extended service at St. Andrew's Seminary, Guadalajara, Mexico. Also in the training for discipleship category, communication throughout the diocese has been enhanced through the new video resources and training available for all congregations.

Venture in Mission, long after the pledge period closed, witnesses to the ingenuity and evangelistic zeal of members of the Diocese of Los Angeles. Needs are identified, new work is funded, because we decided to be prepared for the exciting future God has in store for us.

PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

Because of his enthusiastic support of the Presiding Bishop's Fund, I wish to dedicate this report to the memory of the life and ministry of our beloved Bishop, the Right Reverend Robert Claflin Rusack, whose untimely death last July 16th took from us a wise and gifted leader as well as a beloved friend of the clergy and laity of this diocese.

In 1981 I was appointed by the Bishop to be Diocesan Representative of the Fund and to continue the work begun by the Reverend Raymond K. Riebs who was honored at the convention dinner when Bishop Garver made him an Honorary Canon of the Diocese.

I shall never forget how pleased Bishop Rusack was when I told him that we had raised $276,399 in 1985, which was the largest amount ever contributed by a diocese in a single year. I also remember how he burst out laughing when at the 1984 convention I held up an old laundry bucket and said, "Whatever you contribute for Ethiopian Relief is only a drop in the bucket to what is needed." Later he asked me where I had gotten the idea of the bucket, and I said it had good Anglican authority beginning with the famous Archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas a-Bucket! Laughing, he said, "If I hear you tell that story again, there will be 'Murder in the Cathedral!'" The Bishop had many special qualities, but one that I shall always remember and treasure was his wonderful sense of humor.

We must wait for the final report for 1986 from New York, but based on earlier ones, I have reason to believe that it will be in excess of $160,000. Although this is not as large as in the previous two years, it is still a very sizable amount, clearly indicating that the clergy and people of our diocese are continuing their generous support of the Fund.

The record of giving for the last seven years follows: 1980 - $65,366; 1981 - 70,967; 1982 - 59,155; 1983 - 63,528; 1984 - 198,367 plus Venture in Mission 53,225; 1985 - 276,396 = $787,004. 1986 estimate is 160,000. making a total of $947,004. For our Diocese to contribute nearly a million dollars to the Fund in addition to supporting the local congregation, the Diocese and the National Church, is a truly remarkable achievement.

Following our program of past years, we encouraged the congregations to give their people not one but several opportunities to contribute during the year. The first one was the Lenten Octave Appeal, a time when Christians are concerned about sacrificial living and giving. Again at Pentecost when we think of the world-wide mission of the Church. During the summer months we encourage the use of the LOVE BOXES to remind people to remember others at meal time and to present the boxes at an ingathering in September. The observance of HUNGER WEEK AND HUNGER AWARENESS SUNDAY on October 19th was very special this year. In cooperation with the Diocesan Hunger Committee, over 4,000 RAINBOW-OF-HOPE bags containing beans of many colors were distributed throughout the Diocese. The beans symbolized the diversity of mankind and that legumes constitute the food of millions throughout the world. Finally, we suggested a special appeal during the Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas seasons when Christians naturally think of others.

In the recent issue of "Anchor 86" our Presiding Bishop, the Most Reverend Edmond L. Browning, calls upon us to continue our prayers, our intercessions, and our sacrificial giving to the Fund in order to alleviate the pain and the misery of the world.

If people are to respond to the urgent appeal of Bishop Browning they must be fully aware of the critical needs, and they must also be given the opportunity to respond to those needs through their gifts to the Fund. So much depends upon the leadership of the clergy. They can make the difference. Equally important is to have a strong lay committee to assist them. Establishing a goal for the year will offer a challenge to your congregations. It bears repeating that whatever is given to the Fund will not decrease support of the local congregation. It can only increase it. Some still do not know that the Fund is the way Episcopalians can reach out in love and concern to those in need.

My hope is that every member of the Diocese will make it a priority and will respond with love and generosity when the opportunity to give is presented. By giving help and hope to those in need we are being faithful to the command of our Lord to "feed the hungry, clothe the naked

In closing I should like to express my heartfelt appreciation to the clergy and laity of our Diocese for their support of the Fund during the past seven years. Let us look forward to an even greater record of achievement in the future, beginning in 1987. May God bless you in all that you are doing to extend the rule of His Kingdom here and throughout the world.

Diocesan Network Representative

ADVANCING THE KINGDOM, BUILDING THE CHURCH

1987 MISSION SHARE FUND PROGRAM AND BUDGET. EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

The Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles expresses the ministry of Jesus Christ in our place and time. Our Anglican heritage grounded in Holy Scripture, supported by the witness of a living tradition within the Christian Church, and in the light of contemporary knowledge and reason finds its expression in our diocesan ministry. The kingdom of God advances as the seed of faith is planted and nurtured. The Diocese joins the kingdom's advance through ministry faithful to God's mission in His world.

Our diocesan ministry has a five-fold focus.

- It offers a spirited response to the Great Commission.
"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt. 28:19,20).
- It provides education in the Faith and training for ministry.
- It practices alert stewardship of resources; human and structural.
- It witnesses energetically to diverse needs of the Church and the world, at home and abroad.
- It maintains the links of our corporate life through wise administration.

The diocesan budget for 1987 demonstrates the priorities for ministry established by Diocesan Council following consultation with the five regions of the Diocese. The five-fold ministry undertaken at the diocesan level seeks to build the Church in the following manner:

• Response to the Great Commission	A	$ 75,487	(3.1%)
• Education and Training	B	255,499	(10.3%)
• Stewardship of Persons	C	165,668	(6.7%)
• . . . of Structures	D	137,301	(5.5%)
• Witness to the Church and to the World	E	1,413,219	(56.9%)
• Administration	F	435,155	(17.5%)
TOTAL		$2,482,329	(100.0%)

RESPONSE TO THE GREAT COMMISSION (A)$75,487 (3.1%)

Preaching the Good News of Jesus Christ is the prime activity of the Church. Accompanying the Word is the sacramental ministry for the strengthening and well being of the Church's members. Taking their apostolic commission confidently, our bishops are active examples of effective preaching and sacramental ministry. Baptisms and confirmations, ordinations and other forms of pastoral care make significant demands on the bishops who serve 146 congregations covering 34,000 square miles. Aiding the bishops in the advancement of the Church, especially into new or fast growing communities, is an archdeacon and Program Group on Mission Congregations. To proclaim the Gospel, the bishops, assisted by staff, labor in the vineyard and pulpit, at the altar and in the larger community strengthened by our Lord's constant grace.

EDUCATION IN THE FAITH, TRAINING FOR MINISTRY (B) $255,499 (10.3%)

Each Christian person is called to identify the spiritual gifts that are his or her inheritance; to develop them in common exhibiting the glory of God and building up the Church. Our bishops lift up every opportunity for our members, young and old, lay and ordained to grow into mature followers of Christ. Study of the Faith and formation of new skills are the regular task of members. At the diocesan level resources are provided for curricula planning and training. Workshops are developed for training of children and adults, lay readers, ministers at worship, vestries and regional leaders. The Missioner for Education and Leadership Training is a primary program resource for all. The Communications Office and The Episcopal News are prime media for sharing information throughout the diocese. Campus ministry at our larger universities and parish-based programs at other institutions of higher learning provide the environment for evangelism, spiritual nurture and ecumenical cooperation. To know one's faith is to have the confidence to share it with others. Upon this foundation rests the advancement of the kingdom.

ALERT STEWARDSHIP OF PERSONS (C):$165,668 (6.7%). . . OF STRUCTURES (buildings & organizations) (D)$137,301 (5.5%)

Our gracious God has blessed the world with a bounty of resources to further his mission of drawing all people to himself. He has provided men and women to carry the message. Ordained persons are readied for ministry. The diocese provides the environment for that ministry. Placement of clergy in vacant churches requires a careful assessment by the congregation prior to the beginning of a new ministry to ensure compatibility and the proper environment for growth. The physical structures used in ministry (e.g., churches, halls, equipment, property) are significant resources. These human and structural resources provide stewardship opportunities for our bishops as they seek to build and prosper the Church. Staff persons assist the bishop with clergy placement, congregational development, providing support for seminarians, pastoral care for clergy and their families in times of stress, and for continued training of their skills for the ministry. Program groups and commissions play an essential part in undergirding this ministry through program development. Regional councils and sub-clusters of clergy and churches strengthen the ministry of every member and group.

WITNESS TO NEEDS IN THE CHURCH, THE WORLD (E) $1,413,219 (56.9%)

The largest portion of the diocesan budget is dedicated to the broader witness and work of the Episcopal Church nationally and worldwide. Our giving to the budget adopted by the General Convention serves the larger church in ways best carried on together rather than individually. (A brief review of the national Episcopal Church budget is outlined, see appendix.) Our bishops and representatives serve on numerous boards and commissions of the Episcopal Church nationally and at the provincial level. In addition they serve on many boards in the broader educational, medical and social service community as well as ecumenical and interreligious coalitions to meet human needs. The Communications Office keeps us in touch with the weal and woe of this exciting world about us.

The second largest budget portion is dedicated to the establishment and strengthening of mission congregations in the diocese. Currently 37 missions serve a variety of environments: eight non-Anglo (six Asian, two Latino), 10 small rural churches in desert or mountain settings, 12 suburban, six urban and one college chapel. Fourteen are self-supporting, 22 receive grants from the diocesan budget, eight receive grants from other sources. The costs of relocating vicars and providing worker's compensation and health insurance premiums for retired vicars are included.

Special attention is provided in the budget for ministry to the growing numbers of Asian peoples residing in Southern California. Substantial work is undertaken among the Korean, Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, and Filipino cultures in the region. Funds are also provided for the Hispanic Missioner and for program to implement the five-year plan adopted by the diocese in 1983.

Small parishes have their own peculiar struggles due to aging buildings and reduced congregations caused by population movements. These parishes can receive grants from a block of funds administered by representatives of small parishes.

The budget gives continuing recognition to the plight of refugees in our midst. Other monies support the excellent program for youth and aging at Camp Stevens, co-sponsored by our diocese and San Diego. Youth work is also advancing in new and exciting ways under the leadership of the Coordinator for Youth Ministries. Ecumenical dialogues with other Christian bodies advance the quest for unity among all the followers of Jesus. Dialogues with other religious bodies locally and nationally are undertaken in search of common bonds that strengthen the human spirit and serve many human needs and the environment in which they are found.

Resources for our witness are found in the many program groups and commissions whose varied tasks are indicated in their titles (page 6 of line budget). The budget provides basic housekeeping funds. Program funds are arranged from the pool of monies available to all groups on request.

Diocesan institutions represent a long standing commitment to human service. Many were established at the turn of the century and have achieved a high level of recognition for their work. Among our institutions are The Bishop Gooden Home (alcoholic recovery), The Episcopal Home (residential and nursing care of the aging), Hillside (residential treatment for battered and abused children), Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Neighborhood Youth Association (working with westside youth), St. Barnabas Senior Center (social work agency serving the aging), Seamen's Church Institute (serving seafarers at the Port of Los Angeles). A small budget grant is provided for allocation by the institutions.

Our witness to servant ministry in the diocese and beyond involves a kaleidoscope of opportunities which are met by a wide variety of resources. Building upon the foundation of Jesus' ministry for our contemporary world is an exciting venture in faith.

$435,155 (17.5%)

No organization however can survive or be effective unless it has careful management. The Missioner for Administration and the Comptroller serve to ensure the smooth operation and maintenance of Diocesan House and the eight-member support staff that assists each and every committee, commission, and activity of our corporate life from Altar Guilds to Vestries.

EXTRA-BUDGETARY SOURCES FOR MINISTRY IN THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

The mission of the Episcopal Church through the 146 congregations of the Diocese of Los Angeles is carried on by more ministries than those funded by the diocesan budget. In 1985 the combined income for general purposes of our parishes and missions was $19,002,280. Congregations gave to the diocesan budget $1,740,700 or 9.2% of local general purpose income.

The diocesan budget supports those programs determined by Convention to be essential to our life as a diocese. At the parochial level more ministry evolves to meet specific local needs and is generally funded by a congregation's budget. Some programs can receive funding from monies set aside for new initiatives by foundations and other grant agencies. Venture in Mission and Cathedral Corporation grants are two sources of funds for new initiatives.

Since 1983 Venture in Mission funds have supported programs to extend the mission of the Church in the diocese. Programs receiving funding in 1985, whose work continues to benefit the diocese in 1986, listed by casebook, are grouped in the ministry areas previously defined.

Who receives when you give?

The national program of the Episcopal Church provides a way for individual Episcopalians, congregations and dioceses to participate in Christian mission in places where they may never visit.

The program receives financial support from dioceses which have decided—through the General Convention—that portions of the Episcopal Church's mission are best done on a national or international scale.

Most of the funds received are used to facilitate a variety of ministries throughout the Church, although some grants for specific needs are included.

Seventy-one percent (71%) of the National Church budget is dedicated to ministry development and support. Specifically, 34% of the Church budget is allocated for World Mission; 23% supports National Mission; and 14% is channeled into Education for Mission and Ministry.

Millions of persons at home and abroad are served through the work of the National Church. Who receives when you give? Read on and see.

World Mission

Episcopalians, in partnership with other Anglican Provinces and other Churches in full communion or ecumenical relationship, work in every place to proclaim the Gospel of reconciliation through prayer, worship, service, evangelism, education and pastoral care to promote justice, peace and love in the world.

The Episcopal Church supports 75 missionaries (including the cost of recruitment, training and transportation). In addition, 90 retired missionaries receive pensions and medical assistance.

Part of the budget supports Volunteers for Mission, a religious "peace corps" in which some 100 persons each year serve in programs throughout the world. The Overseas Development Office works with dioceses and provinces to implement long-range training and planning for development projects requested by member churches. Ecumenical agencies receive administrative level funding to enable missionary planning and theological dialogue.

The United Thank Offering receives administrative support from the general Church budget so that all gifts to this vital extra-budgetary program can support new mission initiatives. Likewise, the Presiding Bishop's Fund receives administrative support so that the gifts to the Fund can be put to use feeding the hungry, clothing and sheltering disaster victims, ministering to refugees and rehabilitating persons in adverse conditions.

National Mission

The National Church works in partnership with dioceses and provinces of the Episcopal Church as they seek to strengthen, develop and renew the life and total programs addressing the physical, social and spiritual needs of people.

The general Church budget supplies direct base budget support for 15 dioceses (formerly missionary dioceses) and Navajoland. The work of the Church in small communities and in the national parks is maintained.

Ethnic ministry offices provide congregational development, leadership training and ministry among minorities. Appalachian Ministries serves a 12-diocese mountain region with special needs. Jubilee Ministry development encourages work among the poor through grants. A wide variety of concerns dealing with the aging, the deaf, hunger, housing, peace and social responsibility are addressed in this broad budget area.

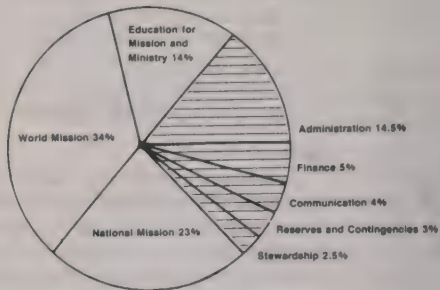

Education for Mission and Ministry

Education for Mission and Ministry brings together creative Christian minds to design effective education programs for children, youth and adults.

This office coordinates training in evangelism, pastoral care and congregational development. Ministry in both higher and theological education are attended to. Episcopal black colleges receive base budget support amounting to 26% of this total budget category.

The remaining 29% of the 1986 Budget is the superstructure for the three areas of mission and ministry outlined above. Communication, Stewardship, Finance, Administration, Reserves and Contingencies work together to strengthen our common ministry.
